Junior Class Nominates Candidates

Keen, White Listed For President at Brief Meeting

A handful of key junior politicians took less than 10 minutes last night to nominate candidates for next year's senior class offices in the Villard hall assembly room.

Candidates:

For president—Robert Keen, Wally White.

Vice-president—Elbrence Kinney, Joan Hoke.

Secretary—Donna Ketchum, Doris Ann Neely.

Treasurer—Ehle Reber, Bill Knight.

President Jim Pickett called the meeting under way at 8 p.m. and dispensed with a report on the progress of Junior Weekend. Chairman Lloyd Sullivan had not yet returned from Portland. Nominations started immediately with no formal acceptance speeches. Pickett announced the elections will be held a week from today at regular ASUO voting, on separate ballot.

Ice Cream Sales Slated by YWCA

Frosh Group Plans To Sell at Dance, Organizations

Two ice cream bar sales will be held this week by the YWCA frosh commission, Jean Crites, YW president, announced last night.

Tomorrow afternoon the tennis court dance will be the scene of the first sale, while the rest of the ice cream will be taken to campus living organizations Thursday noon, Jeanne Wilcox and Mary Kay Riordan, co-chairmen of the project, said.

Morse Returns From Union Trial

Speaking to Silverton Rotarians yesterday was Dean Wayne L. Morse, University law school head. The dean returned from San Francisco Saturday after a week's absence from the campus to continue the trial of a clerk's union dispute in the California city.

Time Extension For Cap and Gown Orders Granted

A short extension of time for senior class members to order caps and gowns for graduation has been announced by Senior Class President Phil Lowry.

Graduating students may still order their outfits from the University Co-op this week, Lowry said, although the deadline will not be very far away.

Poison Oak Toll At Infirmary Rising Rapidly

As spring term advances poison oak tolls mount higher and higher at the University infirmary. Monday saw a steady stream of victims pouring into the health service.

"They don't bother to say, 'I think I have poison oak' any longer," one nurse explained. "All they have to say is 'I've been on a picnic' and the doctors know what the trouble is."

Housed in the hospital division Monday were Beth Rowan Pat Heastand, Margaret Robbins, Margery Williams, Evelyn Moser, John Merrill, and James Stubblebine.

Dates Set for 'High Tor' Run

Guild Hall Players Show May 22-24 In Season's Finale

After floating around the calendar for a couple of weeks, the dates of "High Tor's" campus presentation were finally settled for May 22, 23, and 24.

Maxwell Anderson's romantic comedy will be produced in the University theater by Mrs. Ottilie T. Seybolt, director of drama, as the final play to be given this season by the Guild hall group.

Casting for "High Tor" will be complete with the exception of one member of the cast. First public release names the players as: Indian, Adrian Martin; Van Dorn, Fred Waller; Judith Charlene Jackson; Biggs, Henry Korn; Skinnerhorn, Ethan Newman; Dise, Rose Ann Gibson; Asher, James Parsons; Pieter, Bob Hecker; sailors, Jerry Lakefish and Ludd Schmidt; Deitt, Frank Calhoun; Dope, Gerald Bowerly; Elkers, Charles Boice; Buddy, Don Butzin; Patsy, Parker McNeil; Senior, Marjory Barrett; Budge, Jack McCliment.

Hanger Visits Here

Michael Hanger, a former University student, was on the campus Monday visiting professors in the sociology and economics departments.

Hanger is assisting Davis MacEntire who will be on the campus today in analyzing the way of living in isolated communities.

Earl Snell to Appear At ASUO Installation

Earl Snell, secretary of state for Oregon, will bring an atmosphere of official political seriousness to the University campus, May 8, when he presides at installation of Oregon's 1940-41 ASUO officers, Karl W. Onthank, dean of personnel, announced yesterday.

Mr. Snell will make a special trip to Eugene for the occasion and will deliver what will be his first talk before the University student body. Installation, accord-

Class Votes Valid, Ruling Of Judiciary

Frosh, Sophomore Elections Legal, Says ASUO Court

The validity of the freshman and sophomore elections was established last night when the judiciary committee, supreme court of the ASUO, ruled that evidence presented did not constitute sufficient proof that either election was not legal.

In a third decision the committee ruled that it was bound by the "clear, literal meaning of the ASUO constitution" and that all certificates of eligibility and declarations of intention to run for ASUO offices be filed two days prior to nominations regardless of whether that day happens to be Sunday.

The first petition, signed by a number of campus people, asked that the freshman election be called illegal because handbills, unauthorized by Emerald heads, which were inserted in the campus daily gave one side an unfair advantage. The second petition contested the sophomore election on the basis of a discrepancy in the number of ballots cast and the total shown on the two check lists.

At the executive meeting immediately following the committee instructed its chairman to draw up a set of rules governing cases brought before it and to establish any other necessary rules governing cases brought before it and to establish any other necessary rules of procedure he thought necessary.

The complete decision in each of the three cases, written by Dean Wayne L. Morse, chairman of the committee, can be found on page 7.

Finals Scheduled In Poetry Contest

Finals in the W. F. Jewett poetry speaking contest will be held at 3 p.m. today in Friendly hall.

Preliminary elimination was held yesterday, with contestants divided into three groups consisting of narrative and ballad, Biblical poetry, and the lyric and sonnet group. Entrants are not restricted to speech classes, and any or all groups are being entered.

Business Heads

Jim Frost (above) was named 1940-41 business manager of the Emerald and Dick Williams was reappointed business manager of the Oregana by the educational activities board yesterday.

Frost, Williams Awarded Posts

Emerald, Oregana Business Heads Named by Board

In one of the longest sessions on record, the educational activities board, later followed by the student executive committee, yesterday officially proclaimed Dick Williams as business manager of the Oregana and Jim Frost to hold the same position on the Emerald for the ensuing year.

Winning over two other candidates, Frost will be the first sophomore elected to the Emerald post. This year he has acted as advertising manager under George Luoma, the present Emerald business manager.

Williams, a junior won over three other candidates to secure for himself the same berth which he held last year.

Alpha Kappa Delta To Meet Tonight

Alpha Kappa Delta, sociology honorary, will hold its first meeting of the term tonight at 7:45 in the AWS room of Gerlinger.

Freed Bales, graduate assistant, will speak on "The Concept of Social Situations."

Presidential Race Draws Hats of Four

Assembly Slated For Nominating Candidates Today

Harrison Bergtholdt, John Cavanagh, Marge McLean, and Tiger Payne were the only student body presidential nominees to have filed their intention to run last night on the eve of the nominating assembly this morning at 11 o'clock.

Other executive committee hopefuls who overlooked filing notice of intention to run must enter the race before election day by petitions signed by 50 ASUO members.

In charge of the actual procedure of nominating the new officers before the student body this morning in Gerlinger will be student body Vice-President Verdt Sederstrom. But before he opens the meeting to speeches of political backers, Sederstrom will present the University concert band which will play two possible Oregon fight songs for the student body.

Also slated is pledging of outstanding sophomore women to Phi Theta, junior women's honorary. Pledging, to be handled by President Majeane Glover, will feature presenting of pledge ribbons by Dean of omen Hazel P. Schwering.

All sophomore women have been asked to attend the assembly, where they will sit downstairs until pledging takes place.

Additional details are on page three.

Sunday Funnies

Long ago when I was home,
Late on Sunday morn I'd roam
To a box outside the confines of our gate.

And there I'd lift the lid
To find that some efficient kid
Had laid the Sunday paper there in state.

Though the headlines caught my eye,
I would quickly pass them by
To the funnies, which I would eliminate

From the remainder of the paper,
Then back to bed I'd caper,
And with the trials of Daniel
Dunn participate.

But since I've reached the U. of
O.,
I find conditions are not so.
Come Sunday morn, I didn't sleep late.

But whatever hour I rise
There are 30 other guys
Who've decided what shall be the funnies' fate.

Though to pleadings I give vent,
I still must be content
To scan the ads and read of real estate. —J.W.S.

Questionnaires Out

Questionnaires for the faculty survey have been sent to every member of the University staff, according to Dr. Beatrice Aitchison, who is directing the survey.
