

Music Students Play Tonight

Free Concert Will Feature Violin, Piano Numbers

University students who enjoyed the University symphony orchestra sponsored by the Emerald a week ago will be interested in the free recital to be presented Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the music auditorium by students of Aurora Potter Underwood and Rex Underwood.

Piano and violin selections of a classic nature will be the chief fare on the musical menu. Mozart's "Concerto for Violin in E Flat Major" will be played by Elizabeth Walker, member of the University symphony and a freshman in music from Milton-Freewater. Violinist Verne Sellin, also a student of Mr. Underwood, will play "Concerto in E Minor" by Mendelssohn.

Dorothy Davis, junior in music and holder of this year's Phi Beta scholarship in piano, is accompanist for the Eugene Women's Choral club. Her contribution to the recital will be "Capriccio Brillant."

Duck Tracks

Dick Whitman, slugging outfielder, is quite a golfer. He hits a mighty long ball and tours an average nine in about 40 (that's without practicing).

Benny Hughes, Oregon's northern division golf champion, is one of those amazing athletes who seems to play best when the pressure is on . . . and the more the better.

They Beat the Beavers

It seems that in weekly practice challenge matches, Benny ranks about sixth on the team . . . but nevertheless, his coach, Captain Dwight (Doc) Near plays him No. 2 on the team in regular matches. Doc is justified, too, in playing Hughes No. 2, for little Benny, a lad who stands about five-five but is stockily built, has been medalist in the last two matches which the Duck divotmen have won—against OSC and British Columbia.

Against the Staters, Hughes had a 71, and against British Columbia, he shot an even par 72. Last spring, Benny was top man of the northern division meet by some 13 strokes.

Near, himself, plays No. 1. Coach Near is probably the most consistent golfer on the squad, always giving par a beating or a scare. He had a 73 yesterday, and Rich Werschkul, the third letterman of the team, had a 74.

One thing the golfers can boast of. They're the only Webfoot team to whip Oregon State this year.

Scholarship Dance Slated Wednesday

A scholarship benefit dance is to be given Wednesday night at the Wintergarden, with 11 o'clock permission being granted to University students.

The dance is being sponsored by the Eugene and Springfield Youth league, which has given scholarships to two students this year, George and Fred Warner.

This is the first of their dances open to the public. When the Youth league band has its intermission there will be a half hour floor show.

The league has also given music scholarships for private tutors.

Linn Hurls 5-Hit

(Continued from page five) Carney rolled out short to first for the initial out but Berry slapped out his third blow of the game, a single. He moved to third on another single to centerfield by Bill "Whizzer" White and scored on a bad throw to third by Catcher Whitey Price. Whitey Austin, who was running for White, took second. Herb Hamer then lifted a high pop fly over short which fell safely when the Vandals had a mix-up in signals. Al Linn followed that with a very scratchy triple which he got as a gift from Left Fielder Ray Round who fell flat on his face attempting to run in on the ball.

Arba Ager then singled and he finally scored on a play identical to Berry's dash to the plate—it was on a bad throw to third by Price. The inning finally ended with Oregon leading 10 to 3. The Ducks had smashed out five hits and scored six runs with the aid of Price's two errors.

Pitcher Linn put himself in the hole in the first of the ninth by walking the first two Vandal batters. Lead-off Man Ron Harris then smacked out an infield single. The Oregon defense came up with a fast double play from Jack Shimshak to Berry to Hamer at first, but another Oregon error, an infield single by Ron Harris, and a long triple into the rightfield stands by Spicuzza gave Idaho its final three runs.

Piano Ensemble To Give Concert

Public premieres of two new compositions by George Hopkins, Oregon composer and professor of piano in the University of Oregon music school, will be given Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the music auditorium when he presents eight of his students in a piano ensemble concert. The public is invited.

The two numbers, which have been influenced by both classicists and moderns, will be played in two-piano arrangements. Leone LaDuke will join the composer in the performance of his "Scottish Gavotte," the more classic of the two works. Miss LaDuke and Emery Hobson will play a duet of the rhythmic rumba, "Tropical Incident," a definitely American type of song at which Mr. Hopkins is a specialist.

Lural Burggraf will play the first movement of Ravel's piano concerto, and Thelma Schnitzer will be heard in a performance of Rubinstein's concerto, first movement. Cesar Franck's monumental "Symphonic Variations" will be played in their entirety by Mr. Hobson.

Dorothy Gelman and Geraldine Walker will offer a duet, Raff's "Gavotte and Musette," while Schutt's "Impromptu Roccoco" will be played by Marian Isted and Jane Partipilo. Mr. Hopkins will play the orchestral accompaniment at a second piano in the concerto numbers.

THEATRE PREVIEW

By ROY METZLER

You've all probably heard it said, "If Lincoln were only alive today—" Well if we can't have Lincoln, the picture, "Abe Lincoln in Lillinois" is the next best thing. With Raymond Massey, star of the Broadway success, cast as the Great Emancipator, the picture is good from both the historical and the entertainment side.

A good part of the picture was filmed around Eugene this summer, as the hills around here look more like the hills of Illinois looked, than the hills of Illinois look today. Making their headquarters in Eugene, all the outdoor scenes were taken in this vicinity. The river scenes in the film are of the McKenzie river. You may even see some of your friends in the picture, as all the extras were local talent.

The photoplay traverses the years from the time that Lincoln set out to make his way in the world as a young man to the time that he left Illinois for the White House as the president of the United States. Lincoln is portrayed as a dreamer, who shuns rather than welcomes fame and a political career.

His love for Ann Rutledge spells heartbreak. It is a beautiful manner in which he recites his devotion to her when she has been made unhappy by the faithlessness of another man. Lincoln never wins a conquest in this romance, it remains ideal until the young girl's death.

After Ann's death he meets Mary Todd, who is all determination for his future in public life. His love for Ann lingers on however, and he all but spurns the woman who is later to become his wife.

The historical data is almost perfect. The text of his speeches are Lincoln's own words. Gene Lockhart prepared himself through extensive research to bring a life-like portrait of Stephen Douglas. Mary Todd is depicted by Ruth Gordon, and the rest of the cast is excellent. "Abe Lincoln in Illinois" should be on your "must" list. It is now playing at the Heilig, and will move to the Mayflower soon.
