

Amphibians Tryout Tonight

Coeds Will Meet At Gerlinger Pool; All Girls Invited

Amphibians, coed swimming honorary, are holding tryouts tonight in Gerlinger pool at 7:15. Any girl who is interested is welcome to come and try, Prexy Martha McClung said last night.

"We have done so many interesting things this year, and anticipate an even better program next year," Marthan continued. "Amphibians sponsored the intramural swimming meets, presented with the varsity swimmers a successful water pageant 'Pleasure Island,' placed second in the western region of the National Telegraphic meet, entertained the OSC aquabats here and accepted an invitation to swim in their pool with them, and conquered the elements of water polo."

Set by the Amphibians as prerequisites to pledging are these tests:

- Speed—40 yards in 32 seconds.
- Form—2 strokes.
- Endurance—22 lengths.
- Diving—3 standard dives.

Girls who are going to try out are requested to bring their own swimming cap. Suits will be furnished.

Vernstrom Talks At Alumni Meeting

University students will put on a program at a meeting of Oregon alumni and their friends of Washington county tonight at 7:30 in the Hillsboro chamber of commerce.

Roy Vernstrom, chairman of the University Federation committee, will show pictures of the campus and give a talk The Delt quartet, George Drach, Don Hicks, Paul Eckleman, and Cy Vims, are scheduled to sing several songs.

Arrangements for the meeting are being made by Al Bogue, a '39 graduate of Oregon and a teacher in the Hillsboro union high school.

Fellowship Plans Trip to Corvallis

The Varsity Christian Fellowship will go to Corvallis for a hike and campfire with the OSC Fellowship Saturday afternoon, members of the Oregon group announced Wednesday.

Several cars will leave shortly before noon and return by 9 p.m. All students are welcome to attend. Arrangements are in the hands of Ralph Eichenberger, phone 1800.

Free Piano Concert Scheduled Tonight

Modern and classical piano compositions which have stood the test of popularity will be offered music-minded Eugene residents who attend the free concert in the University of Oregon music auditorium tonight at 8 o'clock. The concert will be given by eight University pianists, all students of Professor George Hopkins, and will be open to the public.

Two of the numbers are new, having recently been composed by Mr. Hopkins himself. These will be the "Scottish Gavotte" played by Leone La Duke and Emery Hobson, and the "Tropical Incident" rhumba, which Miss La Duke and Mr. Hopkins will offer in a two-piano arrangement.

Schutt's "Impromptu Roccoco" will be interpreted by Geraldine Walker and Jane Partipilo, and Franck's "Symphonic Variations" by Mr. Hobson. Two movements from piano concerts will also be presented, one from Rubinstein by Thelma Schnitzer, and the other from Ravel by Lural Burggraf. Dorothy Gelman and Geraldine Walker will play "The Gavotte and Musette" by Raff.

Research Bureau Arranges Plans For Convention

The University bureau of municipal research and service is helping arrange the annual convention of the League of Oregon Cities which is scheduled for May 23 and 24 at Seaside.

William Hall, director of the bureau and executive secretary of the league, reports that main interest during the convention will center around problems of city population and municipal services.

One of the main purposes of the campus bureau is to give technical advice to city officials in the state as problems arise concerning government, finances, and legislature in the cities.

PE Open House Set for Friday

Open house will be held at the physical education building for all men students next Friday evening from 7 to 9 p.m., it was announced yesterday by the physical education office. The event is one of several which have been held this year to acquaint students with all the facilities of the department.

Dr. F. W. Skiff Plans To Visit Campus On Library Day

Dr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Skiff of Portland plan to visit the campus on Library day, May 3. Dr. Skiff was granted an honorary degree from the University of Oregon last spring.

A fine collection of books was recently given to the University by Dr. Skiff for the use of the natural history museum. He collects first editions and autographed copies of American writers, and his own library contains over 20,000 volumes.

While here, Dr. Skiff will speak to the class in book selection and evaluation on "Famous Books in American Literature." The visitors will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Douglass.

Moot Court Opens Sessions Tonight

With Professor Orlando J. Hollis on the bench, a group of prospective jurors waiting anxiously for a chance to serve on the jury panel, and with a case of "dog bites man" up for trial, the law school's first moot trial of the year will open tonight at 7:30 in the circuit court room of the Lane county court house, 8th and Oak.

The dog in the case is owned by Betty Brown, defendant, who is charged by Plaintiff Darrel Johnson with careless conduct in letting the animal bite him. Damages asked total $200.

Miss Brown's attorneys are Kenneth Abraham and Denton Burdick, who oppose the plaintiff's attorneys, William F. Lubersky and Sheldon Parks, in the legal battle.

Assisting in official capacities will be Jason Bailey as clerk of the court, George Tichy as bailiff, and Donald Marshall as court reporter.

Municipal Group Releases Report On Traffic Control

Russell Barthell, assistant director of the bureau of municipal research and service, yesterday released a report on the use of traffic islands and medial strips in traffic control by 58 cities in the United States and Canada.

The report was prepared for use of Portland traffic officials and shows that the use of modern medial strips and traffic and safety islands brings a decrease in accidents.

Headquarters of the bureau are in Fenton hall, and William Hall is director of the bureau.

Almost 2,000,000 students in 16 colleges and 120 schools were served last year by Boston university's visual education department.
