Presenting the 1940 Junior Weekend Queen And Her Court

Queen Betty Buchanan

From her place as just another Oregon coed, pretty Betty Buchanan will step Friday noon into a mythical kingdom of old Vienna, to be re-creator for three days on the Oregon campus. Petite little Queen Betty, better known by her friends as "Bucky," will wear as her royal robes a quaint white dress fashioned of yards and yards of dotted swiss. The crown will be placed on her brown curls, which will be brushed high off her brow.

Sparkling grey eyes and a democratic smile promise a happy reign for Queen Betty II, of Salem, as she waves her scepter over the down-to-earth University of Oregon and creates "Springtime in Vienna."

The tiny 20-year-old monarch, who stands only five feet three, will attend her royal ball Friday night, the annual Junior Prom, with Wendell Wyatt.

Princess Laura Jean Maurice

Striking brunette beauty is Laura Jean Maurice's claim to royalty, for this princess of the court of the Viennese kingdom has shining brunette locks, pulled back in soft curls from a center part. Dignity and friendliness mix together pleasantly in her brown eyes.

Her dress will be made of pink dotted swiss, made into an old fashioned gown similar to that of the queen. The gowns are all designed along the lines of the Austrian pinafore, with a square neck and perky shoulder ruffles.

The 21-year-old coed who will live in a dream kingdom from May 10 to 12 will be dancing Friday night with Les Ready, whose pin she wears.

Princess Suzanne Cunningham

Olive-skinned Suzanne Cunningham, chic little 19-year-old princess, will look down on the University of Oregon undergrads thronged at her feet, in a royal dress of pink, just like that of Princess Laura Jean.

Only five feet four, Suzanne is every bit alive, and large hazel eyes smile at many campus acquaintances, for she is popular and well-known.

Her lovely tan gives her away as a sports enthusiast, and her ATO pin makes it known that she'll be dancing with Bob Hochuli Friday night.

Princess Eleanor Collier

Gracious Eleanor Collier is the only blonde of the 1940 Weekend court, and her light skin, topped by short blonde curls, gives a dignified type of beauty. Blue eyes that are friendly and a smile that one remembers helped to get Princess Eleanor on the royal court, and those same attributes will make her a popular princess.

She'll wear a light blue dotted swiss dress of the same design as that of the other girls when the court makes its first appearance. She is five feet eight inches tall, and is 20 years old.

Fred Ehlers will take time off from his directing of the canoe fete to escort her to the Prom Friday evening.

Princess Janet Foster

A blue dress to match her eyes will be the costume of Princess Janet Foster, tall stately coed, who will be the fifth member of the Junior Weekend court. You'd expect blonde hair with that, but Janet is an unusual girl, and so she startles you with brown locks pulled back from her forehead in a middle-parted hair dress that is striking because of simplicity.

Twenty years old, Princess Janet is a Washington contribution to the kingdom of Vienna, where girls in Austrian pinafores will keynote her kingdom of admirers.

But also admiring Janet will be Roger Conrad, who is to be her escort at the Prom.
