

UO Has Two Firsts

With two sure firsts and a couple of possibilities, Oregon's varsity cindermen meet the best the Northern division has to offer today at Seattle in the Northern division meet, preliminary to next week's Coast conference carnival in Los Angeles.

Each end of the conference holds a separate tournament and the winners in each division go to the all-Coast meet.

Oregon is picked by fans as not better than a third place threat, with both Washington's powerful Huskies and the defending titlists from Washington State rated as sure to finish ahead of the undermanned Webfoot crew.

Brown and Hansen

Best Duck bets are red-thatched Boyd Brown in the javelin and Rod Hansen in the pole vault. Boyd is defending champion in the stick-slinging event and is favored to beat the class of the nation this year. He made a practice throw this week of 238 feet—4 feet over the present record held by Bob Peoples of Southern California. Peoples broke his right arm recently and will be out of competition this spring.

Rod has been suffering from a sore leg all season and has been whipping his competition by only six or eight inches! He has cleared 14 feet, 4 inches in previous seasons and has that competitive spirit—he can't be beat. When the competition gets close, he shrugs and tries a little harder.

Expected to have some trouble in retaining his crown is Ehle Aeber, Webfoot captain-elect and defending champion in the broad jump. Reber has won this event in all dual meets so is favored but Washington has a comer in John Johns. Ehle beat him in the dual engagement, of course, but Johns has the potentialities to make it tough for the stocky Oregonian.

Storli vs. Dale

Captain Kirm Storli of the Ducks meets his jinx in Bill Dale of Washington State. Dale has beaten Storli once this season and twice last year. Kirm is also entered in the 440, and, on the strength of his performance in last week's OSC meet, has a good chance of placing here too. He broke 50 seconds in the Beaver meet in spite of being boxed in for the first 200 yards.

Jim Buck—Oregon's all-around sprint star—has his hands full with Kjell Qvale of the Huskies. Qvale can cover 100 yards in :9.7 or thereabouts pretty consistently. Jim's best mark is a :9.6, posted as a sophomore. In the low hurdles, Buck faces Lee Orr, Olympic sprint man and Captain Jim McGoldrick of the Huskies.

In the distance runs, there is a host of good performers. Phil Leibowitz of Idaho and Dizie Garner of WSC should pull in 1-2 in the two mile and one of them may nip OSC's Don Vaillancourt in the mile.

Not in his best form this season, Oregon's Bob Mitchell has nevertheless run some good races and may come through in the mile. Oregon's two-mile hopes are pinned on Sophomore Rea Kleinfeldt.

OSC's Flash

Ed Woodcock of Oregon State is picked as an easy first-placer in the high jump with his six-foot-six leaps; Oregon's Harris has gone over six three and might get a second, though rumor has it that Idaho has a flash too.

Heat drawings will be made this morning and preliminaries will start at two o'clock this afternoon.

Asked whether his Huskies can upset the Cougars, who have won this year too.

Oregon entries are as follows—Brown, javelin; Harris and McKee, high jump; Hansen and Hendershott, pole vault; Reber and Dickson, broad jump; Regner, shot put and discus; Buck, 100-yard dash and 220-yard low hurdles; Storli, 440 and 880; Reiner, 440; Clever, 880; Mitchell, mile; Kleinfeldt, two-mile.

Following are the Northern division records: mile—4:16.4, set by Garner, WSC, 1937; two-mile—9:30.4, set by Gillette, Montana, 1926; 880—1:51.5, set by Palmason, Washington, 1937; 220—:20.8, set by Orr, WSC, 1937; 100—:09.5, set by Orr, WSC, 1934, and tied by Shoemaker, Oregon, 1935; 440—:46.9 set by Benke, WSC, 1937.

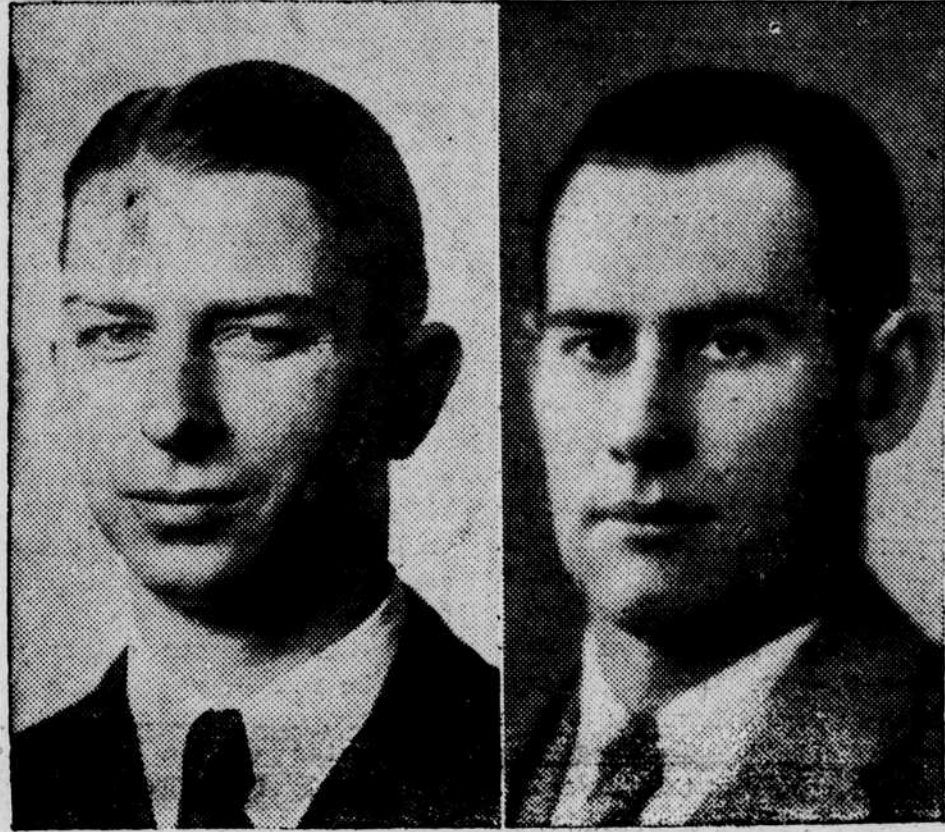

Field Marks

Shot—52 feet, 7/8 inch, set by Theodoratus, WSC, 1934; javelin—220 feet, 7/8 inches, set by Parke, Oregon, 1934; pole vault—14 feet, 1 inch, set by Varoff, Oregon, 1939; broad jump—24 feet, 2 5/8 inches, set by Panton, Washington, 1938; discus—157 feet, 2 inches, set by Moeller, Oregon, 1929; high jump—6 feet, 5 1/4 inches, set by Vandermay, Washington, 1936.

120-yard high hurdles—:14.4, set by Anderson, Washington, 1928; 220-yard lows—:23.2, set by Anderson, Washington, 1929, and tied by Benke, WSC, 1935.

Mile relay—3:17.9, set by Washington, 1937 (Humber, Flagg, Palmason, Montgomery).

On the left is Varsity Coach Hobby Hobson, whose defending titlists are enjoying a week's lay-off after the bruising Inland Empire trip. To the right is genial John Warren, whose material-laden frosh nine has won twelve games in a row.

Donut Play Nearly Over

With only one week of play left before the finals get under way, three more teams scored wins yesterday in softball competition. Scoring more runs in two and one-third innings than has yet been approached this year, the Super-Scribes steamrolled over the Fighting Finns, 22 to 0. The Delts pulled through with a close 4 to 2 win from Sigma Chi's team. Third game of the afternoon found Campbell Co-op taking Omega hall in a loosely-played contest, 14 to 6.

The Super-Scribes and the Fighting Finns both played with only eight players on a side; this did not handicap the winners, however, as Tommy Wright, Scribe pitcher, allowed the losers only one hit, that by Sorenson, in the second inning.

Scribes Powerful

Pounding the pellet at will, the Scribes breezed through in easy style. Every player got at least two hits for them.

Batteries: Super - Scribe, Wright and Foster; Fighting Finns—Lardell, Rudolph and Sorenson.

Behind the four-hit pitching of Atkinson, the Delts took the close game of the afternoon from Sigma Chi, 4 to 2. The winners played errorless ball and collected six blows to help give them their second win.

Behind the heavy stick work of Eddie Baxter, Atkinson, and Hansen, the Delts drove across three runs in the third and a cincher in the sixth. Hanson collected a homer for them.

One in the fifth and another one in the seventh was the extent of the Sigma Chi's scoring.

Batteries: Delts—Atkinson and Bockes; Sigma Chi—Sederstrom and Hughson.

Campbell made good on eight hits, coupled with 10 errors on the part of Omega hall, to score their lopsided 14 to 6 win.

Bucknum Triples

The winners pulled through two runs in the first, three in the fourth, three in the fifth, and sixth in the seventh. Bucknum, Co-op catcher, got the only extra-base hit of the game, a triple in the seventh.

Playing without the service of their pitcher and second sacker, the Omega hall team failed to show the smooth play that it has previously demonstrated, but stayed in the ball game until they began to boot the ball around.

Batteries: Campbell Co-op — Olsen and Bucknum; Omega hall —Dunckel and Shimomura.

The first fraternity to be organized on the University of Oregon campus was Sigma Nu, followed closely by Kappa Sigma.

'A' Volleyball Finished

By LEE FLATBERG

Play was concluded in "A" volleyball leagues yesterday when the Zeta hall took the league IV crown, and the Phi Sigs moved into a tie for the league III title. The SAEs and Sigma hall wound up the season with wins.

Zeta hall automatically took the title on the strength of a default by the Super Chargers.

The SAEs took second in league IV as the result of their 15 to 7, 15 to 2 win over the Chi Psis. Led by Jim Marnie, Vic Townsend, and Harry Lowe, the SAEs turned the game into a three-ring circus with their clowning.

Phi Sigs Tied

Led by Frank Hitchcock and Carter Fetch, the Phi Sigs downed the Canard club, 15 to 2, 15 to 5. The Phi Sigs looked very impressive as they seemed to score at will. As the result of their win the Alder street boys moved into a triple tie for the league III title with the Betas and Phi Psi.

Sigma hall hung up its last win as the result of a default by the Fijis.

With the league play completely finished in "A" and "B" volleyball, the finals are listed to begin sometime next week. The teams to enter final competition in "A" volleyball are: Phi Delts, ATOs, Sig Eps, Zeta hall, and winner of the play-off of the three-way tie in league III, the Betas, Phi Psi, and Phi Sigs being tied for the top position.

Phi Delts Favored

Judging from the previous play of the team, the Phi Delts will enter the final round of play heavy favorites to repeat their last year's championship. The ATOs are given an outside chance of tipping the defending champs.

In "B" volleyball the following teams have qualified to enter the final round of play: Phi Delts, Kappa Sigs, Betas, Gamma hall, and ATOs.

Looking back on the records of the teams in league play it is hard to pick a likely winner, as all the teams have looked like potential champs, and enter the play-offs undefeated.

Today's softball schedule—field 1: 9 o'clock, SAE vs. Omega hall; 10 o'clock, Sherry Ross vs. Sigma Chi. Field 2: 10 o'clock, Sig Eps vs. Sammies. Field 3: 9 o'clock, Canard club vs. Phi Sigs; 10 o'clock, Phi Delts vs. Chi Psi.

Netters Lose

OSC's rook tennis team threw a crinkle into what would have been a Duck field day up in Corvallis yesterday, when its netters hung up a 4-3 victory over the frosh, first setback the Ducklings have suffered in competition this season. On adjoining courts the Webfoot varsity was humbling the Beavers 7-0 and up in the ball park the frosh were conking the rooks, 3-2.

Beaten by the same score earlier this week on the Oregon courts by the frosh, the rooks came back with improved play in their own back yard.

Dick Hallock, rook No. 1, made it two straight over Frank Baker of the frosh, beating the Duckling top man 6-3, 6-0 after pulling out on top of a three-set affair in their first meeting.

Lloyd Manning dropped the No. 2 singles for the frosh, 6-0, 6-1, to Bagby of the rooks after beating the Stater when they tangled last Monday.

Johnny Kahananui took Rook Bob Downie down 6-0, 6-1, making it two straight over the State first-year man, having beaten him in their first tiff, a three-set match.

Johnny McInnis came through for the frosh with a 6-2, 6-3 triumph over Williams of the rooks, while Norman Hill of the frosh dropped his encounter to Bruckart after copping the first set 6-4. Final tally was 4-6, 6-2, 6-1.

Oregon's Baker-Manning combine dropped the No. 1 doubles to Hallock and Bruckart, 6-2, 6-2, while Kahananui and McInnis took Bagby and Downie, 6-3, 6-3.

Girls....

Before Mortar Board
Take Your Man to Dinner

Before you take your date to the Mortar Board ball tonight you will want to take him out for dinner. Of course you will want to get a good dinner and show him that the girls also know how to show a date a good time. We suggest that you come to McCrady's to do this.
