

ASUO Offers Bargain on Athletic Cards

House Going 100% To Receive Money Order, Gurley Says

Oregon's first athletic card drive moved forward Tuesday with the establishment of a ticket booth in front of the College Side where the money-saving cards will be on sale until Thursday night. The drive, headed by Joe Gurley, offers a $23.85 value of all University games for $9. This includes five football games, 11 basketball tilts, two conference track meets, 13 baseball contests and three swimming meets.

In addition, there will be a $1.10 discount on tickets to the Oregon-Oregon State game at Corvallis on November 30.

To enable early purchases an installment plan has been devised whereby a $3 down payment may be made. The full payment, however, will give the purchaser $1 credit on the Oregonana, University yearbook, Gurley announced.

Arrangements have been made to place the tickets on sale at the College Side today and Thursday; at the registration tables in McArthur court Friday and Saturday; and a booth will be placed at the Hayward field entrance Friday night preceding the opening game with the San Diego Marines. They also may be purchased at the ASUO ticket office in McArthur court and Johnson hall.

Assisting Joe Gurley with the drive are Ken Erickson, Billie Christenson and Lou Torgeson.

Working under Torgeson are fraternity representatives who are vying for the salesmen prizes offered daily in the card push. Billie Christenson is head of the sorority saleswomen and in charge of all independent representatives is Ken Erickson.

Three daily prizes are to be awarded—one each to the leading salesmen in the fraternity, independent and sorority group. These daily prizes will be given for six days, September 30 through Saturday, October 5, according to Chairman Gurley. Added to this are the three grand prizes to be awarded one each to the top salesmen in each group at the conclusion of the drive.

All houses going 100 per cent by Friday night of this week will be given a $15 money order; every house after that to be 100 per cent athletic boosters by October 5 will be given a $10 money order. The money orders may be good for records if desired, Gurley stated.

Yeoman Meeting Set for Monday

The Oregon Yeomen will hold their regular meeting Monday, September 30, in the men's lounge of Gerlinger Hall. Although there will be no attempt at a membership drive so early in the fall, all students are welcome to attend.

Both a social and business meeting will take place to acquaint the new students with the history of the Yeomen and their traditions. By attending this meeting, newcomers will be aided in taking part in all branches of campus life and making acquaintances with the older groups as well as other new students, Frank Hodson, president, said.

Kettles Bubble As Colds Throw 'Ol' Poison Oak

Poison oak remedies take a back seat as inhalations and irrigations take the center of the stage in the campus hospital's starting lineup. Teakettles were resurrected and a new supply of paper bags was secured when six students reported early in the week with fall colds.

Not proud of her distinctive position, Irene Havern started the pre-school rush on the infirmary when she was admitted Sunday. Freshman patients are worrying because they have to miss physical examinations this week.

Assisting Miss Havern in her initiatory duties are Gordon Perkins, Maurice Solomon, Carole Read, Herman Hahner, and Nancy Stratton.

Frosh Reception On Igloo Schedule Saturday Night

Old, New Students Will Gather for Hello Dance

The class of '44 will receive another taste of Oregon hospitality Saturday evening when President Donald M. Erb will hold his annual reception for freshmen, the "hello" dance, in McArthur court.

Helping President Erb greet the freshmen in the receiving line will be Karl W. Onthank, dean of personnel; Virgil D. Earl, dean of men; O. F. Stafford, dean of lower division and service departments; Mrs. Hazel P. Schwering, dean of women; and Mrs. Alice B. Macduff, assistant dean of women. Also Kwama and Skull and Dagger, sophomore women's and men's honoraries, respectively, will assist in receiving.

The "hello" dance is a free and informal opportunity for the freshmen to meet campus officials and to have a taste of an all-campus activity, the president said in inviting the whole student body to be his guest.

Dean Schwering, who is in charge of the social entertainment of the evening, urges all new students to meet President Erb and other faculty members before dancing to the music of Art Holman and his orchestra.

Foreign Speakers Featured at Meeting

The Lane County League of Women Voters sponsored an assembly Tuesday evening in the music auditorium with Mrs. Iverson MacAdams and Countess Zamoyka who spoke on conditions in Europe.

Mrs. MacAdams, the former Caroline Torbett of Portland, has just returned from Europe while the Countess was a refugee from the Gestapo in Poland.

New Names Appear On Faculty Roster

When the Webfoots flock to classes Monday morning, they will find many new professors occupying the rostrums. Leaves of absence, replacements, and the addition of many new faculty members have counted for the changes.

The president's office lists the following new University teachers: Miss Adeline Adams replaces Mrs. Lois Baker, law librarian, on leave of absence to study; Segurd Nilssen, professor of voice; Miss Maude Garnett, music instructor, taking Mrs. Ann Beck's position; Ferdinand Sorenson, brass instruments instructor.

Arthur Riehl, architecture design; Edward F. True, architecture design and construction; White Culbridge, associate professor of English replacing S. Stephenson Smith; Franklin Walker, professor of English, replacing H. C. Howe; William Hoppe, instructor of drama, replacing W. B. Nash; Thomas Mundie, English instructor; Gardner Stillwell, English instructor;

Registration To Commence Friday at 8:00

Undergrads to Get Forms Wednesday In Johnson Hall

The long lines of registration will begin forming in McArthur court at 8 o'clock Friday morning, September 27, and will continue until 5 p.m. Saturday, the registrar's office reported today.

New students will receive registration material in the east hall of McArthur court Friday morning after filling out preliminary forms in the north upstairs hall. All graduate students, auditors, and old students who were not on the campus during the spring term of 1939-40 will get registration material at the registrar's office in Johnson hall.

Students who were registered at the University last year can obtain registration material Wednesday in Johnson hall.

Registration material will consist of a copy of the students record, a study program.

Full Tuition Fee Due on First Day

Students Needing Funds May Apply At Registration

The installment plan of paying tuition has been abolished this year, according to a recent decision of the State Board of Higher Education. The full tuition payment of $39 will be required on registration day.

Out-of-state students will be required to make a payment of $39 at once with the balance of $40 due October 15.

Included in the regular tuition fee this year is the admission to concerts sponsored by the ASUO, Emerald subscription, lectures, gym suit and laundry service, health service, use of the library, and the regular class enrollment. Students who find difficulty in paying all the tuition may borrow from the student loan fund on applying to Dean Earl, who will maintain a table at McArthur court registration day.

The fee for the loan service will be 25 cents for anything smaller than $10, and 50 cents for anything larger, if repaid within one month.

Simplified bookkeeping and the fact that only one fourth of the student body availed themselves of the loan privilege were reasons for the change, J. O. Lindstrom, business manager of the University, announced.

There will be a meeting of all ASUO athletic card salesmen at McArthur court Wednesday morning at 10:00.

New Names Appear On Faculty Roster

and Jack Bangs, speech instructor. Anibal Vargas, romance language instructor; Lawrence LeSage, romance language instructor; Josephine Persicano, physical education instructor, replacing Warline Eastburn; Charles Secoy, chemistry instructor; Lowell S. Jones, Clarence W. Clancy, and Henry Schoenborn, zoology instructors.

Leona E. Tyler, psychology instructor; Robert F. Reizer, anthropology instructor; Wilbur E. Read and Henry W. Hall Jr., captains in military training.

Other important faculty changes include the return of Harold Noble after a leave of absence for a year and half study in Japan; the resignation of Major H. L. Barrett, who received his commission of colonel and transfer; and the placing of Dr. L. S. Cressman, head of anthropology department, on the leave list for the Guggenheim fellowship.

Union Will Rally

The University Christian Union will begin its second year's activity on the campus with an informal rally in the Y.W.C.A. bungalow, Monday evening, September 30, at 7 o'clock.

Epitaph

The yearly rushing days are dead. On their tombstone's this inscription, "Gosh, we wish we'd only had The right to use conscription." —J. W. S.

Rush Week Ends; Assembly Tonight

408 Students Pledged by 29 Campus Houses

Total Drops Below '39 Level; Informal Rushing Continues

Rush week officially closed yesterday with a total of 408 students pledging to 15 fraternities and 14 sororities.

More than a hundred less pledged after rushing activities than for the same period last year. Then men's houses topped the sororities with 215 new members to 193.

Sigma Chi, with 22 pledges, topped the fraternities while Delta Gamma and Delta Delta Delta, each with 21 new members, were leading pledge-getters among the sororities.

Informal rushing and pledging will continue throughout the week, Janet Goresky, Pan-Hellenic president, announced. Assisting with the women's rushing will be Mrs. Alice B. Macduff, assistant dean of women; Mrs. W. S. Bruckner, Portland Pan-Hellenic council; Mrs. S. C. Westerfield, president, Eugene alumnae; Mrs. Laurin Reynolds, executive secretary.

Flying Marines To Arrive Today

San Diego Squad Uses Four Planes For Grid Jaunt

Eugene will be the target of a pigskin blitzkrieg late this afternoon when four airplane loads of U. S. Marines arrive at the Eugene airport from San Diego.

The Devilgud party will include 35 members of the San Diego base football squad, which faces the University of Oregon Friday night on Hayward field in the opening game of the year.

Lt. Col. Elmer E. Hall, former Oregon football star and Marine coach, with three assistant coaches and Captain George Esau, base athletic officer, will complete the visiting group.

Eugene and University officials will greet the flying gridsters when they arrive on the big Douglas transports. A tour of the city is being planned afterward for the Marines.

Students who wish to meet the gridsters are urged to join in a rally at the airport. Time of arrival is to be announced over station KORE some time around noon, athletic officials said.

Special Schedule Arranged for Libe

Until the regular University classes start Monday, September 30, the library will operate on a slightly different schedule. Although open from 8 o'clock until 6 o'clock, the library will be used for reference between 9 and 12 in the morning and 1 and 5 in the afternoon. The browsing room is open for use from 1 o'clock until 6 p.m. All branches will be closed on Sundays.

YWCA Begins Plans For Fall Activities

The cabinet of the YWCA will have a setting up conference today from 4 to 6, at the home of Mrs. E. E. DeCou, 929 Hilyard, who will have the girls remain as her guests for supper.

Sunday morning a breakfast is planned for the freshman girls from 9 to 10:30, after which they will probably go to the various churches of their choice.

Payne to Take Paternal Interest In Freshmen

Are you in a fog, freshman? If so, stop at the information desk in Johnson hall and tell ASUO prexy "Tiger" Payne your troubles.

From Wednesday morning through Saturday of this week "Tiger" will have charge of an information desk in the main lobby of Johnson hall. All new students who have questions are invited to stop and see him, and anyone who does not have a University of Oregon Welcome book may secure a copy from him.

Chief Appoints Oregana Staff

Editor Announces Assistants for 1941 Issue of Yearbook

Wilbur Bishop, editor of the 1941 Oregonana, today announced positions which have been filled on the editorial staff of the yearbook, and has made plans for the first general Oregonana staff meeting of the year.

Pat Erickson will fill the post of associate editor, which will have to do with copy writing and copy editing. Laurita, Christofferson is assistant editor. Doris Murphy, executive secretary, and Ken Christianson, sports editor.

A general staff meeting will be held Monday evening in the Oregonana office. Writing and secretarial positions are open for prospective staff members, Bishop said.

A number of writers will be chosen editors of the various subdivisions. One additional position will be open winter term when another assistant editor will be named, it was announced.

Two Oregon Alums Get ROTC Posts

Two former Oregon students will take over positions on the Reserve Officers Training Corp staff on the Campus this year. Captain W. Elwood Reed and Captain Henry W. Hall, graduates of the class of '28 have replaced Lieut. Morris and Lieut. Barrett as assistant professors of Military Science.

Captains Reed and Hall were charter members of Scabbard and Blade, University of Oregon military honorary.

Frosh Will Hear University Head In Auditorium

Erb Will Welcome New Class of '44; Payne to Talk Also

This year's crop of University of Oregon freshmen will meet in a group for the first time tonight when they gather in the Music auditorium at 7:30 o'clock to be welcomed by Donald M. Erb, president of the University.

An annual University event, all freshmen will be on hand for this first introduction as a group to the man who will in many ways influence their lives for the next few years.

Dr. Erb will welcome the new students, explain future plans for the University and for them, and explain the meaning of University membership. The meeting will last about an hour, according to Karl W. Onthank, dean of personnel administration. He will introduce Dr. Erb.

"Tiger" Payne, president of the ASUO, will also be presented to the students but will not address them until tomorrow night, when the University student body will entertain the freshmen at another assembly in the music auditorium. This meeting will be held at 7:30 also, and student leaders will be introduced and activities discussed by them. The University band will also play at this ASUO assembly.

John Stark Evans of the music school will play the organ tonight, and service honorary members will act as ushers for both meetings.

Dr. A. R. Sweetser, Ex-Professor, Dies

Dr. Albert R. Sweetser, 79, who, until his retirement in 1931, was head of the department of plant biology at the University, died September 12 at his home at 1723 Alder street.

Dr. Sweetser had been head of the department since 1902, when he came to the University, until 1909, when he became head of the botany department. In 1927 he became head of the plant biology department.

After retiring from the University with an honorary doctor's degree, he became professor emeritus of plant biology.

Besides Mrs. Sweetser, a nephew, George N. Phinney, of Eugene, survives.
