

Gay Birds, Fur Decorate New Feminine Hats

Pert was Eleanor Sederstrom's fur hat at the football game. Lorraine Peterson dresses up in a minute black felt hat with birds of paradise ready to take flight from the top. Leaves floating on the campus and Pat Parker walking through them in a plaid reversible raincoat; red and sky-blue on the outside; blue inside. Janice Wooley wears an apple-red wool sweater that makes her look good enough to eat. Betty Jane Biggs looked like an ad for grape-nuts in her rally sweater and skirt at the game. Beverly Padgham slides along in white doe-skin moccasins embroidered with vari-colored beads; she says they weren't such a scalping price though made by a Cheyenne Indian. Peggy Kline was noticed in a soft blue wool sports dress with pleats of red plaid. Fashion-rocket of the week; Milly Jane Edwards' crazy quilt knee socks, brown and green on a dazzling yellow.—By Adele Say.

Social Plans Discard All Work, No Play Rule

By LOIS HULSER
Society Editor

All work and no play may be a good motto but it doesn't sound too compelling to Oregon students, according to social plans released this week by living organizations.

Firesides and radio dances are designed to solve the what-to-do Friday night problem. House dances start Friday night and each house is looking forward to its "big night" of the term.

Delts and Spooks

Delta Tau Delta members are giving their pledges a spook dance Friday night. Programs will be modeled after "no trespassing" signs. Bill Chilcote's orchestra will furnish the music. Betas will dance in the backwoods Saturday night when they give their fall house dance with backwoods orchestra of three pieces. The house with the millrace setting will be decorated as a lodge.

Sigma Nu fall house dance is honoring alumni and pledges in conjunction with their fortieth anniversary convention. The dance will be formal. Bert Woodward will play.

SAEs Shipwrecked

Ray Dickson's orchestra, a new band on the campus, will play Saturday evening when Sigma Alpha Epsilon honor their pledges at a shipwreck theme.

Pi Kappa Alphas will have a barn dance Saturday evening at their chapter house.

ATOs are entertaining at a fireside tomorrow night. Chi Psi fraternity is giving a fireside at the lodge for Thetas.

Pledges of Theta Chi and their dates are having a banquet at the chapter house Friday evening. A radio dance will follow.

Food, Too

Last night houses broke the monotony of academic training with desserts. Dessert list reads: Alpha Chi Omega-Phi Gamma Delta, Phi Delta Theta-Alpha Phi, Alpha Omicron Pi-Phi Kappa Psi, Pi Kappa Alpha-AlphaDelta Pi,

Portland Tops List Of UO Home Towns

By PHYLLIS FOSTER

Topping the home town list of University students is Portland with approximately 1000. Multnomah county aside from Portland's contribution has 25 students enrolled. Eugene runs a close second with 850 students attending school. Outside of Eugene Lane county has 100 students. No home town in Oregon runs even a close third to either Portland or Eugene; however, Marion county and Salem sends around 150 students to the University. Clackamas, Coos, and Klamath counties, respectively, follow with a few less than 100 students each.

Early this fall rumors stated that 60 per cent of the University students were from California (rush week talk). Rumor has it wrong. Four hundred students are from California (this isn't the Fifth Avenue social register either). Running second and third place in non-resident students are Washington with 85 and Idaho with 35 students. The total number of out of state students is approximately 615. Oregon surpasses this with 3200.

Thirty-six are from United States possessions and foreign countries. Included in these are Alaska, Hawaii, Philippines, Canada, and Japan.

Kirkwood Co-op-Hilyard house, Sigma Kappa-Kappa Sigma, Delta Tau Delta-Chi Omega, Beta Theta Pi-Gamma Phi Beta, Kappa Alpha Theta-Chi Psi, Kappa Kappa Gamma-Sigma Alpha Mu, Pi Beta Phi-Sigma Chi, Susan Campbell hall dessert Tuesday with Sherry Ross hall, Thursday with Alpha hall and Sigma Alpha Epsilon-Delta Delta Delta.
