Merry Christmas

Two little words—they've been said over and over again for generations—but they still express the spirit of the season! "Merry Christmas" to you and yours. Even if you don't believe in exchanging costly presents —don't miss the joy of exchanging those friendly words and the trifling remembrances which make them come true.

Sports Accessories

Winter Woolens Ease Yuletide Gift Problems

By JEAN SPEAROW

Bright wool socks, gay little mittens, saucy yarn caps, warm woolly mufflers . . . what could be more appropriate than to find these colorful sports accessories peeping out from under the glitter of Christmas wrappings.

Time was when such useful wintry wear came in dull standard colors which couldn't help but dampen the spirits of the receiver who excitedly ripped off the tinsel only to find Aunt Jenny's "nice sensible socks" . . . an olive green sock to the Christmas spirit.

Designs Varied
But time and wise stylists have changed all this. With the increased interest in winter sports, designers have competed with and and outdone each other in creating appealing winter apparel until now it has become an art and the only difficulty is in choosing which of the adorable types of ski bennets your heart throbs will look best in as she crawls feet first out of a snow bank. They come in every style, from the snug cap with visor to the pointed knit hood with long bright scarf attachments.

Colors Vivid Mittens come embroidered in Tyrolean patterns or with the designs knitted into the mitten itself as the Norwegians do it. And the colors are vivid splashes guaranteed to distinguish the worst noise from a snow bank or Snow White.

Ski enthusiasts lighten the Christmas present problem no end.

If you have any of these winter sport addicts on your list your possibilities are unlimited. Your gifts can run the price range from inexpensive waxing kits and snow visors to parkas, sport shirts and those beautiful cable stitch sweaters that add so much to any sport outfit.

Few skiers have all the waxes, laquers, climbers and what have you that they would like, and you are lucky if you can find out what it is that they would like. A nice thing to give a girl skier is a small purse which can be fastened to her belt (of course there are THOUSANDS of things you can give girl skiers).

Stovall Issues Call to Students

J. C. Stovall, assistant civil pilot training coordinator is at-

Staff Photographer Of Oregon Journal Lectures Monday

Ralph Vincent, staff photographer of the Oregon Journal Monday conducted individual conferences with members of George Godfrey's graphic journalism class.
While here Vincent also spoke to George Turnbull's 11 o'clock reporting class in 197 Oregon building. Members of the 8 o'clock reporting class with no conflicting hours also attended.

Bible Study Offered By Christian Union

A special invitation has been extended to students to join in the regular weekly meetings of the University Christian Union, held each Monday night at the YWCA bungalow.

Walter J. Ficus is leading the group in a verse-by-verse exposition of the Book of Acts.

The Christian union is an interdenominational group on the campus organized to furnish fellowship for Christian students and to furnish opportunity for Bible study and discussion.

Honor Given To Oregon

Oregon Yearbook Gets All-American Rating From NSPA

Ratings received this week from the National Scholastic Press association indicate that the 1940 Oregon, in addition to receiving All-American honors, has been rated for all practical purposes among the five best yearbooks in the United States.

A list run in the NSPA publication indicated ten "books of the year," a rating given the "cream" of the yearbooks. Of these, three were chosen from the class published in schools of 2500 to 5000 students, the Oregon, the Stanford Quad, and the Kansas State Royal Purple. In the next group, schools of 5000 and up, the Minnesota Gopher and the Alabama Co-rolla were picked.

Last year the NSPA granted 22 All-American ratings in the senior division. This year they gave 24.
Of these 24, 12 books repeated, four from Pacific coast schools.
They were the USC Ed Rodeo, the Stanford Quad, the UCLA Southern Campus, and the Oregon.

Hunter Improving, Report Here States

Chancellor Frederick M. Hunter is recovering "as well as can be expected" from his recent eye operation, according to information received by C. D. Byrne, assistant to the chancellor.

Dr. Hunter was operated on at the Presbyterian hospital in New York City, where his son, Arthur M., is a member of the staff. Dr.
Hunter expects to be home early in January.

Two UO Republicans Win Annual Election At First Convention

Two University of Oregon students were elected officers at the first annual convention of the Young Republican federation of Oregon, which was held in Salem December 7.

Douglas Elliott, last year's yell king, was elected chairman. Ed Luckey, second-year law student, was made assistant chairman, and Freeman Holmer, '40, graduate assistant in the social sciences department, was placed on the executive committee.

Eugene was selected as the site of the 1941 convention of the Young Republican Federation.
