UO to Greet Journalists January 10, 11

Oregon Press Men To Meet Leaders At Conference

The twenty-third annual Oregon press conference to be held at the school of journalism here January 10-11 will welcome newspapermen from all parts of Oregon and the nation's news capitals. Those included will be Chester Rowell, editor of the San Francisco Chronicle, and the president of the National from $1,000 to $1,500. Editorial association, Publisher Roy Brown of the San Rafael (California) Independent, according to Chairman George S. Turnbull, professor of journalism.

ards will be the chief subjects disfor Oregon, will speak at the over twelve months. luncheon Friday and be available for special conferences. Labor rela- lyn Olive Christlieb, Lolita Piertions will be taken up by Dean son, Gerald R. Clark, Audrey Ellen Wednesday, and river guides will Johnson, a Thompson, and a what- empty coke bottles and then gig-Wayne L. Morse of the law school, Hammond, Erwin L. Snyder, Ros- pilot more adventurous representa- have-you on the Utah team, but gled like a bunch of drivelling recently reappointed coast arbitra- coe E. Cole, John S. Crawford, tives down sections of the river, nary a YOUNG. All right, so it idiots as the glass shattered and tor for maritime labor relations.

session will cover make-up, editor- Edgington, L. Earl Harrington, ion, circulation, and advertising. French. Mr. Brown will take part in these discussions, and Mr. Rowland will be main speaker at the annual banquet Friday evening. Among the prominent Oregon journalists on panels will be Palmer Hoyt, The Oregonian; Frank Jenkins, Klamath Falls Herald and News; Hugh G. Ball, Hood River News; John Verschueren, Astoria Astorian-Budget; Eric W. Allen, dean of the ic, Marrial Yvonne Patterson, which will send members are Unischool of journalism; Charles M. Hulten, professor of journalism; Sheldon Sackett, Coos Bay Times, and Giles M. French, Sherman County Journal.

The semiannual meeting of the Oregon Newspaper Publisher's association will be presided over by Mr. French Saturday morning. W. Verne McKinney, Hillsboro Argus, Lloyd A. Wilson, is president of the conference, and Mr. Turnbull, secretary. The Oregon-Washington State basketball Eileen Virginia Millard. game and songs by the Eugene Gleemen will be offered free of charge to the editors as entertainment features.

Eleven Record

(Continued from page one) and Edward L. Wiseman

Orva Viola Aebi, Frank H. Albrecht, John W. Dunn, Genevieve Speelman, Dennis C. Bakewell, Lila May Furchner, Maryjane Bovingdon, Philip M. Brady, Marian Billy Christensen, June Louise Johnson, William R. Moore, Mari-

Three Awards For Graduates Received Here

Notice of three advanced fellowships and awards has been received in the office of the graduate division on the second floor of Johnson

The Mary Elizabeth Sibley fellowship is awarded alternately in the fields of Greek and French. This year's award will be for Greek. The amount is $1500 and may be used for the study of bine in generous doses for repre-Greek language, literature, or ar- sentatives of Alpha Delta Sigma, chaeology. It is administered by national advertising fraternity, Phi Beta Kappa.

Those having evidence of adhaupt scholarships in the biologi- day. cal sciences. They carry awards of

A stipend of $3000 is attached to the Elizabeth Clay Howald parts of the McKenzie river counscholarship, granted for work in any field. Students who have attended Ohio State university may Selective service and labor stand- do their work at any institution approved by the graduate council cussed by delegates and speakers. of that university; those who have Lieutenant Colonel Elmer V. not studied at Ohio must do so ending April 20. Sessions will open Wooten, head of selective service there. The award is distributed Wednesday and last through five Margaret DeBolt, Marlyce Erland- giving them opportunity to fish for SMELLS! Panel discussions at the two-day son, Charles H. Foster, Bette Jean McKenzie rainbow trout.

Kalina, Avis Marie Klemme, Ed- sport activities. ward C. Lawson, Kleva J. Lindseth, Nina Rae McCulley, Vivian Ursula Wallace A. White.

Elizabeth Schmuki, Nancy Jane DePauw, Butler, New York, Tem-Scott, Elva Jane South, Robert W. ple, Minnesota, and Stanford. Toon, Carol June Telford, Lyle D.

Hugh B. Muir, Lee E. Schmidt.

DANCE

Willamette Park

Friday - 75c per couple Saturday - $1 per couple

EDDIE GIPSON'S BAND

Work, Pleasure Combine on ADS Meeting Docket

Rogers Announces Plans for National Conclave in April

Business and pleasure will comwhen they convene on the Oregon campus in April for the 1941 navanced training equal to doctor's tional conference, Bob Rogers, prodegree may apply for the Muell- gram chairman, announced yester-

In addition to regular business sessions, pleasure trips have been Shots Here'n There scheduled that will show delegates try, neighboring sections of the Willamette valley, and snowy terrain of Mt. Hood as viewed from Timberline lodge.

Dates for the convention have been tentatively set for the week

McKenzle Trip

The McKenzie trip is planned for

Thursday business discussions on ial policies, sampling of public opin- Leonard C. Farr, Wyman J. the Oregon campus will be followed James E. Gibson, Alvin J. Gray, State college. All delegates are in- were all there in spirit even if the Margery Ann Phillips, Ray S. vited to Portland Saturday, and jargon they were howling was ROOM, BOARD-Everything new, Hewitt, Clarence G. Horton, Helen they will visit Timberline lodge barely audible across the floor. Muriel Johnson, Janice Ruth John- that night. The convention will son, Doris Myrl Jones, Rudolf J. conclude there Sunday with winter

40 Delegates

Approximately 40 delegates from Martin, Thelma Caroline Nelson, 21 Alpha Delta Sigma chapters are Torlef Nelson, Dorothy Fay Oshan- expected to be represented. Schools Dorothy Arline Pyhtila, James L. versities of Missouri, Washington, Richardson, Phyllis Elaine Taylor, Oregon, Syracuse, Alabama, California, Southern Califirnia, Cali-Clarethel Roselund, Nanette fornia at Los Angeles, Wisconsin,

Oregon State, Pennsylvania Thomas, Virgene Mary Wade, State, Washington State, City Col-Walter H. Weber, Corrine Marlis lege of New York, Franklin and Wignes, Amey Bernice Wilson, Marshall, and San Jose State colleges will also be represented, and Neva June Haight, Peggy Kline, representatives of several alumni chapters are expected to attend. National officers of ADS who

> Get Your MIXERS

958 Oak St.

OREGON & EMERALD

Special Advertising Staff: Anita Backberg Adrienne Flurry Warren Roper Bob Nagel

Night Staff: Betty Jane Poindexter, night editor

Herb Penny Jean Vincent Adele Say Ted Goodwin

> Bob Frazier Betty Jane Biggs Ray Schrick Betty Sibley

will come to Eugene for the convention are Ken R. Dyke, national president; E. K. Johnston, secre-

(Continued from page three) That's what he gets for wearing shoes, and luckily for all con- sions. cerned, the announcer over the loud-speaker system—or maybe it Library Reopens was his stooge-could count over 50. (At irregular intervals, he'd a genius; I get up to 100 with day. hardly any trouble . . . I hope.

Nomination for the Croix de something-or-other, the dozen-andby Friday meetings at Oregon a-half rabid Utah rooters who Ought to be somewhere else, the

To Be Offered By Magazine

Look magazine is sponsoring a students which will bring prizes the library. amounting to $1000 to six contest

For the best series of pictures 15, 1941 which tell the best story, prizes are offered on down to three

All entrants must be registered university in the United States, its possessions, or in Canada, announce the editors of Look. More Chambers to Take tary; and Eric J. Smith, treasurer. than one may work on one entry, but each person working on the entry must be a college student.

Originality of subject and competence of treatment will be the chief factors in the judges' deci-ular schedule of hours today, acdrone in with the correct score cording to an announcement by ... "49-15," etc.) That makes me M. H. Douglass, librarian, yesterfunny boys who bombed the Igloo There was an Evans, a Hardy, a floor beneath the bleachers with splattered all about.

CLASSIFIED ADS

Board, Room

steam heat, good meals, home privileges. Phone 4360-W.

Start Out Right

- A New Year
- A New Term
- A New Pair of Shoes

You'll rate an A in personal appearance and healthful foot comfort when you step out in Campus shoes from Buch's.

$4.95

$1,000 in Prizes Library Exhibits Custer's 1876 Flag

A tattered American flag with 35 stars, relic of the Indian war in which General George Armstrong Custer was killed, is on expicture-story contest for college hibit in the circulation lobby of Lent through the courtesy of Orrin A. Prince, Eugene lumber broker, the flag was found by his entered in the contest before April father, Sergeant Eugene Melville Prince of the seventh cavalry, U.S. the winner will receive $500. Other army, a few hours after General Custer's death.

The battle against the famous Indian war chief, Sitting Bull, ocin some college, junior college or curred June 25, 1876 at Little Big

Test for MS Degree

Frank L. Chambers passed his examination for the master of sci-

SIDE PATTER By Pat Taylor

Hubba hubba hubba . . . May we say it is better than eachy to be back at the U . . to say the least. . . . Now what'll we patter about? . . . Oh yes, item one: Libby Eades is back. . . Item two: the DU's have one new dog. . . . Chuck Phipps of the ever-lovin' lawr school married Frances Henderson the 27th. . . . Cis Steele has Johnny Powers' Fiji pin. . . . Hubba hubba. . . . Let's see . . . oh yes, life in the City is lovely . . . to put itmildly . . . haf of the U came back on the Beaver from down California way yesterday noon. . . Evie LeMasters, Kappa (and what a Kappa) brought back a panda - and such a panda! . . . Betty MacKall got a 4.00-one hour of A and 6 incs. . . . The U will collect shekels by the shovelful from the fellers what is registering late. . . . Ever drive with Jane McCurdy? Ohlord . . . don't! . . If you did, we'd probably never ever see you again-on he late shift or otherwise

But the best noos of all is . . Bruce the boo'ful (Mackintosh, that is) is back-behind the Colege Side fountain-oh la, how lovely - l'amour - l'amour! (to say nothing of woo! woo!)

ence degree on December 12. Majoring in economics, he wrote his thesis on theories of economic motives in English and American classical and neo-classical econo-

James W. Bushong, superintendent of schools at Nyssa, passed his master of education examination on November 30. The title of his thesis was "A Brief of an Evaluation of the Effect of House Bill No. 343 on Districts Maintaining District High Schools."

Believe It or Not DON'T GUESS CALL JESS GODLOVE

The Plumber 31 East 7th Ph. 547

Alarm Clocks

being prompt

500 Cleansing Tissues

Soft - Rainbow Colors

Make that Reservation for your

Winter Formal

at the

Eugene Hotel

Call for your reservations early if you want the ballroom available for your dance.

PY MEN YEAR!

We've been waiting two weeks to tell you that!

Your Co-op store is overflowing with new values in class supplies and equipment, and furnishings for

We've been planning your New Year's return for some time...let us help you make your 1941 Winter term a great success . . . scholastically and socially. Today—drop in between classes and take a look at our new books, supplies, and hundreds of other necessary OREGON class items.

LIGHT UP!

With a new polaroid lamp . . . especially designed and built for college students. Don't ruin your eyesight any longer. Let us supply you with scientific lighting . . . assure yourself of a 4-point.

Resolved: To be a 4-Pointer by Using the Best!

Stock up on stationery and fountain pens and pencils. For the latest creations and designs at popular prices, buy at your University Co-op.

We earry the highest grade notebook and typing paper on the Pacific coast . . . CBA brand. Together with 23 other college book stores on this coast we buy tons of this expensive paper every year . . . giving you the benefits from these huge purchases.

THE WORLD IS YOURS—

for less than a cent a day!

The whole world, its varied cultures, peoples, and scenes ... all at your command in our Rental Library. For only $1.00 a term you may read the latest in fiction, travel, mysteries, plays, etc. . . . by the world's most eminent authors.

Join Today! only $1.00 for the entire term nose cash register receipts . . . ney're worth money to you.

USED TEXT BOOKS: Only at the CO-OP can you be sure of getting the correct edition and the required text! Your University 'CO-OP' Store

SERVING OREGON WEBFOOTS FOR 20 YEARS