Cougars Stifle Last Half Rally Of Duck Quintet

Lindeman Tallies 19 Points; Borchers, Andrews Score 11

Oregon's traveling basketball quintet went down fighting last night 47-45 in the first of their Inland Empire four-games-in-five-days invasion. Trailing Washington State by five points at half time, the Ducks let their opponents take a 10 point lead early in the second period before doing anything about the situation. Fighting furiously to overcome the advantage, Coach Howard Hobson's men closed the gap at 32 to 32 midway in the final half.

Lindeman Tops Scorers
From then on, the contest was tied up five different times as the teams took turns dropping the ball through the bucket.

With but three minutes to go and the score knotted at 40 all, Paul "Bunyan" Lindeman sneaked through the Oregon defenses under the backboard to score the last of his evening's total of 19 points. Vern Butts followed immediately with a one-hander from the side. He was fouled on the play and sank the gifter, making the score 45-40 with less than two minutes to go.

Baskets by Evert McNeeley and Paul Jackson brought the Ducks within reach of the Cougars, but the seconds were fleeting and Butts dropped another tally to cinch the contest.

Lindeman with 19 tallies was high man for the night. Next came Butts of Washington State with 13, Bill Borchers and "Porky" Andrews of Oregon with 11 each, Vic Townsend with 9 and Hank Anderson with 7.

Anderson and Borchers were expelled from the game late in the last half with four fouls against them.

Coed Hoopsters Begin Season

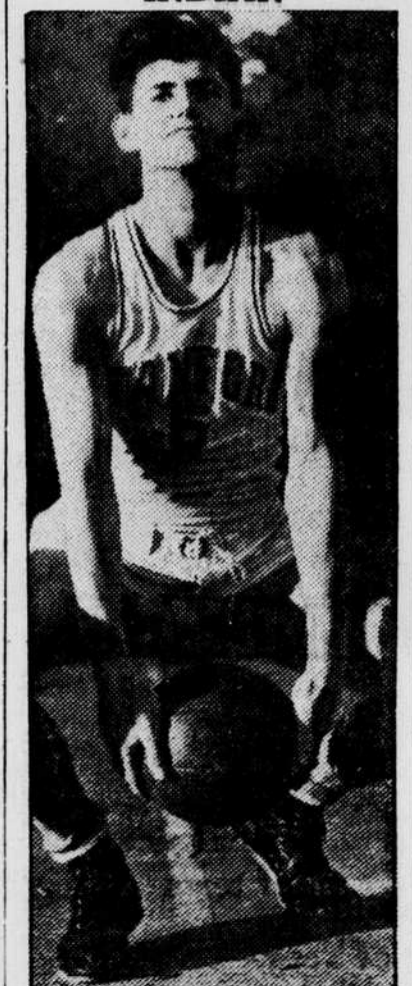

ADPis trounced Alpha Gam 18 to 8 Tuesday in the only game played of the three scheduled on the opening day of the coed basketball season. Today at 5 Gamma Phi meets Hendricks hall and Susan Campbell takes on Alpha Xi Delta.

The third contest, booked between Omega hall and the Awful Awfuls, went to the hallmen when the latter club failed to appear.

Sigma Chis Trounce Pi Kappa by 32-3 Count In Donut 'A' Hoop Tilt

By FRED TREADGOLD
In this young season's most one-sided game the Sigma Chis squelched a sadly outclassed Pi Kappa Alpha hoop five Tuesdays, 32 to 3 in a game which definitely tabbed the Sweethearts as a titular threat. From the opening basket, shot in the game's early minutes, the winners showed their superiority over the Pi Kaps who were dogged throughout with bad breaks.

Half-time score was 15 to 0 while at the third quarter mark the count was 20 to 1 with Herndon breaking the ice for the losers with a foul conversion. Dick Burns and Wilson Maynard speedy Chi back-court combination, kept their team constantly booming with 9 points each.

Co-op Wins
Campbell co-op with Chuck Larson tossing in 11 points, trounced Delta Upsilon 20 to 10 in another "A" league encounter on court 43. Half-time score favored the co-op, 13 to 8, their tight defense yielding but one field goal in the second-half.

The third contest, booked between Omega hall and the Awful Awfuls, went to the hallmen when the latter club failed to appear.

Frosh Hoopers Meet Clothiers In Game Tonight

Helliwell's Club Tests Ducklings At Cottage Grove

The freshman basketball team will take on its first really big bit of competition tonight when they tangle with the Helliwell Clothiers in the Cottage Grove armory.

The game will be the first of several that are to be held in Lane county in a drive to raise money for an infantile paralysis fund.

A Real Test
The type of ball played by the strong independent team will be a far cry from the competition thus far encountered by the yearling squad. Very conscious of this Coach John put the finishing touches on the Duckling's offense in Tuesday's practice as he held them for a long scrimmage session.

The frosh team has begun to shape up as a characteristic "run and shoot" Oregon team, not having the height so commonly found on former freshman quintets. Lloyd Jackson and Bob Sheridan, the tallest at 6 foot 7 and 6 foot 3, the yearlings make up for the lack of altitude by a fast breaking, high scoring offense.

Probable starting lineup for the game will find Jackson at his favorite center slot, Rog Dick and Sheridan at the forward posts, Bill Gissberg and Bob Newland at the back court positions.

PE Honor Society Will Meet Tonight

Sigma Delta Psi, men's physical education honorary, will meet tonight in room 101, PE building, at 7 o'clock. The purpose of the meeting is to install a fully organized program for the remainder of the school year, according to Jim Marne, president. In addition to regular members those interested in completing their qualifications for membership are urged to attend.

Feature of the meeting will be the presentation of awards won in last year's national competition. The Oregon chapter has won the national Sigma Delta Psi championship for three successive years.

Sluggers Lethargic In All-Campus Brawl

The all-campus boxing tourney got under way today as Carl Zimmerman defeated Tom Carroll in a battle of left jabs, and Merle Hanscom dethroned Aaron Jones after dropping one round on a foul charge.

The Carroll-Zimmerman bout was slow with both fighters showing little aggressiveness. After exchanging portside blows for almost three rounds, Zimmerman connected with a right-cross that gave him the judges' nod.

Hanscom Wins Easily
Hanscom forced Jones to the canvas twice in the first round, second period went to Jones when he claimed a foul. Hanscom won easily after a one-sided last round.

More Fights Today
Today will see a heavy card as Chuck Taylor tangles with Duke Warner in the bantamweight division, Dick Anderson meets Chet Sargent in the 145 class, light-heavyweights Clay Pond and "Kid" Baker face Hersh Patton and Kermit Smith, respectively, and Jim Shephard and Jim Bailey, both last year veterans will slug it out with two newcomers, Bill Freiwald and Ray Marlow.

UO, OSC Skiers Hold First Trials

Representatives from Oregon and Oregon State met Sunday on the steep slopes of Hoodoo bowl to try out their hickory wings in the first time trials of the season. Hank Evans, captain of the University ski team, placed first in the jumping event and third place in the slalom. Evans, Wally Clark, and Verlin Wolfe were the only Oregon boys present at the meet.

Don Francis, Ellis Bishoff, and George Brummer starred for the Oregon State team. Bishoff, however, will be ineligible this year because of having attended Reed college last year.

North Dakota university and North Dakota Agricultural college have been football rivals since 1894.

Duck Tracks

Take the Oregon basketball team, pick the two most valuable players based on Friday's performance against Oregon State, and the names read will be George "Porky" Andrews and "Wild Bill" Borchers on everyone's score sheet. Many were amazed when Andrews started playing the driving type of ball this year which few thought him capable of, but more were surprised at Borchers's showing.

Borchers came north last year with Vic Townsend, Buck Berry, and a few of the boys. All year long, Bill labored hard and was rewarded with time in seven games during the course of the conference season. He made the 7,500-mile swing eastward and was used as a reserve center and forward.

Then came this year. Borchers was plenty aggressive, although he was a bit slow on his feet. He was left off the squad this year for the eastern trip to give sophomores experience. Borchers kept plugging away, and he was the mainstay of the super-Ducks.

Borchers Promises Competition
"We're going to give those boys some stiff competition when they come back," said Bill after Hobby Hobson and ten men pulled out for New York. He meant that it would be a team competition and not individual competition. In the meantime, the super-Ducks (or Rangers as they disliked to be called) disintegrated.

Came the WSC series and Borchers's chance to prove his worth. He was still a substitute but he made nine points and collected eight of the team's 45 rebounds during the evening. The next evening, he fared worse—no points, but he was a tower of strength under the backboards.

Then against Oregon State, Borchers really started it with a basket. Townsend followed with a couple more, then Borchers tallied again. He grabbed 22 of the team's 52 rebounds—leaving 30 for the rest of the Ducks to divide.

Bill Copies 'Unguardable' Shot
Borchers has been a scoring threat, based on two games. He has made 19 points in three games as against five during the whole season last year. Borchers failed to earn a letter last year, but this year should be another story with another ending.

His scoring has been the result of his new shot—a close duplicate of Hank Anderson's leap-in-the-air-with-half-gainer throw. Borchers worked on it during the week prior to the OSC game and came out with the finished product good for 10 points.

The difference between the two "unguardables" lies in Borchers's leap in the air. His legs are straighter than Hank's—not bent. Borchers does not fall away from the basket as does Anderson, and the trajectory of his shot is much flatter—more of a straight heave as if the ball were following a tight line. Anderson arches his shot slightly.

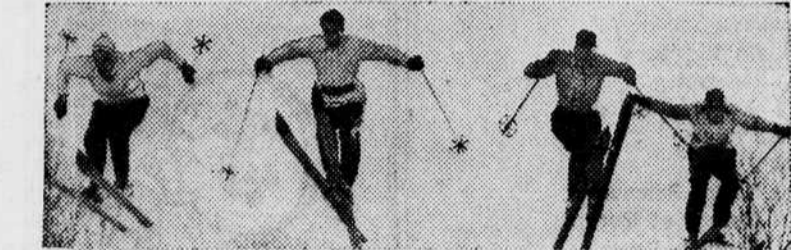

Another Warren Unbeatable Product
Watch John Warren's basketball players this season. As if last season's record of 16 wins in 17 games were not enough, "Honest John" has gathered together a team which has won three games in rapid succession. Warren took Bob Newland and a flock of reserves to Marshfield Saturday. The result was 63 to 16. Newland stood back near the edge of the keyhole and tossed in 27 of the freshman points.

"He just stood back there and kept flicking them in with his wrists—what wrists!" said Warren in Monday's practice.

In the meantime, Bill Gissberg, Ken Simonsen, Lloyd Jackson, Bob Sheridan, and Rog Dick were scrimmaging against the varsity. Basket followed basket in rapid succession as the frosh out-pointed the varsity during the regular 40-minute playing period.

The frosh won, 49 to 45, and still led by a point or two after another 10-minute period. In three games against high school opposition the freshmen have scored 160 points against 59. This is an average of 53.3 against 19.7 for the opposition. Frosh victims have been Marshfield; Dallas, 54 to 28; and Lebanon, 43 to 15.
