

EDIT PAGE:
Majority Rule,
Fairness for All
Need of Classes

OREGON DAILY EMERALD

SPORTS:
Beavers, Ducks
Opposing Forces
In Ring, Pool

VOLUME XLII

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1941

NUMBER 71

ASUO to Receive Rally Committee Plan

TYPICALS...
Votes Tonight To Pick Two Soph 'Ideals'

Informal Dancing Features Dickson, Extra 45 Minutes

Oregon's ideal couple will become flesh and blood realities tonight as students at the Sophomore Informal cast their votes for the typical Betty Coed and Joe College. Awards will also be presented to the "most lively" men's and women's living organizations. Ballot boxes will close promptly at 10:30, declared Co-chairmen Pat Cloud and Len Ballif. All voting and registering must be done before that time. Winners will be announced at 11 o'clock, they stated.

No Release

Names of the five girl and five boy finalists in the sophomore popularity contest have been kept secret and will remain unknown until ballots are given out at the door of Gerlinger hall. The "most lively" men's and women's houses on the campus will be judged on the percentage basis by the number of members registering before 10:30 at the dance. A wooden crest plaque will be presented to each of the winners. Each plaque will carry the name of the "top" organization and its coat of arms. In case the winner is not a Greek, the name of the house together with the Oregon seal, will be given.

Announcement at 11

Bud Vandenynde, president of the sophomore class, and the two co-chairmen will be introduced at 11 o'clock. Announcement of the plaque-winners will be made at this time, along with the introducing of Oregon's Joe College and Betty Coed.

ADS DANCE...
Tickets for KKK On Sale Monday

Page Announces Representatives For Men's Houses

Ticket sale for the Krazy Kopy Krawl will begin Monday, according to Fred May, chairman of the dance. The Krawl, sponsored by Alpha Delta Sigma, men's national advertising honorary, will be held in Gerlinger February 7. The tickets will be a combination of ticket and dance program, May announced. They will be printed in two colors.

Emerson Page is promotion chairman and lists the following men as representatives in the living organizations: Len Isberg, Alpha Tau Omega; Lou Torgeson, Beta Theta Pi; Ralph Woodall, Campbell Co-op; Jay Stott, Canard club; Bill Wallan, Chi Psi; Jack Daniels, Delta Tau Delta; Steve Hayward, Delta Upsilon; Bill Edliefsen, Kappa Sigma; Art Berg, Kirkwood Co-op; George Mackin, Phi Delta Theta; Bob Marland, Fiji; Dave Bush, Phi Kappa Psi; Nate Coleman, Phi Sigma Kappa; Bob Cherney, Pi Kappa Alpha; Mack Hand, Sigma Alpha Epsilon; Jack Saltzman, Sigma Alpha Mu; Emerson Page, Theta Chi; Dave Jahn, Sigma Chi; Tiger Payne, Sigma Nu; Bert Therioff, Sigma Phi Epsilon; Warren Roper, men's halls.

Senior Snaps Due

Tonight at 6 o'clock is the final deadline for all Oregon senior pictures, Wilbur Bishop announced yesterday. No pictures will be taken by Kennell-Ellis studio after today.

400,000,000 COURAGEOUS

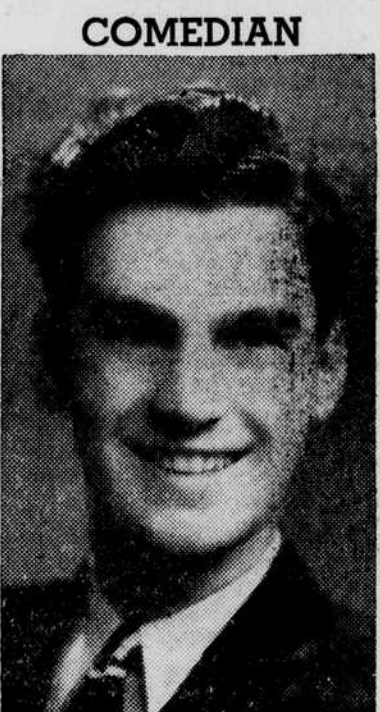

Chinese women's part in the struggle to save their country's liberty and culture will be portrayed in the educational activity sponsored movie, "The 400,000,000." It will be given Thursday in Villard hall, free to activity card-holders.

ASUO Bills First Movie

Film Applauds Chinese Valor In Vital Struggle

Show to Include 'March of Time' On Japanese War

The story of "The 400,000,000," a film tribute to the courage of the Chinese, will be presented, free of charge to University students Thursday as an added attraction on educational activities cards, it was announced from the activities office Friday. This is the first educational movie of a series of three which will be shown winter term. Accompanied by a "March of Time" news film, "Japan's War in China"; the movie program will be given three afternoon and two evening showings in the theater room, 207, of Chapman hall. With narration by Frederic March "The 400,000,000" recounts Chinese and their aggressors. "Its

COMEDIAN
Jerry Lakefish, Guild theater comedian, who will play the role of Grumio, Petruccio's "stupid" groom in the production of "Taming of the Shrew," to be presented in the AWS room at Gerlinger hall February 5, 6, 7, and 8. Tickets are now on sale at the Johnson hall box office. Admission is 25 cents.

ACTING UP...
Jerry Lakefish To Play Groom For Guild Show

'Taming of Shrew' Opens February 5 In Gerlinger Hall

Jerry Lakefish will appear as Petruccio's "stupid" groom in the Guild theater players' production of William Shakespeare's "Taming of the Shrew," which will open February 5 in the AWS room of Gerlinger hall.

Lakefish has established himself as one of the most versatile actors on the campus, but he is most successful as a comedian. He will be remembered for his performances in "Berkeley Square," "The Terrible Meek," "Idiot's Delight," and "High Tor."

Tickets are now on sale at the box office in Johnson hall. Price of admission is 25 cents, all seats reserved.

A special attraction is offered for opening night. Two shows can be seen for the price of one, the feature of which will be one Petruccio (Parker McNeil) taming two Kates (Trudy Harland and Helene Parsons) who alternate the role. The cast, under the direction of Mrs. Ottilie T. Seybolt, head of the drama division includes: Bettie Jane Quigley, Trudy Harland, Parker McNeil, Helene Parsons, Jerry Lakefish, Adrian Martin, Jim Parsons, Betty Fiksdal, Jeanette Harbert, Frank Loomis, Alan Foster, Dick Turner, Howard Spear, Walker Trece, Jean B. Harper, and Ray Dickson.

FOUR EASY LESSONS...

Tickling Ivory Keys Agrees With Pianist

Pianist George Hopkins, who has received considerable note as a teacher of elementary piano, playing for classes of Eugene business and professional men as well as serving as professor of piano in the University of Oregon music school, has long subscribed to the belief that "piano playing is fun!" And in order to make a large number of others (to whom he will never be able to give private lessons) aware of this fact, Mr. Hopkins has just published the first of four projected self-help music books under the general heading of "Piano Playing for Fun."

Directors to Meet

Canard club will house a meeting of the board of directors of the men's co-ops with their faculty adviser, Professor S. H. Jameson, and President Charles Kruger today.

FEBRUARY 6...
Ballard Gives First Lecture Thursday at 11

Former Minister Opens Discussion Of Love, Marriage

The love and marriage series of discussions will open with a lecture by Dr. J. Hudson Ballard, February 6 at 11 o'clock in Gerlinger, on "Psychological Aspects of Marriage."

Dr. Ballard has recently resigned as pastor of the First Presbyterian church in Portland to take a position on the faculty at San Anselmo seminary in California.

Outstanding Pastor

"He is recognized as one of the outstanding clergymen of this part of the country," said Dean Karl W. Onthank, who is in charge of the series. The speaker was a member of the faculty at Occidental for many years before he became a pastor. He attended the University of Southern California where he received his A.B. and New York University where he received his Ph.D.

Concerns Adjustments

His talk here on the "Psychological Aspects of Marriage" will concern personality adjustments, social adjustments, such as how to

FOREIGN CAMPAIGN...

WSSF Returns Rise; Five Organizations Report 100 Per Cent

Incomplete returns on the World Student Service fund campaign show a total of $206.98 has been raised on the Oregon campus for the relief of war-impooverished young people in Europe and China. These figures do not include the amounts of the men's living organizations, Janet Morris and Bob Lovell, co-chairmen, declared.

The drive will continue until Tuesday, the co-chairmen announced, in order that every organization can put on a last minute drive and so every faculty member may be contacted.

100 Per Cent

Pi Beta Phi, Kappa Alpha Theta, Zeta Tau Alpha, Sigma Phi Epsilon, and Pi Kappa Alpha each hit the 100% mark in donating at least 10 cents per member for aid to foreign students.

Returns last evening listed the organizations' contribution as: women houses, $59.45; faculty, $64.85; dessert-less dinner, $14.75; Rotary club, $35.93; sophomore service honoraries' booths, $10.85; and miscellaneous, $21.15.

Women's Houses

Percentages of women's houses read: Alpha Chi, 83; ADPI, 62; Alpha Gam, 70; Alpha O, 33; Alpha Phi, 65; Hendricks, 47; Susan Campbell, 33; Kappa, 41; Theta, 100; Highland, 76; Pi Phi, 100; Zeta Tau Alpha, 100; Gamma Phi, 25; Alpha Xi, 56; DG, 66; Sigma Kappa, 38; Chi O, 53; Tri-Delt, 56; Hilyard, 19; and University, 76.

Well-Checked Budget Included in Provisions

Election Reforms Made Rally Setup Altered

The rally reorganization plan which will be recommended to the executive committee of the ASUO follows:

1. That the rally committee be composed of 12 members, one of whom shall be the chairman and one the treasurer. Of the 12 there shall be 1 senior man, 1 senior woman, 2 junior men, 2 junior women, 3 sophomore men, and 3 sophomore women. The senior man shall be the chairman.
2. The treasurer shall be appointed by the executive committee from among the 12 members chosen. The treasurer and chairman cannot be the same person. The treasurer shall be responsible for handling all funds and shall make a report to the executive committee of the ASUO on the Tuesday following each rally committee money-raising function.

SEPARATE BUDGET

3. That a separate budget for both yell and rally squads shall be kept. That the budget for each squad shall be drawn up by the new groups before the end of winter term of the preceding year, and submitted to the ASUO executive committee and the athletic board.

Pome No. 103

At KKK, or so they say, They'll give out gum to chew. Why don't they go the rest o' the way And have a bank night too? —J.W.S.

MOTIVATOR

Among the points in the new program will be a provision calling for appointment of the chairman of the rally committee by the third week of winter term, and the appointment of the other eleven members by the fourth week.

IN EAST...
Joseph Schafer, Former History Professor, Dies

Dr. Joseph Schafer, 73, one-time member of the University history faculty, died recently in Madison, Wisconsin, where he was superintendent of the Wisconsin state historical society.

Civil Service Offers Exam for Men Only

For men only. This did Uncle Sam's civil service commission indicate that at least one position other than those in the army was open to men only. The position is that of junior stenographer. Enough women's applications are already on file, declared the commission in the announcement received recently by the employment office.

Valuable Pearls Find Way Home-Want Ad Works

Found—one string of pearls, through the Oregon Daily Emerald! They belong to Betty Keller, who lost them several days ago.

Calvin Crumbaker Will Analyze 'Jobs' Monday at 4 for YM

Professor Calvin Crumbaker will speak to the YMCA vocational guidance commission Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock on "Jobs Under Democracy, Fascism, Nazism, Communism."

Gordon Wright Ill

Dr. Gordon Wright, assistant professor of history, who has been unable to meet his classes for the past several days, is suffering from a streptococcus infection of the throat. He plans to resume his work next week.

Student Loans Due

Loans drawn at registration time for one month are now due. They are payable at the student loan windows, 1 and 2, in Johnson hall.