Godfrey to Advise New Organization Of Photographers

By JIMMIE CHESTEE
A brand-new organization, with the 1940-41 graphic journalism class its instigators and nucleus, was formed on the campus Monday afternoon...

Officers of the newly-formed organization are Jimmie Leonard, president; Harriet Whalley, vice-president; and Eva Erlanson, secretary.

A special committee was appointed by President Leonard to find a suitable name for the club. Lyle Nelson, Bill Fendall, and Roy Vernstrom were given the name-selecting responsibility.

"It is appropriate that the University of Oregon should formulate an organization of this type since it was also one of the pioneers.

"The membership will not be limited to graphic journalism students, but anyone showing sufficient interest in this type of photography will be eligible for election into the group," Godfrey concluded.

Charter members of the organization are: Lyle Nelson, Bill Fendall, Roy Vernstrom, Harriet Whalley, Eva Erlanson, Jimmie Leonard, and Frank Meek.

Oregon Coed Team Beats OSC Riflers

The Oregon State College women's rifle team invaded the campus last Saturday to be defeated by 64 points. The total Oregon points came to 2,336 and the total O.S.C. points came to 2272.

Oregon women shot their way to first and second place in individual scores.

Top individual scores as listed at the end of the pruned 20-shot match are as follows:

- England, 198, Oregon.
Riordan, 197, Oregon.
West, 197, Oregon.
Lyon, 197, Oregon.
Withycombe, 197, O.S.C.
Cassidy, 196, Oregon.
Perry, 195, Oregon.
Hadley, 195, O.S.C.

Comish to Propose Business Panaceas

"Proposals to reduce the high retail failure rate" will be presented on the business hour starting at 7 o'clock tonight by Prof. N. H. Comish, business administration school faculty member.

T. M. Holt, graduate assistant in the BA school, will tell of current business trends in his "Business Observer" period on the weekly program from 7:15 to 7:30 p. m.

Best Menu—Turnips

"I'd rather sing for a college audience than any other kind," she said seriously. "It's not just that they're enthusiastic, but they are so tolerant."

An exasperated gleam came into her eyes as she continued, "In some places if you don't do just as the audience wishes it's 'Why don't you?' One seldom finds that in a college audience.

"And if you're ever hungry on a hot day," she twinkled at parting, "try iced green pepper with cottage cheese... it's scrumptious."

Soprano Captivates

Perhaps the best appreciated section of her versatile program was the last, which included six songs by American composers. In this group "Velvet Shoes," a tender love song and "Miranda," a saucy alliterative number which showed off the remarkable range and quality of her voice.

Although the show was really hers, Lester Hodges, accompanist, was called back for an encore which he granted in a whimsical, pleased manner.

Houses Announce 20 Girls as Possible Military Ball Rulers

Fred Ehlers, general chairman of the Military ball, announced today that arrangements for the dance are being worked out on a larger scale than ever before.

Among the special attractions of this year's annual all-campus formal is the music of Woody Hite's orchestra. More elaborate decorations than last year will be used, employing Washington's birthday as a theme.

Ehle Reber, in charge of the Little Colonel contest, announced that the Little Colonel will be selected from 20 contestants entered as representatives from different living organizations. The Little Colonel selected at the ball will be enthroned with true military pomp and presented with the eagles symbolic of her rank. She will lead the Grand March near the end of the dance, followed by the two majors and two captains selected at the ball.

The candidates for the Little Colonel race are: Margaret Childs, ADPI; Harriet Minturn, Alpha Gam; Jonelle Melvin, Alpha O; Betty Walls, Alpha Phi; Josephine Gordon, Alpha Xi D; Peggy Lou Doxsee, Chi Omega; Mary McAdams, Tri-Delt; Maxine Hansen, DG; Barbara Trimm, Gamma Phi; and Frances Cox, Pi Phi.

Also Patricia Howard, Sigma Kappa; Jeanette Gordon, ZTA; Barbara Neu, Kappa; Betty Lou Brughman, Theta; Patricia Wright, Alpha Chi; Jane Huston, Hi-Land co-op; Aida Brun, Hilyard co-op; Margery Williams, University co-op; Dorothy Lynd, Susan Campbell; and Winifred Green, Hendricks hall.

WAA Initiation Fee Due Before 2 Today

Women who have been sent WAA bids have been asked to pay their $1 fee to Mildred McCarthy, ADPI, today before 2 o'clock, Joanne Riesch, president of WAA, announced Tuesday.

Initiation will be February 13 at 7 o'clock on the third floor of Geringer, however, the new initiates are asked to meet first in the lobby.

Janet Morris has been appointed chairman of the banquet, at which new WAA officers will be elected. The date has not been set as yet but Miss Morris said the theme would be "Dear Diary."

Top student programs are being aired over state-owned station KOAC, Corvallis, this week. Six different schools and over 60 students are answering the prompeter's cues.

"Aladdin," the second of a series of Arabian Night dramatizations, is slated for the Student Hour of the Air program Thursday at 7:30. Supported by a poetry interlude and campus interview, this program seems to be "Pick of the Week" for time and effort.

Two Leaders
Major networks find Fred Waring's "Pleasure Time," heard Mondays through Fridays at 8 p.m. (NBC) and Glenn Miller's "Moonlight Serenade," aired Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday at 7 p.m. (CBS), leading the field in listener popularity polls. Little wonder... what a combination!

Students
Marvin Krenk's "Student Forum" takes over the 9:15 spot on Tuesday evenings on KORE, Eugene. Past programs have shown a certain amount of zip, and promise improvement by elimination of script noise and "mike fight" stuff.

News commentary by Victor P. Morris, dean of the school of business administration, is scheduled at 8:15 Wednesday evening via KOAC. This is Dean Morris' fifth consecutive broadcast season.

SHOOTING TRIP ...

Coed Rifle Team Plans UW Meet

Squad Will Travel To Seattle Friday; Cars Needed for 12

Friday morning the women's rifle team from the University of Oregon will journey to Seattle to compete with the University of Washington's coed rifle shooters.

The Oregon coeds beat the Huskies last year on the Webfoot range with regulation rifles, but are rather skeptical of the results for this year. The Washington women use specially-built rifles with expensive sights while the women of the University of Oregon have access only to regulation rifles.

At present they have arranged for transportation for nine of the team. Another car is needed for the rest of the 12-woman team; contact Captain Reed in the ROTC building.

Captain Reed and Captain Blythe are accompanying the rifle team as instructors. Miss Lillian England, graduate student, is going in the capacity of chaperone.

The meet will be held early Saturday morning after which the two teams will have lunch together.

Student Body

(Continued from page one) ity to appear before the assembly and to lead yells. Following this the students will vote for the new yell king. Ballots will be handed out at the door.

Any member of the ASUO interested in the position of "yell king" must submit a petition before 5 p.m. today. The petitions should be sent or taken to the ASUO office in McArthur court. Only those submitting petitions will be eligible to try out for the position Thursday, Payne said.

Petitions for the position of rally committee chairman were also called for and should be left in the ASUO office. The executive committee will appoint the chairman from these petitions at the next regular meeting, Tuesday, Payne announced.

Other members of the rally group will be appointed within the week following the appointment of the chairman, as provided in the next rally committee plan.

Campus Calendar

Tabard Inn, instead of as formerly announced, will meet at the home of Professor L. K. Shumaker, 1369 Emerald, at 7:30 Wednesday. International club meets tonight at 7:15 on the third floor of Geringer. Motion pictures will be shown. Members are asked to use the north stairs.

Spanish club will meet Thursday evening on the third floor of Geringer hall at 8 o'clock. Group singing and dancing will make up the greater part of the program.

Dr. J. R. Branton will present his weekly Bible lecture this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the YMCA bungalow.

Theta Sigma Phi meets Wednesday night at 7 o'clock in the editing room.

Vote for No-Card

Dads' Day committeemen drew the praise of the student group when they passed a resolution commending the work on the event, "especially since there was no student union in which to work."

Bishop Remington To Meet UO Students

Bishop William E. Remington of the eastern Oregon district of the Episcopal church will hold an open meeting for all Episcopal men today at the YMCA from 4:30 to 5:30.

Bishop Remington has been visiting friends and leading discussions on the campus the past week. Open house will be held at the home of Mrs. Paul D. Sutley, 1841 Emerald, Thursday afternoon at 4:30 with Bishop Remington guest of honor.

Freshman Vote

Organized early winter term after a split with the organized class over the class card question, the majority group is built along lines suggested by the "model" constitution rejected by the official class early in the school year.

DREAM BUILDERS ... Student Union Groups Appointed

Og Young Appoints Subcommittees To Aid in Project

Sub-committees were appointed in the freshman student union committee Tuesday, by Chairman O. G. Young. Ann Reynolds was named general secretary of the group. Uly Dorais, Chuck Roffe, Elaine Quinn, and Mary Bentley were named to look after collection of co-op receipts to turn in to the building fund.

Rylla Hatton, Dorothy Stewart, and Dave Casey were appointed to the poster committee. Displays will be supervised by Lora Case, Bettie Norwood, and Al Cellars.

Henry Miller, Phil Burco, Joan Taylor, and Beverly Padgham will arrange for student union assemblies.
