Scholarship
Fee Deadline
Set for April 1High School Pupils
Will Be Given Half
Of Total Rewards

Applications for fee scholarships for 1941-42 from both undergraduate and graduate students will be due in the president's office by April 1, 1941. No applications will be considered after this date.

Approximately 96 scholarships will be available of which at least 48 must be awarded to high school graduates who have never attended any institution of higher education. The other 48 scholarships will be given to undergraduates or graduates of this or any other accredited higher educational institution.

These scholarships have a value of $66 for undergraduates and $64.50 for graduate students to be applied toward the total fee of $102 for undergraduate students and $101 for graduate students. Application blanks for these scholarships may be obtained in the president's office.

Recommendations will be based on GPA, and need for financial assistance.

A cumulative GPA of 2.50 is required of undergraduates before they may apply for the scholarship. Graduate students must have at least a 3.00.

Library Receives
Periodical Index;
Current Magazines

The 1939 volume of subject index to periodicals is now available for the first time in the periodical room of the library. This index will be of great use to students because it includes a considerable number of periodicals, primarily English. The library has been receiving the periodicals but the subject index was delayed.

W. C. Warren, periodical librarian, stated that the delay was probably due to the war. It is hoped that indexes will be available back to 1915.

New periodicals recently received by the library are "Auk," "Think," "Sanitation," "Portland Traffic Safety," and "Journal of the Revista Bimestre Cubana," and "Mexicana Review."

Howard Broadcasts

Charles G. Howard, professor of law, Neil R. Hennessy, W. P. Walters, and J. W. McCracken, members of the Kiwanis club, represented the Eugene chapter in a radio traffic safety quiz over KOIN Thursday, February 13, at 9:30 p.m. They competed with the Portland Advertising federation's team.

This broadcast is the fourth in the 1941 series under the direction of Earl Snell, secretary of state.

ONE IN A MILLION

Caroline Chapman, University freshman, gave up the prospects of movie fame and the allure of Hollywood to come to school at Oregon. She was "discovered" by a movie scout last summer, received a screen test, a movie offer—then refused it.

'Monkey Suits'
Head Fashions
For Military Ball

What would an officer do without an enlisted man? The Military ball committee has decided to "permit" basic military students to attend in their "monkey suit" uniforms if they care to do so.

All freshmen and sophomores who agree to wear their basic uniforms at the ball can buy special tickets at the ROTC barracks for $1.25. This offer is good, according to the committee, only from Wednesday through Friday noon; at the door basic students will pay the regular price of $1.50.

The "lux problem" of many fraternities who have a tradition against freshmen wearing tuxes, is answered by allowing frosh to wear the basic uniform.

The following deans and their wives from the University have been invited: Dr. Earl M. Pallet, Virgil D. Earl, Eric W. Allen, Dr. C. Valentine Boyer, Dr. James H. Gilbert, Dr. J. R. Jewell, Theodore Kratt, Ellis F. Lawrence, Dr. Ralph W. Leighton, Dr. Victor P. Morris, Wayne L. Morse, Karl W. Onthank, O. F. Stafford, and Dr. Howard Taylor.

DOUGH-NATION...

Rebec Award
Upped by $500Philosophy Head
Hopes for $1000
In Fund by June

Five hundred dollars has recently been contributed to the fund for the George Rebec prize in philosophy. The $25 prize awarded annually to the undergraduate who presents the best philosophical essay has now a capital endowment of more than $850.00.

According to Dr. H. G. Townsend, head of the philosophy department, it is hoped that this can be increased to $1000 before the end of the year. This would provide an adequate amount to insure the perpetuation of the prize. "Although the prize would still be a small one as compared with many offered in the University, it is intended to be an annual encouragement to any students interested in philosophy to attempt an adequate expression of their philosophical studies and to perpetuate the memory of the great services to the University by Dr. George Rebec," stated Dr. Townsend.

The deadline for the essay, which should not exceed 10,000 words, is May 1, 1941. It must be a unified treatment of a topic, not a series of disconnected opinions.

'American Way'
Men's Symposium
Discussion Topic

The men's symposium team, of which W. A. Dahlberg is coach, will travel to Willamina Wednesday to conduct a debate based on this year's topic, "The American Way."

Those making the trip are Jack Robinson, George Mosher, Bill Moshovsky, and Ken Erickson.

The team plans other trips shortly to Roseburg, Klamath Falls, Lakeview, Hillsboro, and Jasper.

Other members of the team will make the trips to the above towns so that all members will have a chance to participate in the winter program.

Dean Morse to Talk
To Women Voters

Wayne L. Morse, dean of the law school, will address the Eugene League of Women Voters today on the city and county merit system.

He spoke before two Astoria groups yesterday on labor problems, talking to the Clatsop county League of Women Voters at noon and to the Seaside Community church at 8 p.m.

Oregon GAX Chapter
Sponsors Banquet
Honoring Birthday

Zeta chapter of Gamma Alpha Chi sponsored a banquet Friday night celebrating the 21st birthday of the founding of the honorary.

Guests for the dinner were members of Alpha Delta Sigma, national men's advertising honorary. Frank Short, adviser for ADS and Mrs. Eva B. Collins, adviser for GAX, lead a discussion of current problems originating in local and international fields of advertising.

The dinner was at the Alpha Phi house, and Majeanne Glover, local chapter president, acted as toastmistress. The girls were honored by the presence of the national secretary-treasurer, Marjorie Bates of the local chapter.

WILD, WOOLLY...

Tattooed Natives
To Star in FilmsWild Ceremonies,
Primitive Customs
Projected 8:00

The wide tattooed mouths of the Ainu people, their hairy bodies and long beards, their wild and mysterious ceremonies and their everyday life will all be part of a film which will be presented tonight at 8 o'clock in 207 Chapman.

Only about 17,000 of these primitive people are still living in Sakhalin island in northern Japan. When the Japanese people migrated to the islands many centuries ago they found the ancestors of the Ainu people and gradually drove them away until the few who survived the struggle settled on this northern spot.

Today the Japanese refer to this tribe as "dog people" because of their great hairiness. In fact some of the older members of the tribe have found it necessary to use "mustache lifters" to make eating possible.

One of their strangest ceremonies has to do with a bear. The animal is captured and trained as a pet for a time and at the end of the period the tribe holds a ceremony. The big event of the festive occasion is the death of the pet bear.

The movie is sponsored by the anthropology department, and is open to the public. It will last for approximately one hour and no admission will be charged.

Three Ex-Webfoots
Receive High Grades
In Navy School Test

Jim Pickett, Norman Holt, and Bill Pease, all of whom attended the University of Oregon, have passed their tests with high standing at the Navy Reserve school in Chicago, according to word received here at the University.

The Navy Reserve school is in the section of Chicago called "Streetsville" where Northwestern university is. Abbott hall and Tower Town building have both been turned into accommodations for the boys and their classes.

"Things are as unpredictable as the war and our national policy, both of which decide our future to a great extent," said Pickett in describing the boys' situations.

Holt graduated in 1940 from the University, Pease in '39, and Pickett, a senior, left here this fall and plans to come back to finish after his training.

Faculty Club Elects
Three New Officers
At Annual Meeting

New officers of the Faculty club were elected February 11 at the board's annual meeting. Those elected were: Kenneth S. Ghent, president; Orville Lindstrom, treasurer; and Professor Charles G. Howard, secretary.

An informal party will take place in Gerlinger hall February 28, it was announced recently. Dancing, games, and bridge will highlight the party, which will be held through the joint cooperation of the Faculty club and the Women's Faculty club.

Marine Reservists
Announce Vacancies

To meet the increased demands of the marine corps reserve during the limited national emergency proclaimed by the president, the marine corps will have vacancies for additional reserve officers on active duty during the next year.

Contrary to former practice, the corps will be unable to accept for membership in these candidates' classes graduates who are members of the army ROTC since that will conflict with the plans for utilization of their service by the war department.

Students not members of the ROTC who meet requirements will be given consideration.

Information on the subject is available in the office of President Erb's secretary.
