Rally Petitions' Deadline Delayed

Executive Committee Postpones Meeting Of Pep Squad Aspirants Until Monday; Officials Will Decide on Chairman Today

Because of the excessive number of petitions filed by students for the 11 positions on the rally squad, the executive committee has postponed interviewing the applicants from this evening until 7 o'clock Monday.

Deadline for presenting applications to ASUO officials has also been extended until 5 o'clock this evening.

At 3 p.m. today the ASUO officers will vote on the four candidates for rally chairman. These four students were interviewed by the committee Tuesday.

NYA Committee Meets Today To Hear Report

NYA Future May Depend on Survey; Members Listed

The committee for a local NYA survey will meet today at 4 in the men's lounge at Gerlinger.

The meeting will consist of a report by the committee which drew up the questions, Ken Erickson, chairman, aided by Miss Leila Nelson and the state director.

Report Stated

The report of the committee will be the first of its kind to take place in this state. Dean R. W. Leighton, Dean Karl Onthank, and the state director of NYA will supervise the work and make the report to Washington.

The survey may determine the future of NYA on the campus.

Committee Members

Members of the committee to meet Thursday are:

Noble Talk to End Student Fund Drive

"War and the Japanese People" is the title of the lecture by Dr. H. J. Noble when he speaks Tuesday night, February 25, at 7:30 in Alumni hall, Gerlinger.

Twenty-five cents general admission and 10-cent student ticket proceeds will be added to the University's world student service fund.

Dr. Noble is one of the three greatest living authorities on the Orient and Eastern affairs.

All living organizations which have not yet turned in their money from the "tag" sale are asked by Les Anderson and Mary Louise Vincent, chairmen of the sale, to leave the contributions with the secretary of the YMCA.

'Ali Baba' Scheduled Tonight by Students Over Station KOAC

"Ali Baba and the 40 Thieves" will be heard tonight at 7:30, when the speech division puts on its weekly hour show. Dick Walker, Dick Turner, and Ruth Condon have leading roles, supported by other radio students.

Bettie Jane Quigley is in charge of the poetry portion of the program.

The campus interview, heard at 8:15, will feature another Oregon student, Dave Zilka, who will interview an expert at fencing. Programs and direction are supervised by Don Hargis, instructor in speech.

ANOTHER ELECTION'S OVER—THE VICTORS

Students Get Chance To Give Co-op Slips

Boxes Placed in Houses to Collect Contributions; Living Organizations Giving Greatest Value Earn Recognition

Opportunity for all Oregon students to contribute to student union funds was made available yesterday when boxes for co-op receipts were placed in all campus living organizations.

The receipt committee, a division of Oglesby Young's freshman student union committee, is headed by Uly Dorais.

Dorais asked that all students deposit their co-op receipts in these boxes. Returns will be turned over to a furnishing fund for the projected student union building.

Cornerstone Plug

The men's and women's houses turning in the greatest value in co-op receipts will be given recognition of some sort in cornerstone-laying ceremonies. The freshman committee will collect receipts every two weeks, and the winners will be announced at the end of the year.

Representatives from campus living groups met with the receipt committee Wednesday afternoon to receive instructions and deposit boxes. Dorais explained to them that the success of student union depended to a large extent on the enthusiasm of Oregon students, themselves.

Reports Heard

Following the receipt meeting, the entire freshman committee heard reports from other committees on assemblies, displays, posters, and publicity.

There was a brief discussion on the bill now before the state legislature which would authorize construction of a student union building at Oregon and a gymnasium at Oregon State.

Jameson to Speak

Dr. S. H. Jameson, professor of sociology, will speak at the monthly meeting of the Oregon conference on family relations which will take place at a noon luncheon today in the Jane Addams high school in Portland.

Three Houses to Vie For $75 Song Prize

Three women's houses, chosen Saturday after semi-final eliminations in the music auditorium, will compete in the finals of the ASUO all-campus sing contest some time later in the year, according to Les Ready, chairman.

Delta Gamma, Gamma Phi Beta, and Pi Beta Phi, the houses chosen, will take part in the final competition for a prize of $75.

Men's semi-finals are scheduled for Saturday morning in the music auditorium. The men's groups will also be competing for a $75 first prize.

Theta Sigs Select

Five junior women were pledged to Theta Sigma Phi, women's journalism sorority, Monday. They include Doris Caldwell, Jean Adams, Barbara Roberts, Erros Penland and Pat Taylor.

Independents Meet at OSC Spring Term

Temporary Head Cavanagh Confers With Beavers

Plans for Oregon's part in a northwest conference of independent students, to be held on the OSC campus early spring term, were approved last night by the association of independent students.

The conference, under joint sponsorship of Oregon and Oregon State independents, it is believed will attract representatives from all major northwest colleges and universities.

According to John Cavanagh, temporary chairman of the group, last night's reports were the results of a conference with Jerry Bowers and Guy Monroe, OSC independent leaders, on this campus Sunday.

Activities Participation

Main problem before the conference will probably be "ways to secure opportunities for greater participation of independent students in student government and student activities," Cavanagh said.

Association representatives meeting at the Side last night heard a series of reports on universal class membership and tent class cards by Jean Spearow and Steve Worth.

Cavanagh announced that Johnny Kahananui would be in charge of an investigation into means of class finance without the use of class cards.

The association cabinet, made up of all chairmen, will meet Friday at 3 p.m. in the Side to discuss promotion and contacts, Cavanagh said.

Campus Romeo Seeks Juliet In Bug House

Bill Loud can't even throw a note into the second story of the infirmary. He stood under Joyce Hansen's window for 15 minutes trying to flip an epistle into her window, and couldn't even hit the side of the building.

There is an alleged romance between "ward nine" and ward two.

Patients ... too, Jim Burness, Bill Norene, Gertrude Hoak, Nonda Pirtle, Miriam LaMarr Wood, Joyce Hansen, Shirley Holcomb, Joan Cross, Dorothy Greer, Phyl Dube, Fred Hill, Fred Lloyd, Cris Lundseth, Amos Jah, Nelson Sandren, Howard Girdlestone, Ed Boydell, Gene Edwards, Burr Monrad, Paul Bolton, Chuck Rowe, Maurice Solomon, Fred Timmen, John Slottee, Hugh Muir, and Cliff Anet.

'Clean Politics' Clause Gets Acid Test by Women

AWS Nominating Committee Will Name Two Candidates for Each Group; Retiring Officers of Organizations Named

By BETTY JANE BIGGS

The new "clean politics" amendment to the AWS constitution will be given its first practical test this morning as politically-minded coeds vote on campus women leaders following the mass-meeting at 11 o'clock in Gerlinger hall.

Two candidates will be named for officers of AWS, WAA, and YWCA by the nominating committee which is composed of senior members of the AWS cabinet. Nominations will be in order from the floor after the committee's report.

According to the new amendment, adopted February 7, election of the officers will be held immediately after the nominees have been named and personally introduced.

Voting Privileges

Blank ballots will be handed out at the door so coeds may fill in their choice. All voters are asked to provide their own pencils.

Outgoing officers for the AWS include: Betty Buchanan, president; Barbara Warner, vice-president; Maxine Hansen, secretary; Elizabeth Steed, treasurer; Betty Jane Biggs, reporter; and Mary Ellen Smith, sergeant-at-arms.

WAA Leaders

WAA leaders to be replaced are: Joanne Riesch, president; Hope Hughes, vice-president; Jean Burt, secretary; Bette Morfit, treasurer; Mildred McCarthy, custodian; Hazel Oldfield, head of sports; Pat Lawson, sergeant-at-arms; Marge Dibble, reporter.

Elective YW officers who have completed their term are: Jean Crites, president; Marge Montgomery, vice-president; Bobsie Roehm, secretary; Kathleen Brady, treasurer.

MI, MI, MI ...

'Bonus' Concert Planned Tonight

Symphony to Play In Music Assembly; Cards Unnecessary

The University symphony orchestra, under the direction of its permanent conductor, Rex Underwood, will take to the stage of the music auditorium Thursday night at 8:15 to offer a "bonus" concert on the winter term schedule. The music school and the educational activities board, which are co-sponsoring the performance, extend an invitation to all faculty members and students to attend. No activities card is necessary for admission.

The program will feature three symphonic compositions of the "standard" variety, and in addition offer the first public performance of "Scherzo," composition by Norman Cory, graduate assistant in music and writer of the tone-poem, "Democracy Triumphant."

The major work to be played will be "Symphony in D Minor," which was apparently a failure as far as the public was concerned when first performed 52 years ago.

YMCA Talks Today

Charles E. Funk, Wesley foundation director, Clark Enz, campus promotional chairman of the youth section of the Portland Christian mission, and Don Bacot, meeting chairman, will describe purposes and plans of the conference before students at 4 p.m. today in the YMCA hut.

'Dear Diary' Theme Of WAA Banquet

"Dear Diary" will be the theme of the annual winter term WAA banquet to be held tonight at the Anchorage at 5:30. The dinner is for all WAA members, and the price will be 55 cents.

Highlight of the evening will be announcement of election results, and presentation of all trophy and check awards earned during the past year.

Janet Morris is chairman of the dinner, and her committee heads include: Virginia Bubb, invitations; Frances Tomlinson, flowers; Winifred Wilhelm and Helen Jane Kerr, program; Gertrude Puzis, finance; and Janet Ross and Adele Canada, decorations.

Late reservations may be made until noon today by calling Virginia Bubb, 729.

Saga of Winter Sports Skiing Film Unrolls

Reel after reel of colored movies of the most famous and beautiful winter resorts in the United States will unfold on the screen tonight at 8 o'clock in Villard hall.

The film, "Ski America Second," is a sequel to "Ski America First" and has been hailed as one of the most beautiful sagas of skiing ever filmed. Hannes Schroll, Dick Durance, Friedl Pfeiffer, Otto Lang, Hans Faulkner, Toni Matt, and countless other ski champions will be pictured in exhibition and competitive skiing.

ONE O'CLOCK ... Late Permission Granted Students For Military Ball

Allied Arts Provide Dance Decorations As Plans Progress

Plans for the military ball in McArthur court Saturday evening are progressing rapidly, according to Fred Ehlers, general chairman of the dance committee.

One o'clock permission has been granted by the dean of women's office for the Military ball, it was announced last night. This is one of the few major dances granted this late permission.

Arrangements have been completed to have the Allied Arts decorators from Portland provide the main decorations for the ball, carrying out a military theme.

Tickets for the dance were called in yesterday from living organizations but will be available in a limited number at the door Saturday night. Ticket sales, handled by military representatives, have surpassed those of other years, according to dance heads.

3 Cars Jam In Collision

Three student cars were damaged shortly after 1 p.m. Wednesday at Thirteenth and Kincaid streets when the vehicle operated by John Lund, sophomore in education, 2585 Agate, collided with that driven by John Schaefer, sophomore in business administration, 1367 Alder. Lund's machine pushed Schaefer's car into a parked car, owned by Ruby Goodrich, route 2, Eugene, but operated by Martha Goodrich, graduate student of route 2.

Otis Dyer of the Eugene police investigated the accident. All three cars were insured.

Oregana Will Take '41 Pictures Friday On Chapman Steps

Oregana pictures for charter members of the '41 club will be taken Friday at 12:30 p.m. in front of Chapman, according to Bob Gridley, president.

Gridley and other officers were elected Thursday for the coming year. Vice-president-elect is Billie Christensen; secretary-treasurer, John Lund; and publicity chairman, Jean Burt. The club also adopted a constitution.

Last open meeting of the club will be Tuesday at 8:30 p.m. in the YWCA, Gridley said.

Sullivan Lines Up Seniors for Jobs

Because his time for interviewing students Wednesday was limited, Walter J. Sullivan, personnel director for Pacific Fruit and Produce company, will return in two weeks for interviews with other senior students, he told Miss Janet Smith, employment secretary.

Mr. Sullivan reported that he is definitely interested in some of the students interviewed.
