

YUH GOTTA HAVE BRAINS

Photo by Bert Shoemaker

Invitations to the Smarty Party, for all girls with GPA's of 3.00 or better, go out today. Above, left, Janet Goresky hands Mary Word her "ticket" of admission for next Wednesday night's dessert in Gerlinger hall.

CHIEF LUNGWIELDER ...

Lester Anderson Will Head Rallies

Chairman Succeeds Pat Keller; Payne To Interview Candidates for Remaining Positions on Squad Monday Evening

Lester Anderson, sophomore in law, was appointed chairman of the rally committee for the coming year by the student executive committee Thursday. Other applicants for the position were Bob Greer, Pete Lamb, and Art Wiggin.

Anderson was chosen after some discussion of the advisability of changing the new rally squad setup in order to allow a junior to become a chairman. John Cavanaugh and Lyie Nelson objected to shifting the by-laws at will, which they claimed was being done. However, after some debate the

TO VIE VOCALLY ...

All-Campus Sing To Begin at Nine

All Men's Houses To Vie for Honors Saturday Morning

At 9 o'clock Saturday morning the Chi Psi's will begin the first round of eliminations of the men's houses participating in the ASUO all-campus sing contest.

The event, to be open to the public, will take place in the music school auditorium. All living organizations entered are asked by Les Ready, chairman, to be at the music school at least 15 minutes before they are scheduled to appear.

They will be judged in the following order: Chi Psi, 9; Kappa Sigma, 9:10; Phi Delta Theta, 9:20; Phi Kappa Psi, 9:30; Phi Gamma Delta, 9:40; Sigma Nu, 9:50; Sigma Phi Epsilon, 10; Alpha Tau Omega, 10:10; Sigma Chi, 10:20; Theta Chi, 10:30; Delta Tau Delta, 10:40; Delta Upsilon, 10:50; Beta Theta Pi, 11; Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 11:10; Phi Sigma Kappa, 11:20; Pi Kappa Alpha, 11:30; Sigma Alpha Mu, 11:40; Campbell co-op, 11:50; Kirkwood co-op, 12; and Yeomen, 12:10.

Coast Conference Of Delta Tau Delta To Open Here Today

The Pacific Coast regional conference of Delta Tau Delta fraternity will open Friday morning at the University chapter to last throughout that day and Saturday, it was announced last night.

Approximately 30 representatives of eight Delt chapters will attend a series of meetings to discuss problems of each fraternity group on the individual campuses.

Highlight of the weekend will come Saturday night at a dinner dance in the Eugene hotel.

Friday night the conference will move to Corvallis for a banquet with the Oregon State chapter. Ernst Haycox, Oregon alumnus and writer, will speak at that occasion.

Among national Delt officers present for the meetings will be H. J. Jepson, president of the western division, and Hugh Shields, comptroller.

Les Anderson

motion was passed. The new rally committee head served this year as an assistant to Pat Keller, rally committee chairman. He was highly recommended by Keller.

Over a hundred petitions for the remaining positions on the committee were turned in to the ASUO office in McArthur court by the 5 o'clock deadline last night, ASUO Prexy Tiger Payne announced last night. The candidates will be interviewed Monday evening, Payne said.

Noble Will Lecture On Tuesday Night

Dr. H. J. Noble, associate professor of history, will climax the campus drive to raise money for the World Student Service fund at a lecture on "War and the Japanese People." After two postponements the speech will take place in Alumni room, Gerlinger, Tuesday, February 25, at 7:30 p.m.

Twenty-five cents general admission and 10-cent student ticket proceeds will be added to Oregon's donation of the WSSF.

All living organizations who have not yet turned in their money for the "tag" sale are asked by Les Anderson and Mary Louise Vincent, chairmen of the sale, to leave it with the secretary of the YMCA.

Eugene Landlords To Discuss Housing

Householders of Eugene who are housing University students meet Wednesday, February 26, at 2:30 p.m., in Villard hall for a pre-spring term registration meeting. Mrs. E. M. Morris, University housing secretary, announced yesterday.

OREGON Daily EMERALD

VOLUME XLII

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1941

NUMBER 85

Elizabeth Steed to Head AWS

EDITS:
Lap' Dogs
Invade Campus,
Cause Trouble

3. AND UP ...

Smarty Party To Honor 200 Bright Coeds

'Brains' to Attend Gerlinger Dessert Wednesday Night

Over 200 coed "brains" will receive invitations today from Mortar Board, senior women's honorary, to its annual "smarty party" scheduled for next Wednesday evening.

The senior girls will entertain all women students having a three-point or above this year at a dessert from 6 to 7 in the alumni room of Gerlinger hall. Following the refreshments, a musical program has been arranged.

Committees for the party are: Grace Irvin and Joanne Riesch, program; Marge McLean and Janet Goresky, invitations; Betty Buchanan, Donna Ketchum, Aida Brun, eligibility information; and Barbara Warner, refreshments.

Contest Revives Old Song Written To Keep UO Here

"We Have Heard You, Alma Mater," Oregon song written in 1932 will receive a revival Saturday morning at the all-campus sing.

Original lyrics by S. H. Jameson, professor of sociology, and music by John Stark Evans, professor of music, were written at the time of the Zorn-MacPherson initiative measure which would have moved the University to Corvallis.

The song was written to enlist support of Oregon sympathizers. (Please turn to page four)

AMAZONS' ANTICS ...

Assembly Gives WAA Presidency To Hope Hughes

House, Individual Trophies, Plaques, Letter Awards Presented at Banquet; New Council Members Announced

By JEAN SPEAROW

The shouting is over now and Hope Hughes can settle down to the serious business of being president of WAA to which office she was elected Thursday morning.

Results of the "purity election" were kept secret until last night at the WAA banquet when the new officers were announced as follows: president, Hope Hughes; vice-president, Ruth Graham; secretary,

WAA HEAD

(Photo by Kennell-Elia) Hope Hughes became '40-'41 president of WAA yesterday when she was elected from a field of three candidates. Her election was announced at an annual WAA banquet last night.

TO RULE BUNGALOW ...

Lois Nordling Wins YWCA Presidency In 'Reform' Election

Bobsie Roehm Named Vice-President; Abbie White, Secretary; Betty Pratt Takes Treasurer Position

Out of a field of four candidates, Lois Nordling, junior in English, outdid her rivals to be named president of YWCA at Thursday's elections.

Other women students elected to top positions in the "YW" cabinet are: vice-president, Bobsie Roehm; secretary, Abbie White; and treasurer, Betty Pratt.

A member of Phi Theta Upsilon, junior women's honorary and holding a position for three years on the women's symposium team, Miss Nordling has been very prominent for her participation in campus activities. The new president was also a Kwama, sophomore girls' honorary, last year.

Nominees for the YW offices included: president, Kathleen Brady and Lois Nordling; vice-president, Pauline Pengra, Bobsie Roehm, and Pat Salsbury; secretary, Lisbeth Daggett, Helen Mae Hatcher, Abbie Jane White, Donna Ray, and Emily Tyree; treasurer Margaret Brown, Betty Lynds, Betty Pratt, and Anita Simons.

Leota Whitelock Wins Ad Staff Appointment

Leota Whitelock, sophomore in arts and letters, was appointed assistant classified advertising manager in the Emerald business office yesterday, working under Anita Backberg, classified manager.

This term and last term Miss Whitelock has served on the staff, and her ability will help the progress of the classified department, Business Manager Jim Frost stated.

(Photo by Kennell-Elia) Lois Nordling will guide policies of Oregon's YWCA group for the coming year, University women decreed yesterday, when they elected her president for the coming year.

CLEANING UP ...

Military Men Now Finishing Plans for Ball

Ehlers Announces Work in 3 Fields Already Completed

With the Military ball only one day in the future Fred Ehlers and his staff of efficient committeemen are rapidly perfecting plans for the all-campus formal.

Ehlers stated that plans have been completed concerning the decorations, orchestra, and invitations.

Pictures of the Little Colonel candidates are now on display in the Co-op.

Plans have been made all during the ball. This will replace the coke machines that have supplied refreshment at previous dances.

Lloyd Sullivan, captain of Scabard and Blade, sponsors of the Military ball, announces that the selections to be made for the initiates to the military honorary are being decided.

Members of the general committee are: Ehler Reber who is handling the Little Colonel contest; Maurice Hunter in charge of programs, patrons and patronesses; Jack Hannegan, alumni letters; Joe Rieg, orchestra; Eugene McGee, decorations; Dan Mahoney, refreshments; and Bob Rogers, publicity.

Companatus Halti Entertains Campus Militia, Gives it Pains.

ROTCers say "Oh heck, Gosh, we wish It was home ec."

—J.W.S.

SPRING TERM 'FREATURE' ...

'Best' Dance Team, O'Donnell and Limon, Will Appear April 2

Free Show Presented by Women PE, Master Dance Honorary, Activity Board; Duo to Feature New, Modern Program

Recently united as a dance team, and already acknowledged as one of the best on tour at the present time, May O'Donnell and Jose Limon, with their pianist-composer Ray Green, will appear before University students and Eugene townspeople, April 2, it was announced yesterday from the educational activities office.

Jointly presented by the women's physical education department, master dance honorary, and the educational activities board, the show will be free to all University students on their activities cards. Reserved seat tickets go on sale today and can be obtained either from members of master dance honorary or at the activities office.

Original Dances Equally talented the three young artists feature a completely original program both as to dances and music based around the central topic "Dances on American Themes." Presenting a type of dance which is modern and yet has a generous dash of the theater, Miss O'Donnell and Mr. Limon have been enthusiastically received up and down the coast—both as a team and individually.

Handsome, vital and with an extensive background of training in their field, the team was recently given the following notice by Alfredo Frankenstein of the San Francisco Chronicle, "Jose Limon and May O'Donnell are the most powerful, brutal and sensationally exciting things of their kind. Jose looks like a cross between a champion diver and an Aztec prince . . . brings the modern dance full-blooded masculine strength."

The music, especially composed (Please turn to page four)

Coeds Elect New Staff Of Officers

Maxine Hansen, Marge Dible, Nancy Riesch, Marge Curtis, Adele Say Receive Positions on New Council

By BETTY JANE BIGGS

Elizabeth Steed was elected president of the Associated Women students Thursday under the recently adopted "clean politics" amendment to the AWS constitution.

Coed voters named as her officers: Maxine Hansen, vice president; Marge Dible, secretary; Nancy Riesch, treasurer; Marge Curtis, sergeant-at-arms; and Adele Say, reporter.

The meeting was conducted by Betty Buchanan, out-going AWS president, under the changed rules of the constitution. As amended, it states that election of officers shall be made immediately after the nomination and introduction of the candidates.

Miss Steed Active Miss Steed, junior in social science, has been active in many campus affairs. She is president of Phi Theta Upsilon, junior women's honorary; and a former member of Kwama, sophomore girls' honorary. During her sophomore year she served as sergeant-at-arms on the AWS cabinet and this year as treasurer of the organization.

Candidates for the AWS officers included: president, Billie Christensen, Eleanor Sederstrom, and Elizabeth Steed; vice-president, Rebecca Anderson, Carolyn Cook, and Maxine Hansen; secretary, Betty Jane Biggs, Marge Dible, Helen Moore, and Mary Ellen Smith.

More Nominees For treasurer, Nancy Allen, Janet Farnham, and Nancy Riesch; sergeant-at-arms, Marge Curtis, Barbara Dupuy, Jean Schneider, and Emma Verduran; reporter, Bettie Norwood, Adele Say, and Corrine Wignes.

Jack Bryant, Emerald columnist last year, is enrolled at Ryan aeronautical school, San Diego, California, for ground school work and flight training. He will be there for 10 weeks' training.

NUMBER 1

(Photo by Kennell-Elia) Elizabeth Steed, above, moved into the number one woman's job on the campus yesterday when she was elected president of AWS. Last year she was treasurer.

CONFIDENTIAL ...

NYA Committee Begins Survey

Units Organized For Distribution Of Questionnaires

The student NYA survey committee under the leadership of its chairman, Ken Erickson, met Thursday in work units for the conducting of the survey.

Questionnaires will be distributed to the 350 students who are now on NYA rolls and to the 75 NYA supervisors. Answers will be strictly confidential and of a nature to reveal whether or not NYA is functioning to the best advantage.

Similar surveys will take place at other schools using the system, and all reports will be sent to Washington, D. C., where they will be checked for the possible need of reforms.

Jewett Contestants To Compete Tuesday

Twenty students will compete in the preliminaries of the W. F. Jewett poetry-reading contest at 3 p.m. Tuesday, February 25, in 106, 107, and 108 Friendly hall. It was announced yesterday. Seventeen finalists will vie Wednesday, February 26, at 3 o'clock in the browsing room at the library.

First prizes of $10 and second prizes of $5 are offered in three different groups: Biblical selections, lyrics and sonnets, and ballads and narratives. Contestants may enter more than one group in the preliminaries, but may compete in only one in the finals even though they qualify for more than one.

Five entrants will be selected to appear in the finals of the Biblical selections group at the preliminary contest Tuesday, while six will be chosen in each of the other groups.

'MODERN'

May O'Donnell, above, will team with Jose Limon April 2 for a program of modern dance numbers in McArthur court. The appearance is sponsored by the educational activities board and Master Dance.