Webfoots Make Baseball Debut

Coach Anse Cornell Names Pete Igoe As Mound Choice; Tremendous Oregon Hitting Power Set to Blast Pacific

University of Oregon's baseball sluggers will get their first taste of competition this afternoon at 3:30 at Howe field when they meet the touring Pacific university nine.

Coach Anse Cornell announced yesterday that he would probably call on Pete Igoe, two-year letter winner, to toss them up for the Webfoot aggregation. Igoe has shown well in practice sessions and is apparently in better condition than any of the other twirlers.

Calvert and Walker

Billy Calvert may receive Igoe's speedball slants if he has fully recovered from the beaming received last week in a practice game. If Calvert isn't in top shape, Bud Walker, reserve on last year's squad, will get the assignment.

The Webfoot lineup will not be lacking in hitting power. From the top of the batting order to the last man, they represent power-plus.

With Johnny Bubalo, Captain Dick Whitman, and Bill Carney handling the outfield assignments, Cornell will not have any worries when fly balls are hit past the infield.

Oregon Lineup

The Oregon lineup will see Igoe pitching and either Calvert or Walker catching; Chuck Clifford, first base; Jack Shimshak, second base; Bill Hamel, shortstop; Buck Berry, third base; Bubalo, right field; Whitman, center field; and Carney, left field.

Later in the week Oregon travels to Forest Grove and meets Pacific on Friday, and takes on the strong Portland university nine at Portland on Saturday afternoon.

Gridders Practice

Under the careful eye of Oregon's grid master, Coach Tex Oliver, the 1941 Duck bid for supremacy in coast conference football next fall is already beginning to claim a combination of speed and size as its greatest potential assets after four days of spring practice.

...Since the opening session last Friday, Coach Oliver has divided his squad into four working units, and concentrated on fundamentals and the perfection of enough plays to enable the teams to stage their first scrimmage next Saturday afternoon.

Oliver Drills Backs

Coach Tex Oliver has taken over the vacated duties of Mike Mikulak, and has worked for the most part exclusively with the backfield, acquainting his galaxy of speedsters with the rhythm of a new starting signal and light blocking practice.

Manny Vezie, end coach and newest addition to the Duck coaching staff, has kept the end candidates busy with fundamentals and an introduction to a modified type of end play rather than the straight crashing style featured by the Oliver Twist."

Tackles, guards, and centers are the only ones who have seen much heavy work during the first days of the spring session. Line Coach Vaughn Corley sent his charges through stiff workouts on line scrimmage Sunday morning and yesterday afternoon.

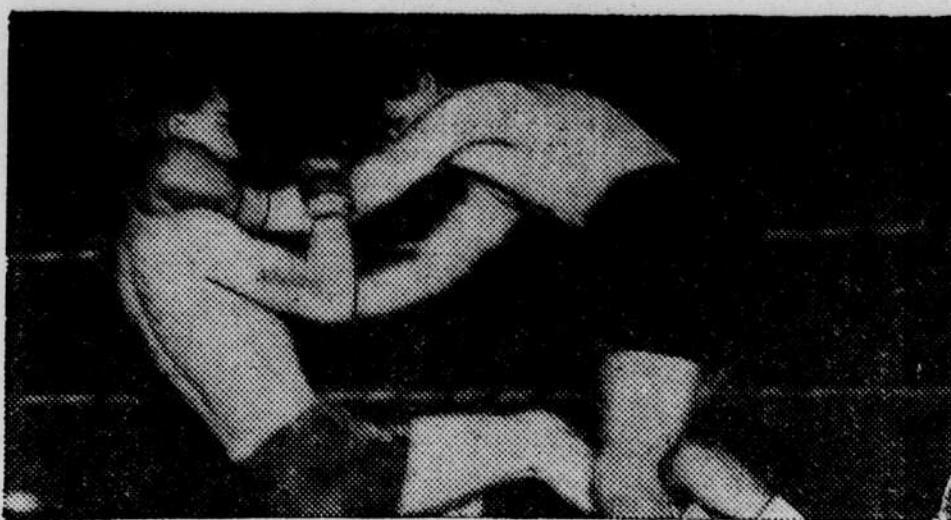

Coach Oliver expressed satisfaction with the progress his squad is making and commented favorably on the team morale.

Coed Sports Start Soon

"Houses should start their practices, baseball, tennis, and golf," urged Hazel Oldfield, head of girls' sports, at a special WAA meeting in Gerlinger.

House sports managers are asked to report names of baseball players to D'Ann Shoemaker,

Thinclads Work Out

Still too early to prophesy on the Duckling track prospects, Coach Ned Johns continued this week to send his freshmen thinclads through conditioning workouts. After an intrasquad scuffle this Friday, Johns expects to have a better slant on his team. Time trials will be conducted in all events.

Don Wilson, state prep champion miler last year from McMinnville, looks very good in Mentor Johns' estimation. Another state title holder—Bob Newland 1940 high jump winner—is also rounding into form, taking tips from Les Steers, varsity wizard. The yearling headman expressed hope of having a two-entry man in lanky Phil Jackson, a combined pole vaulter and high jumper.

First actual competition outside of intrasquad skirmishes is the Oregon State relays April 19 at Corvallis.

Warren's Ducklings Practice in Rain

Braving an Oregon mist, Coach John Warren's outfielders and infielders sloshed around in the mire on the practice field Monday chasing muddy balls and taking their turns at bashing them out.

With a game coming up with the prepsters from Grant next Friday, Warren still bemoans the lack of mound workers. As John puts it, "I've got one pitcher and two throwers."

Hanen Tops Golf Tryouts

Under the guiding hand of Bob Engelke, coach and captain of the 1941 varsity golf team, prospective members for the team finished their qualifying rounds Sunday. Dick Hanen led with the low individual scores of 71, 72, 72, 72 for a total of 287.

The first six men in the lowest qualifying scores will make up the varsity contingent to play against Pacific university at Laurelwood golf course, Saturday.

The scores for individual qualifiers are as follows:

	Total
Dick Hanen .. 71, 72, 72, 72	287
Shelby Golden 72, 74, 73, 71	290

Bob Shelly 72, 77, 77, 79	305
Frank Jordan 76, 75, 75, 79	305

The top six men will represent Oregon as the varsity team, but others playing in the qualifying rounds may challenge members of the varsity to matches, and if winning the match will take the defeated member's place on the team.

SIDE PATER Pat Taylor

And an okay time was had at Kyser . . .

And the man has a memory to say the least . . . you see, 'twas this way . . . not being one to blow one's own horn (more than anyone else, that is.) . . . we'll say that when in the California last week, we, with Babs Read, Shirley Sullivan and Janet Welch met Mr. K. in the St. Frances of a Thursday afternoon . . . We chatted of this and that as girls will when meeting a big band man and his vocalist . . . oh yes, met Ginny too . . . said we went to the U, and too hee-ed around . . . and when he played here, he reflected our names and asked for us . . . right over the mike! . . . Imagine! . . . We all boom up to the band stand feeling like veritable shots, we'll have you know . . . and laid our claim to fame by saying hello to the man . . . This may or may not be with writin' about, but you'll have to admit the man has memory . . . He was mistook about me being a Phi . . . but that's to their embarrassment, not mine . . . His score was pretty good, though . . . Anyway, it was all peachy fun . . . Oh, Happy Kay Kyser Day. Then every buddy came to the Side, where you don't meet band leaders, but where it's just keen for rustling up a slim dish of coke and a slug of whist.
