Blackout Helps Mail Romance In Pill Palace

Everything was peace and quiet in the measles mausoleum—then the lights went out. Ah! A chance for a correspondence romance to be the real thing. Nurses are rushing, hunting frantically for a flashlight, gasps of fright come from the women's ward. Now, there it is, a hesitating flicker glowing into full light—Chuck Weisberg is caught carefully and stealthily making his way down the hall.

Baptist

University students' Sunday school is at 9:45 a.m., and the University BYPU meets at 6:30 p.m. Worship services are planned for 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.

Easter morning at 8 a.m. there will be a breakfast at Seymour's cafe for young people. Students are invited to attend.

St. Mary's Catholic

A mass and breakfast is scheduled for 9:30 a.m. in Gerlinger hall. This is a student service.

HISTORY REPEATS ITSELF

These scenes are not from a movie, nor are they from wars in the days of old. Using every type of ship in their harbors to break Germany's counter-blockade, the British have sent sailing vessels like this one to sea. In the top picture the schooner lists after being hit by bombs from a German plane; in the lower picture she is on her way to Davy Jones locker.

Dr. Von Bruecke To Speak Tuesday

Two speaking engagements are scheduled for the University campus next week by Dr. Ernest von Bruecke, renowned Austrian neurophysiologist. Both talks are open to the public.

Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in room 105 Deady he will address a meeting of Sigma Xi science honorary on "Fatigue and Recovery in Peripheral Nerves." Wednesday evening, April 8, he will give a faculty lecture in the faculty room of Friendly hall on "Physiological Tendencies to Stabilize the Appearance of the Environment."

Professor von Bruecke, grandson of the great Viennese physiologist of the same name, has been for over 20 years one of Europe's foremost neurophysiologists. During this time, until April 1938, he was professor of physiology at Innsbruck university in Austria. For the past two years he has occupied the position of research fellow in the Harvard medical school. Having had numerous published articles in periodicals of neurophysiology and psychology, he is a member of the editorial board of the Journal of Neurophysiology.

Alums Schedule 'Old Oregon' Day In 'Rose City'

Dean Kratt Named Fete Toastmaster For April 10 Event

"A Day with Old Oregon" will be celebrated Thursday, April 10, by all alumni in the vicinity of Portland.

Dean Theodore Kratt of the music school is toastmaster for the banquet that evening, and activities of alumni will be handled by last year's president, Donald B. McCormick.

During the afternoon session six faculty members will conduct individual forums. In the evening they will introduce speakers and conduct open discussion following their talks.

Dean James H. Gilbert, who has been on the University faculty for 33 years, will speak on "Convertible Money Converted." Dr. Harold J. Noble will discuss "Japan's Greater East Asia," and Professor Ernest G. Moll will tell how "A Poet Looks at Australia." "Labor's Stake in Labor Legislation" will be told by the international news enthusiast, Dean Victor P. Morris. Professor Gordon Wright will present "Fate of the French Democracy."

Dinah Shore, network vocalist, is a graduate of Vanderbilt university.
