

Relays Attract 400 Prep Trackmen

Frosh Baseballers Nick Eugene Hi, 15-4

John Warren's frosh baseball sluggers slashed out with their hickory sticks Thursday afternoon to bang in a total of 15 runs on as many hits to hang up a one-sided win over Eugene high, 15 to 4.

Bill Gissberg, versatile ball player who divides his time between first and the mound, set the high school lads with four hits and four runs in his six innings stay on the mound. The ex-first sacker set six of the Axemen down via the strikeout route. He allowed one earned run.

Burns Hits Four

Dick Burns, who filled Gissberg's shoes at first, rapped out four hits, three singles and one double, in four trips to the platter to drag down hitting honors. Bob Farrow clubbed out two singles and a double in four tries at the plate. The frosh boomed out with seven runs in the first two innings.

Starting on the mound for the Eugene boys was Wally Mold who was nicked for ten hits and 11 runs in five innings. Turvey took over in the sixth and held the Ducklings scoreless. Aaron Jones took on the pitching chore for the frosh in the sixth and outside of a walk had no trouble.

Cool weather and shadows that slowly enveloped the field early in the sixth inning brought a close to the one-sided contest.

26 Schools Enter Bill Hayward's Races

Four hundred athletes representing 26 Oregon and one Washington high school congregate on Hayward field today for the fifth annual running of the Hayward relays. Fifteen minutes after University of Oregon President Donald M. Erb gives the welcoming address, the first of the eight events will begin.

Opening ceremonies start at 1:15, with the first of the relays beginning at 1:30 p.m.

The last minute addition to the meet roster of Vancouver, Washington presents a definite threat to Medford's three-year dominance of the class "A" field.

Large Squad

Bill Bowerman, coach of the Pearpickers and director of this year's meet, and his 24-man squad was the first of 27 prep schools to arrive. Led by Ray Johnson, 440-yard state record holder, the Medford team remained slight favorites to capture their fourth straight title.

Other strong class "A" squads are: Klamath Falls with its strongest team in years, Salem, Bend, and Grants Pass, last year's "B" class winners.

"B" Extras

In the second class, the winner will come from one of the following competing teams: Springfield, Coquille, Hill Military, Cottage Grove, Seaside, Molalla, Beaverton, Chemawa, Junction City, and University high (Eugene).

In the class "C" field are: Monroe, Vernonia, Mowhawk, Creswell and Lowell.

to cut loose on Willamette, in batting practice Thursday. Dick Whitman led the way by slapping a long hit over the right field fence into Eighteenth street.

Making the capitol city trip today are: catchers, Bill Calvert, Bud Walker; pitchers, Igoe, Rieder, and Nick Begleries; infielders, Chuck Clifford, Jack Shimshak, Bill Hamel, Buck Berry, Whitey Austin, and Tini Smith; and outfielders, Bill Carney, Whitman John "Honest Abe" Bubalo, and Hank Burns.

Pi Lambda Thetas Choose Mrs. Saul As New President

Pi Lambda Theta, education honorary, elected new officers at its Tuesday night meeting. Those elected were: Mrs. John Saul, president; Nanette Schmuki, vice-president; Leona Tyler, recording secretary; Ruth Salberg, corresponding secretary; Mrs. W. L. Harrison, keeper of records; and Dorothy Sherman, treasurer.

Mrs. Saul was also elected as delegate to the convention to take place at Excelsior Springs, Missouri. The honorary decided to have a regional conference here next year for chapters in Washington and Oregon.

Frosh Set Vacation

It's a day of rest for the University of Oregon freshman track squad today — while Oregon's prep schools take time out to honor the Oregon varsity track coach, Colonel Bill Hayward, in the annual Hayward relays.

With the ailing and sick men slowly trickling back into the fold, things are looking brighter for Coach Ned Johns and his charges. Veryl Alexander, ailing sprint star, reported Wednesday for workouts and is expected to be ready in plenty of time for the first meet which is April 19. Also on the sick list is Duck Shelton, 440-man, who is expected back soon.

Coach Johns announced that second round of time trials will be held Saturday at 2:30.

Expected to turn in top-flight performances for the Ducklings are Don Wilson, miler; Bob Newland, high jump; Jim Briggs, 440; and Alexander, sprints.

with Baker and Smith, No. 2 and No. 3.

Lanky John Williams, a transfer from Monmouth normal, came up from nowhere to gain No. 4 spot. In at No. 5 is Byron Van Metre, who pounded up the ladder from the No. 10 rung to dislodge Norm Weiner.

Webfoot Nine Faces Willamette Today

With the opening of the northern division baseball race but one week away, Oregon's ball bouncing Ducks move into Salem today for a pre-season tilt with the Willamette university Bearcats.

Tall Bob Rieder will get the call from Acting Coach Anse Cornell to take the mound against the Bearcats. Rieder showed well as a relief pitcher in the encounter with Pacific university and was given the nod for the pitching assignment, his first starting role of the year.

Game Saturday

The two teams meet again Saturday, on Howe field, with Pete Igoe doing the hurling for the Ducks.
