

From The Pulpit

By RUBY JACKSON

Special Easter celebrations have been planned by all Eugene churches, and student groups have arranged services and activities for their members. As an attraction to students, an Easter sunrise service will be held at 6 a.m. in McArthur court.

Baptist

For University students, an Easter breakfast will take place at 8 a.m., with a charge of 40 cents a plate. An Easter candle-light service is planned for 6:15 p.m., with Jack McDaniels and Gerald Bowerly in charge.

Dr. C. L. Trawin will speak at 10:45 a.m. service on "Jesus Christ—God's Answer."

First Christian

"The Seven Last Words of Christ" will be sung by the choir at 7:30 p.m., with Marion Duva, Iris Oakley, and Mark Daniels as soloists.

Hal Young of the music school will sing Curran's "Resurrection" at the 11 a.m. service. Dr. Childers will speak.

Congregational

Les Ready will sing at the 9 and 11 a.m. services, which will be identical. Rev. Williston Wirt will speak on "Are We Creatures of Time, or Made for Eternity?"

Films will be shown by Don Hunter at Plymouth club meeting at 6:30 p.m.

St. Mary's Catholic

Masses will be at 6:30, 9:30, and 10:30. The 10:30 mass will be sung by the choir.

Methodist

Easter Breakfast will be served at Wesley house immediately following the sunrise service. A special Easter service will be given at the Methodist church at 7 p.m., featuring instrumental and quartet music. Murray Adams will lead a discussion on "The Significance of Easter."

Presbyterian

Westminster students are invited to an Easter breakfast after the sunrise service. Following this an hour will be spent singing Easter songs.

At forum meeting at 6:30 p.m., Harlow Hudson of the school of architecture will speak.

St. Mary's Episcopal

Choral services with celebrations of the Holy Eucharist will be at 6:30 and 11 a.m. with Rev. C. S. Bartlam giving the sermon at the 11 o'clock service. At 8 a.m. Rev. H. R. White will administer holy communion.

The student Lenten offerings will be made Easter morning, proceeds of which will help build a library for St. Augustine college for negroes in Carolina, and establish a vacation daily church school.

After the social hour at 5 p.m., students of Canterbury club will take part in a discussion on "What the Resurrection Means to Us," led by Rev. H. R. White.

AFGHANISTAN HEARS ABOUT OREGON'S JUNIOR WEEKEND

The job cut out for these students—the Junior Weekend promotion committee—is that of "telling the world" about the University's greatest annual occasion. Buck Buchwach (with telephone) is pictured conversing with the King of Afghanistan at Kabul about the weekend, with the aid of two secretaries and three interpreters. In the picture are (seated) Betty Jane Biggs (left) and Virginia Bryant. Standing, from left, Ray Schrick, Buchwach, Johnny Kahananui, and Don Swink.

Femmes in Rut, Want Slippers Bunny Style

Kipling said it was, "Boots, boots, tramping over Africa," but in the femme division of the measles mausoleum, sisters-in-the-faith of Mary "Worry Wart" Word say the modern swing version is "slippers, slippers, fuzzy-wuzzy bunny slippers." Definitely in a rut in the mausoleum Congolium. Stir crazy, no doubt.

Confinees influenced by these somnambulist wanderings are: Beth Harader, Edith Borda, JoAnn Supple, Olivia Dysinger, "Worry Wart" Word, Elsie Franz, Bette Petterson, Agnes Barry, Ruth Eckhardt, Maxine Hansen, Jean Stook, Betty Whiteside, Ed Blumenthal, Clinton Childs, John Crawford, Leonard Surles, Ben Wohler, Walt McCormick, Stewart Duncan, and Bill MacGibbon.

Stetson Addresses Spokane Sessions On Education Topics

F. L. Stetson, professor of education, has just returned from a three-day conference of the Northwest Association of Higher Education at Spokane, Washington.

Tuesday afternoon he talked on "The Possibilities of Using a New Criteria in the Evaluation of Higher Institutions." He also addressed a breakfast meeting of Phi Delta Kappa, national education honorary, of which he is national vice-president. His topic was: "The National Council of Phi Delta Kappa."

Dean J. R. Jewell, dean of the school of education; Dr. H. B. Wood, professor of education; and H. W. Bernard, assistant professor of education, will remain until Sunday for the conference of the Inland Empire Curriculum society.

A student mathematician announces there are 305,259 3/4 bricks on the outside of the seminary building at Mt. Angel.

Third Alum Paper Adopts New Name

Third edition of "Portland Alumni Life," official organ of the alumni association, was distributed recently, according to Elmer Fansett, secretary of the association. April's issue is important as it establishes the name of the paper, suggested by Dr. Donald Bird.

Its editorial staff consists of Charles R. Holloway, Jr., editor; Virginia Hartje, Herb Galton, S. Eugene Allen, contributing editors; Malcolm Bauer, sports; Helen Brugman, society. The business manager is Emil Riutta; advertising manager, Faye Wilmot.

Other officers are: Don McCormick, president; Rose Bassler Fenton, vice-president; Lee Luders, secretary; Chester Irelan, treasurer.

Sophomore Violinist Takes First Honors In Women's Contest

Elizabeth Walker, sophomore in music from Milton-Freewater, has won first place in the biennial music contest of the Federated women's clubs of Oregon which was held in Salem last week, it was revealed at the University of Oregon today.

Miss Walker won the honor for her performance on the violin, which she also plays regularly as a member of the University symphony orchestra and University string ensemble. She is a member of Phi Beta, women's music and drama honorary. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Walker of Milton.

Miss Walker will go to Seattle May 2 to compete in the northwest regional conference.

Feel the Security That Only the Church Can Give

Let us pause for a few minutes to reflect upon the great Peace and religious tolerance of today. A little Peace and Love reaches much farther than a thousand wars. Go to church—any church—this Easter Sunday to pray "that this nation under God shall have a new birth of freedom, and that life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness may never perish from the earth."
