

The Passing Parade

By DOC HENRY

Well, here we are again, every-one I hope has recuperated from the strenuous week-end. Last Friday night I attended one of the finest rallies that has been held on the campus. Congratulations to the Order of the O, Joe Gurley and the Jr. Weekend committee, but I still think that Gene Brown takes the cake for tieups.

At exactly 8:20 a.m. Sunday morning after the Easter sunrise services ROY VERNSTROM, Delt, planted his pin on BETTY MAE LIND, and ROY has always been the bachelor of the Oregon campus.

Don Hicks, another Delt, who led their victorious song group goes to the infirmary with the measles after the song contest.

Pat Sutton, Irene Bloomer and Jan (Spam) Spann, Gamma Phi, go bicycling.

Yvonne Torgler, Alpha O, is this column's nomination for the gal that really gets around—Sunday she had a breakfast date with a Phi Psi, tea with an SAE, and then an evening date with a Sigma Nu—whew, quite a strenuous day, I'd say.

One sure sign of spring is the Phi Delt phonograph blaring forth the latest Boogie Woogie from their side of the porch, you can hear it clear over to the library, of course no one goes there anyway during the spring term.

What happened to Don Cawley's Kappa Sig pin Saturday night, his gal would not tell him, and he couldn't find it. We wonder . . .

The Jr. weekend queen and her princesses are apparently well tied up as all of them either have pins or are going steady. E.g., Annabelle Dow and Al Silvernail are going steady; Jean Burt has Jim Carney's Sigma Nu pin; Helen Angell is wearing a Sigma Chi pin donated by Jeff Kitchin; Barbara Todd is going steady with Porky Andrews, and Bobbie Neu has Norm Foster's Delt pin pretty good for a bunch of queens.

The Steers twins, Howdy and Hank, Sigma Nus, seen at the Lemon squeeze, in their first social venture of the year, squiring a couple of beautiful rushees. . . . this social life is great, isn't it, boys???

Joe's Shine (Date) shop was so crowded with fellows trying to get their shoes pretties up that I couldn't even get in to read a magazine Saturday evening . . . almost every body was getting ready for the rushees . . .

Les Steers, Sigma Chi, drops his pin to Marge Hosfeldt, Gamma Phi, nice work, Les.

J. Hervin Collects Insurance Prize

Jason Hervin, Laura Hughes, and Wilbur Osterloh were first, second, and third prize winners in the annual life insurance sales contest concluded in Portland Wednesday, April 2. The Life Managers' association of Oregon awarded the winners a total of $35 in prize money.

The three winners won the right to compete in Portland in a campus preliminary and performed Wednesday noon in the Congress hotel before members of the association.

A staff statistician reports in the Whitworth college Whistle that "there are only three clean saddle ox-fords on the campus and two approximately clean."

LUCKY CBS

Peggy Knudsen was graduated from a mid-west finishing school, but decided on an acting career. She appears in the CBS radio feature, "Woman in White."

International

(Continued from page four) concentration camps, all in the name of ruling class morality.

So far so good, you say, but where does Gene as a potential fascist come in? Right here. Mill says despotism is a legitimate mode of government in dealing with barbarians, provided the end be their improvement and the means justified by actually achieving that end.

No Liberty for Dumb-bells
"Liberty, as a principle, has no application to any state of things anterior to the time when mankind has become capable of being improved by free and equal discussion," writes Mill, continuing, "Until then, there is nothing for them (mankind) but implicit obedience to an Akbar or a Charlemagne, if they are so fortunate as to find one."

Now Gene sends me to Mill for enlightenment, so I assume Gene has read Mill, understood him, and agrees with him. If so, and if he still thinks that "the great masses of human beings are not fit to govern themselves," then it follows that it is all right for an Akbar or a Charlemagne, and by extension even a Hitler or a Stalin to govern them "for their own good."

But if he thinks despotism is a legitimate government for the "stupid masses" of today then Gene is at least a Tory, and if he thinks it is all right for Hitler to govern the "German barbarians" then of course he is a potential fascist. Q.E.D.

Chappel to Speak At Spring Banquet

Bert V. Chappel, department of finance, Portland, has been chosen speaker at the spring term banquet of Beta Gamma Sigma, April 22, at the Eugene hotel. His topic will be "The Day Is Coming."

FRED'S CAMPUS SHOP

Men's Haberdashery
by
Wilson Brothers
Across from Sigma Chi
Cleaning Ph. 3141

In Time With the Tunes

By RUBY JACKSON

Music, as an activity, is giving pleasure for the present and future to a surprising number of students on the campus. Contrary to the opinion of some, music as a hobby is not confined to dull intellectuals. Here's proof.

Thetas Virginia Swearingen, Marge Dibble, and Mary Booth like music and have record collections to prove it. So have Lillian Davis and Barbara Todd, Alpha Chi Os. The Kappa house boasts a "house collection" of records, and Mary Clear supplements that with her own.

Music Library

The Sig Eps possess an excellent music library, according to the Gamma Phis, who say they like to borrow it for firesides. Gamma Phi Mary Earl should be able to help out with her fine group of recorded piano concertos.

In the Chi O house Robin Nelson, Lee English, Harriet Seiple, Laurie Wraith, Nancy Allen, and Peggy Lou Dooxsee all collect music, while Pi Kap Wally Heider is reported to have over 1200 records of all sorts.

Their Favorites

Pat Vandenevnde, Pifi, likes Strauss waltzes, and many of her records give out this lilting music. Don Treadgold's collection is representative of music through the ages. Don Eva likes songs. Ann Reynolds favors works of Tchaikovsky in her collection.

So it goes — with collections that may specialize in anything, but which almost invariably include Tchaikovsky's Fifth symphony. There are countless students who have record collections at home, and still more whose collections I don't know of.

Maybe

Chances are that there is someone in your house who has some good records.

REMEMBER: Alec Templeton Tuesday night, combining the sublime and the ridiculous in a nicely balanced program that should please everyone.

REMEMBER: The Standard Symphony hour Thursday from 8 to 9 p.m. over KORE, with works of Wagner, Beethoven, Weber, and Boridin.

Campus Calendar

Wesley foundation from Corvallis will visit the Eugene group next Sunday. Dr. Branton, of the department of religion, will speak at the meeting.

Order of the "O" will meet Wednesday noon at the Sigma Nu house.

The YMCA frosh commission executive committee meets at 4 o'clock today in the "Y" hut.

Tabard Inn will hold elections Wednesday night at 7:30 in the men's lounge in Gerlinger hall. Important that all members attend.

Gamma Alpha Chi tea at the Alpha Delta Pi house—4 to 4:30 p.m. today.

Amphibian practices this afternoon from 3 to 4 o'clock and 5 to 6 at the women's pool.

Fencing club will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock in Gerlinger.

OREGON DAILY EMERALD

Tuesday Advertising Staff:
Chuck Woodfield, manager
Barbara Schmieding
Paul Morris
Morrie Riback

Night Staff:
Don Butzin, night editor
Ruth Jordan
Bob Frazier
Elsie Brownell
Barbara Lamb
Yvonne Torgler
Fred Timmer

Copy Desk Staff:
Bernard Engel, city editor
Herb Penny, assistant
Marilee Margason
Susan Huffaker
Mary Elizabeth Earl
Ruby Jackson

Believe It or Not
DON'T GUESS
CALL JESS

GODLOVE
The Plumber

31 East 7th Ph. 547

CO-OP ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the members of the University of Oregon Co-operative store will be held in room 105, Commerce building, on Wednesday, April 16, at 4:00 o'clock p.m. All students are invited.

Lloyd Sullivan,
President

Headed for the Best There Is . . .

in any kind of

DAIRY PRODUCTS

- * Milk
- * Butter
- * Cream
- * Eggs
- * Cheese
- * Buttermilk
- * Ice Cream

All Available at the

Medo-Land Creamery
675 Charnelton
Phone 393