Board Chooses Co-op Aspirants For Next Year

Students Will Vote For Directorate At May 8 Elections

One sophomore and two juniors will be elected to the Co-op board May 8 from 12 persons nominated yesterday at a meeting of the Co-op board of directors.

Nominees who will be sophomores next year are: Bill Lilly, Bill Bergtholdt, Jim Bennison, Jim Harrison, John Gleason, and Roger Jayne.

Nominees who will be juniors next year are: John Busterud, Bud Wimberly, Bob McKinney, Les Anderson, Jim Bronson, and Bud Vandeneynde.

Elections to the Co-op board will take place May 8 along with regular ASUO and class elections.

Miller Band Rumor Quelled by Frosh

Official denial of rumors that Glenn Miller's orchestra would play for the Frosh Glee May 24 came last night when Ted Hallock, in charge of music for the Glee, said that Miller was "sewed up" for the month of May.

Hallock declared that he wanted to "quench this rumor" before it grows too prevalent. He said that he was "sorry the rumor had started," but that the Frosh Glee committee was still working to secure a big-name band for the May affair.

Arrangements were being made, Hallock related, through the General Amusement corporation of Los Angeles. Norman K. Doyle, agent of the company, notified the Frosh Glee committee that Miller would start his Northwest tour about June 6.

Hallock said he believed Miller would be in Portland about the middle of June.

And the Dean Smiles

This Friday's Whiskerino will surely be a freak, for 'twill practically eliminate dancing cheek to cheek.

Nautical Royalty Returns Queen to Don Leis

Oregon's Junior Weekend queen and court lassies arrived home last night following christening of The Norwind in time to gain most of a good night's sleep and to change to Hawaiian costumes for greeting a homecoming basketball team today.

Hawaiian-born Queen Annabelle Dow will meet Porky Andrews and team members as they step from their train, following their return to the "continent" from a basketball trip to the islands.

Homer Thomas, sheriff of the bewhiskered sophomore class males, here resigns himself to the worst. The three girls, objecting to the dutiful sheriff's beard, have decided to deprive "Samson" of his power. While Janet Farnham applies the shaving cream, Nancy Riesch stands ready with a maniacal smile and lethal-looking razor. Betty Jane Biggs holds scissors. Bill Rapson, dangerously close, kibitzes.

Whisker Revolution Fights Soph Stubble

The age-old sophomore tradition of beard growing escaped "going on the rocks" yesterday—but it was a close fight all the way.

Heading an organized opposition group composed of Betty Jane Biggs and Janet Farnham, Nancy Riesch directed a "revolt" against bearded plans for Friday night's Whiskerino, and managed to temporarily "hold" Sheriff Homer Thomas, chief law-enforcing agent for the soph affair.

ROTC Inspection Due This Morning

This morning's 9 and 10 o'clock military classes will appear in uniform for inspection by Colonel D. B. Crafton, commander of the ninth corps area ROTC units, according to Colonel R. M. Lyon.

Colonel Crafton is staff officer to General Peake, with offices in San Francisco. He is in charge of administration for the ROTC units in nine western states.

His university inspection is part of a yearly tour of all colleges and universities in this area. Because of a scheduled inspection at OSC, Colonel Crafton will not be present at the regular Thursday afternoon drill.

Rally Assembly To Greet Ducks

Welcome Leis to Ring Tall Firs' Necks At Welcoming Festivities; Erb, Cornell To Speak at Ovations for Homecomers

Webfoots will prepare an Oregon "hello" for the basketball team, winner of four games out of five on the islands, today at an 11 o'clock student body assembly in Gerlinger hall.

Immediately following the short program, the rally committee will lead the way to the railroad station to throw leis of welcome around the necks of the nine-man traveling team and Coach Hobby Hobson.

At the assembly Dr. Donald M. Erb, president of the University, and Anse Cornell, athletic director, will give short addresses before Earle Russell, head yell leader, and his "dukes" take over the assembly.

The Eugene high school chorus under the direction of Glenn Griffith, music supervisor at the high school, will be a special feature of the rally. The University band with its leader John Stehn will also play.

Last Guild Show Reopens Tonight

Final Curtain To Rise on New 'Tovarich' Cast

"Tovarich," final University Guild hall offering of the season, under the direction of Mrs. Ottilie T. Seybolt, reopens tonight for its final run. Jim Parsons plays Prince Mikail and Trudy Harland the Grand Duchess Tatiana.

The play tells of the brave fight of two exiled Russian nobles to save four billion francs entrusted to them by the czar from selfish interests who want the money for their own use.

Parker McNeil, last week's Prince Mikail, plays Soviet Commissar Gorotchenko in tonight's performance. Others in the cast retain last week's roles.

Tickets to Thursday's performance, sponsored by Pi Delta Phi, French honorary, must be exchanged at the University box office in Johnson hall, telephone number extension 216.

In Honor of the Heroes Hop to Fete Hoopmen

Oregon's wandering hoop squad will be welcomed home today at a rally dance in Gerlinger hall from 3:30 to 5:30. Members of Talons, OSC sophomore women's honorary, will also be honor guests.

Final dunking of beardless sophomore men will take place at the dance under the supervision of Sheriff Homer Thomas.

Coach "Hobby" Hobson will describe the Hawaiian trip, and members of the team will be interviewed on what they did in Hawaii.

A short pep rally directed by Oregon yell leaders will cheer the homecoming Ducks. The team

Walker to Talk On Philosophy, Religion Tonight

Visiting Professor Is in Northwest For First Time

Coming directly to Eugene by train from his chair of professor of philosophy and religion at Central college in Fayette, Missouri, Dr. Edwin R. Walker will speak to a University lecture series audience tonight at 7:30 in the faculty room of Friendly hall.

This is the first time that Dr. Walker has been in the Northwest. He says that Oregonians would soon convince him if he didn't already think that the Northwest is a fine place in which to live.

Having received his Ph.D. from the University of Chicago, occupied eight pastorates, and written several articles and book reviews in various publications, Dr. Walker will speak about philosophy of religion in the liberal arts curriculum.

The lecture is open to students and faculty.

SDX Heads Elected

Sigma Delta Chi, national professional journalistic fraternity, Wednesday elected Buck Buchwach president for the coming year, according to Lyle Nelson, present head.

Other officers elected at the meeting included Ken Christianson, vice-president; Ray Schrick, secretary, and Don Butzin, treasurer.

The group also discussed plans for a spring picnic April 27.

Float Plans Due

All houses entering floats in the Junior Weekend canoe fete must turn in theme plans and drawings to Jim Carney by 6 o'clock tonight, it was announced yesterday.

will be serenaded with an Hawaiian song by the Alpha O trio consisting of Penny Mullen, June Marie Wilson, and Yvonne Torgler.

Ray Dickson's orchestra will play for the dance. Dickson's band played for the rally dance after Oregon's football victory, over Oregon State, for the sophomore hop, and for the Order of the "O" dance.

A banquet at the Anchorage will honor members of Talons after the dance.

The dance is a no-date affair. Tickets, which cost 10 cents, are being sold by all living organizations and by members of Kwama and Skull and Dagger.
