

Frosh Bombard Sweet Home, 9 to 5

Simonsen Blazes Way to Duckling Win

By LEE FLATBERG

The bombarding bats of the freshman baseball team lashed out hungrily in the late innings of their game with Sweet Home Tuesday to shove over five runs and put the game in the bag by a 9 to 5 count. While the spectators were taking that seventh inning stretch, the frosh unlimbered their bats and punched across five runs to sew up the game.

'MENTOR'

Gerald "Tex" Oliver, in his fourth year as varsity football coach at Oregon, will wind up spring practice for the Webfoots next week. Oliver has had trouble this spring in getting enough men to hold scrimmages.

The frosh jumped into the lead in the first inning. Dick Burns walked, went to third on Bob Farrow's single and the two trooped across the plate on an error by the Sweet Home shortstop. Bill Gissberg came across with the third run on Kiki Simonsen's single.

Wimer Showered

The Sweet Home team found the range on Al Wimer's slants in the second and third innings and coupled three singles, a triple and two errors to drive across three runs. As preliminary to their seventh inning uprising the frosh grabbed run number four in the sixth on a triple by Simonsen and a single by Gissberg.

The seventh inning affair started peacefully enough when Burns singled and Bob Farrow walked. The Ducklings came to life with men on, and four straight singles aided by two errors shoved across five runs.

Al Wimer gave way to Aaron Jones in the fourth after the Sweet Home team had found Wimer's slants for three runs. Jones had his south paw slants working well and limited the Sweet Home batters to two hits and an unearned run for the remaining innings.

Simonsen grabbed larruping laurels for the frosh with three singles and a hefty triple in five trips to the plate. Gissberg got two safeties in five trips to the plate.

I-M Softball Sked Opens

Intramural softball starts tomorrow with six games scheduled for the opening day of competition. There will be six games played on the three fields five days a week. Three games to be played at 4 o'clock and three at 5 o'clock. The Betas are defending champions and will open their season at 4 o'clock tomorrow against the SAE team.

4 o'clock: sawdust field 1, Betas vs. SAE; sawdust 2, Zeta vs.

Net Squad Off Today For Inland

Coach Paul Washke rounds up his varsity tennis squad shortly after noon today for a swing into the inland empire, as the Webfoots crash into the 1941 northern division net circuit.

With Len Clark, northern division singles titlist at the head of the roster, the Ducks will pull into Moscow in time for a scheduled tiff with the Vandals Thursday afternoon. They desert the Idaho campus tomorrow evening and roll into Pullman, where they exchange strokes with Washington State's Cougars.

Van Metre Places

With Clark on the Webfoot varsity are Kermit Smith, a rangy lad who was ineligible for competition last year; Frank Baker, a stocky, blond youth who hails from Olympia, Washington, and who was king of last year's frosh outfit; lanky Johnny Williams, a transfer from Monmouth college; and Byron Van Metre, who earned a trip by virtue of a drawn-out 6-2, 5-7, 6-3 win over Johnny Kahanani yesterday afternoon.

Not much is known of Idaho's prowess, but the Cougars of Washington State are reputedly the league's dark horses.

Team championship of the circuit isn't decided by any of these dual encounters, but depends on the outcome of the northern division playoffs at the end of the season. Held in Moscow last year, this season the tournament will be staged in Seattle, with the Washington Huskies, last year's winners, playing hosts to the remainder of the teams in the circuit.

Oregon was runners-up in the campaign last season.

UP—UP AND OVER

Les Steers, AAU national high-jump champion, showing some of the form that has tabbed him as the athlete to officially shatter the world's high jump record. Les, with unofficial jumps of seven feet, and who only recently tied with the official indoors record of 6 feet 9 3/4 inches, will be jumping for Oregon against the Huskies this weekend.

UO Trackmen Drill For Husky Fiasco

All thoughts of the Oregon State fiasco were left behind as Colonel Bill Hayward's determined Ducks turned their attention to the dual clash with a potent University of Washington at Seattle Saturday. Oregon will be on an avenging party when they hit the road to the northern metropolis, as last year the Ducks were clawed savagely by the Huskies, 77 to 54. Each club claimed seven first, but Washington superiority in seizing seconds and thirds gave the Seattle cindermen the nod.

Most work this week will be devoted to the track events, these weaknesses sticking out like a sore thumb against the Staters. Only in the mile relay did the Ducks show any spark. All field events proved quite gladdening to the Oregon mentor.

Hec Edmundson's Huskies are reputed to be a handful for any outfit. Recent time trials held in the Seattle camp are indicative of this power.

Huskies Have Stars

Kjell Qvale, brilliant Husky sprinter, marked up a time of :09.9 in the hundred-yard dash, but Hayward heard that he has turned in a much faster record. Last year Qvale clipped off the century in :09.7, while he can also step over the 220-yard distance in short order.

One of Edmundson's sophomore stars, Bob Smith, was clocked in the 220-yard dash at :21.5, while Two-miler Ed Brinkley completed his distance in 9:55.6.

The other Husky times were also above par, though Hayward felt that they were probably "padded" in the usual way, all times being given a bit slower than actually run.

Letterman Ray Dickson turned out last week and is expected to bolster considerably both the broad jump and hurdles departments. Last year Dickson ran both the high and low sticks.

Fijis; military field, Kirkwood vs. Pi Kaps.

At 5 o'clock: sawdust 1, Sig Eps vs. ATO; sawdust 2, Sigma vs. Phi Sigs; military, DU vs. Omega.

'Beef Trust,' Betas Meet In Polo Final

The Kappa Sig powerhouse, and the smooth Beta machine swept through the semifinals of the intramural water polo yesterday in a breeze. The Kappa Sigs dunked the Chi Psi lodge 7 to 2 and the Betas swamped the Sig Eps 6 to 0.

Dick Horne led the 'beef trust' with five goals. Cub Callis also scored twice. The Kappa Sigs scored first, and at the half led 4 to 1. They were never threatened after the first few minutes of play. Al Silvermail scored two goals to lead the Chi Psi offense.

Craig Leads Betas

Led by Johnny Craig the Betas overpowered the Sig Eps 6 to 0. Craig, Jack Dallas, and Chuck Nelson led the Beta attack. Craig tallied three goals, Dallas two and Nelson one. The Sig Eps held the winners to a single goal in the first period but were completely outplayed after the half. The Sig Eps played without the services of their star, Hal Harris.

Tomorrow at 4 o'clock, the Betas and Kappa Sigs clash for the title in the men's pool. It will be Kappa Sig power against Beta finesse.

The Betas have not been scored on yet by any of their opponents, and their smooth attack has swamped all of the opposition so far. The Kappa Sigs have simply powered their way to victory. They play a rough-and-tumble game of give-and-take that has been very successful so far. Jerry Huestis and Jim Manje will referee.
