

The Passing Parade

By DOC HENRY

According to the latest information received from the boys, there is a new organization on the campus, the "ABANDONED BEOUDINS" consisting of Al Silvernail, who was conceded the position of king, and Jeff Kit-chen, Jim Carney, Porky Andrews, and Norm Foster, hold the position of princes in this club. This group was organized in rebellion to the monopolizing of their girls' time by the Junior Weekend committee, the news bureau, and various other clubs and organizations.

They are contemplating picketing the news bureau and are going to have a float in competition to the queen's during the canoe fete; rumor has it that certain parties have been holding meetings at the Three Pines and that their float will be sponsored by that party.

Now for a few choice items that might be of interest:

Keith Claycomb, Campbell co-op plants his shiny new pin on the prexy of Hilyard house, Betty Gregg . . . Steve Worth is running for junior class prexy against the stiff competition of Pat Cloud . . . the junior class will have six representatives in a quiz program Thursday night over KOIN, they are competing against the same number of juniors from OAC . . . Genii Brown, June Tyler, Marge DeBolt, Maurie Stein, Cullen Murphy, and Jack Boone are the contestants. . . .

Jim Rathbun was re-elected prexy of the Order of the O . . . Bob Flavelle is rumored to be, campaign manager for Sam Richardson, whom he is going to run as a dark horse for sophomore prexy, Sam has a wonderful campaign speech in double talk, and promises nobody nothin' . . .

Lillian Ziedell, Hendricks, gives Duke Iverson the TKO (technical kiss-off) . . . Nancy Allen, Chi O, received many long distance phone calls from Tom McKelvie down Marshfield way . . . Les Endicott, Phi Delt, has been more or less monopolizing Gamma Phi's Janie Furrow's time the past weekends . . . Dot Flannery, Alpha O, takes Bob Young's Pi Kap pin, understand that she had to break a lot of dates after the pin planting . . . Len Clark, No. 1 man on the varsity tennis team and Dick Hanen No. 1 man of the varsity divot diggers are alternately dating Jonelle Melvin, Alpha O . . . Ruth Graham, AOPi, recently announced her engagement to Hugh Mercer, a home-town boy, now at Linfield.

Pat Riley, Kappa Sig, drops his pin on Carolyn Holmes, Alpha Chi. . . Understand that the Alpha Chis have a beautiful new pledge, her name, Evelyn O'Brien . . . The Kappa Sigs have a new beach which is somewhere on the north bank of the Willamette, according to Jack Lansing, newly-elected prexy, and they won't tell the exact location . . . Guess I'll have to pull a Jack Bryant stunt and find out . . . Dolores Tobler, Pi Phi, announces her engagement to Walt Walling, Beta from OAC . . .

I want to take this opportunity to give my belated congratulations to the Gamma Phi, song group, who performed so well a couple of weeks ago; I have had several complaints from them because I said something about the Deltas and nothing about them . . . and they claim that they don't want publicity. . . .

board is faculty controlled and not student politically controlled. (3) to assure the board as a whole that I, and I am sure the majority of Oregon students, firmly believe that the board, as in the past, will choose the candidate who is best qualified by experience, dependability and hard work on the publication to be directed and that prejudices of the past will not affect any appointments.

(4) to emphasize that the type of political manipulation being employed this spring is not constructive, but actually destructive to both student publications and student government. It really shows the lack of ability on the part of the bloc heads involved and also their utter disregard of our democratic ideals.

This afternoon four candidates will be interviewed by the Activities board for the position of Emerald editor. I have no idea of making the usual appeal to the bloc heads to use their better judgment, I know too well that that is a useless effort. Instead I am going to give them "my permission" to vote as they had planned. The outcome does not worry me in the least and it should not worry the present applicants, because these three votes are only a small minority of the total vote and their influence is not nearly as great as they try to make themselves and others believe—I know that from experience.

Mrs. Roosevelt will grace our presence on April 30th. And, as is done in the case of all the artists who appear before us, a slight admission will be charged those outside the U. of O. student body. Fine.

But those of the townfolk who have $1.50 and $1.00 to put out for this affair are rewarded with the best seats—those with backs. This brings to mind a question which rankles my mind every time there is the presentation of a "Greater Artist." Is the Greater Artist Series for the benefit of the University of Oregon students or the townfolk, or for both?

According to all information on the subject, the latter is the case. Then why not let us have a crack at those "seats with backs" as well as the townfolks.

No matter to what Spartan principles one subscribes, one's back still becomes "cramped" while observing the "Greater Artists" play their part upon the stage. Why not let those of us with memories of "strained backs" come earlier and nab off some of those "seats with backs"?

Confidentially, as a near-sighted democratic hero-worshipper, I want to be as close as I can to my "First Lady." Will the Spartan or the Athenian principle prevail?

saddest thing is to have them go unread, but that's another story.

So since nobody tempers the wind to the shorn lamb, the general, to coin a bad metaphor, must put on an overcoat and write a little less strongly than he probably believes.

It's Nearly Over

As for the war, it appeared to be nearly over in Greece. The Germans announced that the main Greek army of the north, some 300,000 men, had surrendered and claimed that the British, fighting a rearguard action, were scrambling to escape in all varieties of boats, under heavy air bombardment.

The Greek king and government fled to Crete, but brave radio announcers still held the fort in Athens, broadcasting encouragement to the population and promising to be on the air tomorrow (that's today).

The surrender of all the Greek forces north of Thermopylae was the occasion for speeches praising the dead by Italian, Greek, and German generals. That probably made the corpses feel fine. Any soldiers keeping up the fight after 6 p.m. yesterday would be considered franc tireurs (that's French for a free shooter or guerilla) and liable to summary execution, an Italian communique said. The moral of that is—keep it legal, boys, keep it legal.

canoe fete duties will come under Murphy's jurisdiction, Buck Buchwach, promotion chairman, announced. He will appear with the queen in pre-weekend festivities as well as within the official weekend realm.

Brown stated that chairman of the Junior prom will be announced in tomorrow morning's Emerald with complete committees for the annual weekend dance.

Rathbun Re-elected Order of 'O' Prexy

Jim Rathbun, last year's president, was reelected president of the Order of the "O," lettermen's club, Wednesday.

Other officers are: Elliott Wilson, vice-president; Don Kirsch, secretary; Dick Whitman, treasurer; and Floyd Rhea, Duke Iverson, and Val Culwell, sergeants-at-arms.

The order looks forward to "a big year of campus activities," Rathbun said following his reelection. He said the organization planned to sponsor a dance, all-campus sing, alumni festivities, and a homecoming program. He added that they would again sponsor a "sportsmanship campaign."

It is not true, however, he said, that the lettermen will "enforce traditions" during Junior Weekend, as they did during Homecoming festivities in November.

It Being Spring and All
No explanations are needed to tell any girl about the advantages of wooden shoes, and now come spring, you'll delight in the clogger sandals. They are handmade by Oscar Austad with straps—one across the toes and one over the instep, and rubber soles. The sandals sell for 6.50 at Miller's . . . come in tan, blue, white and red.

Accent on Style
At Hadley's for your selection is a large group of new suits, the highest of high style in your price range. You'll like the tailored and cool appearance of each one, for they are made of the Koata-Kool material. The jackets are saddle stitched and have the new long line. Drop in and see them tomorrow without fail!

Imagine!
Imagine! Twenty-five perfectly beautiful spring formals on sale in the middle of April! And the selection, several silk jeresys and chiffons, some marquisettes and organdies, taffetas, silk crepes, and one starched lace. Seersucker, however, is the yearly favorite that stars in this fashion parade. There is one beautiful coral silk jerseys and white chiffon with wide coral stripes converging on the skirt. Spring colors run rampant from white to deep turquoise. H. Gordon's takes great pride in presenting this opportunity to you with this new low in price ranges.

Hi-Diddle-Diddle-Kids
You'll feel like that when you see the new Luana cloth slacks suit at Beard's. It is another half and half fashion, straight from sunny California in a new color combination of importance. One half of the jacket is a tweedy brown called "Willow" and the other is a pleasant contrasting natural beige. Two slit pockets piped in the opposite color and four slenderizing tucks complete this longer jacket. The trousers are of the same sun baked brown and are man tailored and sleek. This is a Hollywood Premiere fashion at only 6.50.

Floral Fantasies
You'll be all prettied up with the gayest, freshest, most delightful flower fragrance ever to enter the Spring scene when you use Floral Fantasies. It is a Dorothy Gray cologne and has all of the individuality and loveliness you could hope for. At Tiffany-Davis . . . for $1.00 for cologne and dusting powder.
