WHAT TO DO AND WHERE TO GO THIS WEEKEND

By NORMA BAKER

1. Saturday night the Holland is offering a good band, soft music, lights and all.
2. On these spring afternoons why not practice up on your golf game at the Laurelwood.
3. After these weekend social doings Three Trees offers a mid-nite snack that's worth giving a try—
4. Having a party? Better see Ted for those mixers—
5. Warm afternoons offer swell possibilities for canoeing—So hop down to the Anchorage Raceway with "Her."
6. Hickerson's is noted for

- those de-licious Nu-Ways and Bavarian Ice Cream—Curb Service.
7. Remember the shows that offer everything from a western to a mystery thriller—with romance and afterwards drop in on the Lemon O for a double dip cone or coke—they hit the spot—
8. Ever tried Chiaramonte's for meals? They serve dinners that remind one of home.
9. Oakway's course is in tip-top condition—so pack your clubs in your car and whip out—
10. Thirsty? Hungry? Anchorage offers suggestions that fit the palate.

Frivolity To Reign In Mock Canoe Fete

Plans have been nearly completed for the mock canoe fete "Stars Fell on Ali Baba" according to Bob Whitely, fete chairman.

"We already have seven floats entered," Whitely declared, "and this year the carousal is really going to mock the 'Arabian Nights' theme of the main canoe fete."

Word has been definitely received that Princess Belshazzar of Oran will be on hand May 9 to act as official guest of honor at the fete, according to Whitely.

Late Entrants

Latest entrant in the burlesque fete allegedly is "Aladdin and His Magic Lamp," by the Sigma Kappas and the DUs. Not to be left out, H. H. Hanna's Spanish athletic club has filed intentions of entering a float on their own, which promises to be breath-taking.

Floats now entered include: "Sinbad the Sailor," "Ali Baba and the 40 Thieves," "Persian Slave Market," "Desert Oasis," "Aladdin and His Magic Lamp," and of course the law school barge and that of the Spanish athletes.

All houses have started building plans, and should have the bases finished by next week. The afternoon's fun will be completed with log-rolling and canoe tilting. Whitely added, and we are now dickering with Joe Gurley and John Cavanagh to hold a special exhibition of log-rolling.

Slave Auction Planned

In connection with the fete, plans are reportedly being formulated to hold a gigantic slave auction in front of the Side next week under the guidance of Charlie Weisberg.

When approached as to the nature of the auction, all Weisberg would reveal was that, "It will be an eyeopener."
