Games yesterday: Washington State 9, at Oregon State 2; at Washington 4, Idaho 3.

By TOMMY WRIGHT

Buck Bailey, a show in himself, and his Washington State Cougar baseball team roll out onto Howe field this afternoon at 3 o'clock for the first of the two-game series.

Boasted as a strong contender for the conference championship after a great pre-season record, the Cougars come to Eugene after completing two-thirds of a disastrous road trip which saw them drop two games to the University of Washington. They split on the two-game series with Oregon State college by taking the second encounter 9 to 2 Tuesday.

Igoe Slated

Webfoot Coach Hobby Hobson would not name his starting hurler for the Cougar encounter, but hinted that it might be Pete Igoe, who has two conference victories to his credit already in the young season.

The starting assignment at shortstop position will probably not be known until game time, with either Tini Smith or Bill Hamel getting the nod.

Cougar Mentor Bailey, long-known locally for his temperament-inspired antics on the diamond, will probably start Bill Sewell against the hard-hitting Ducks.

Heavy Hitters Line Up

Oregon's "murderers' row" will probably line up on the diamond with Billy Calvert doing the catching; Chuck Clifford at first base; Don Kirsch at second, Buck Berry at third, Hamel or Smith at short, and Dick Whitman, Bill Carney, and Johnny Bubalo at the outfield posts.

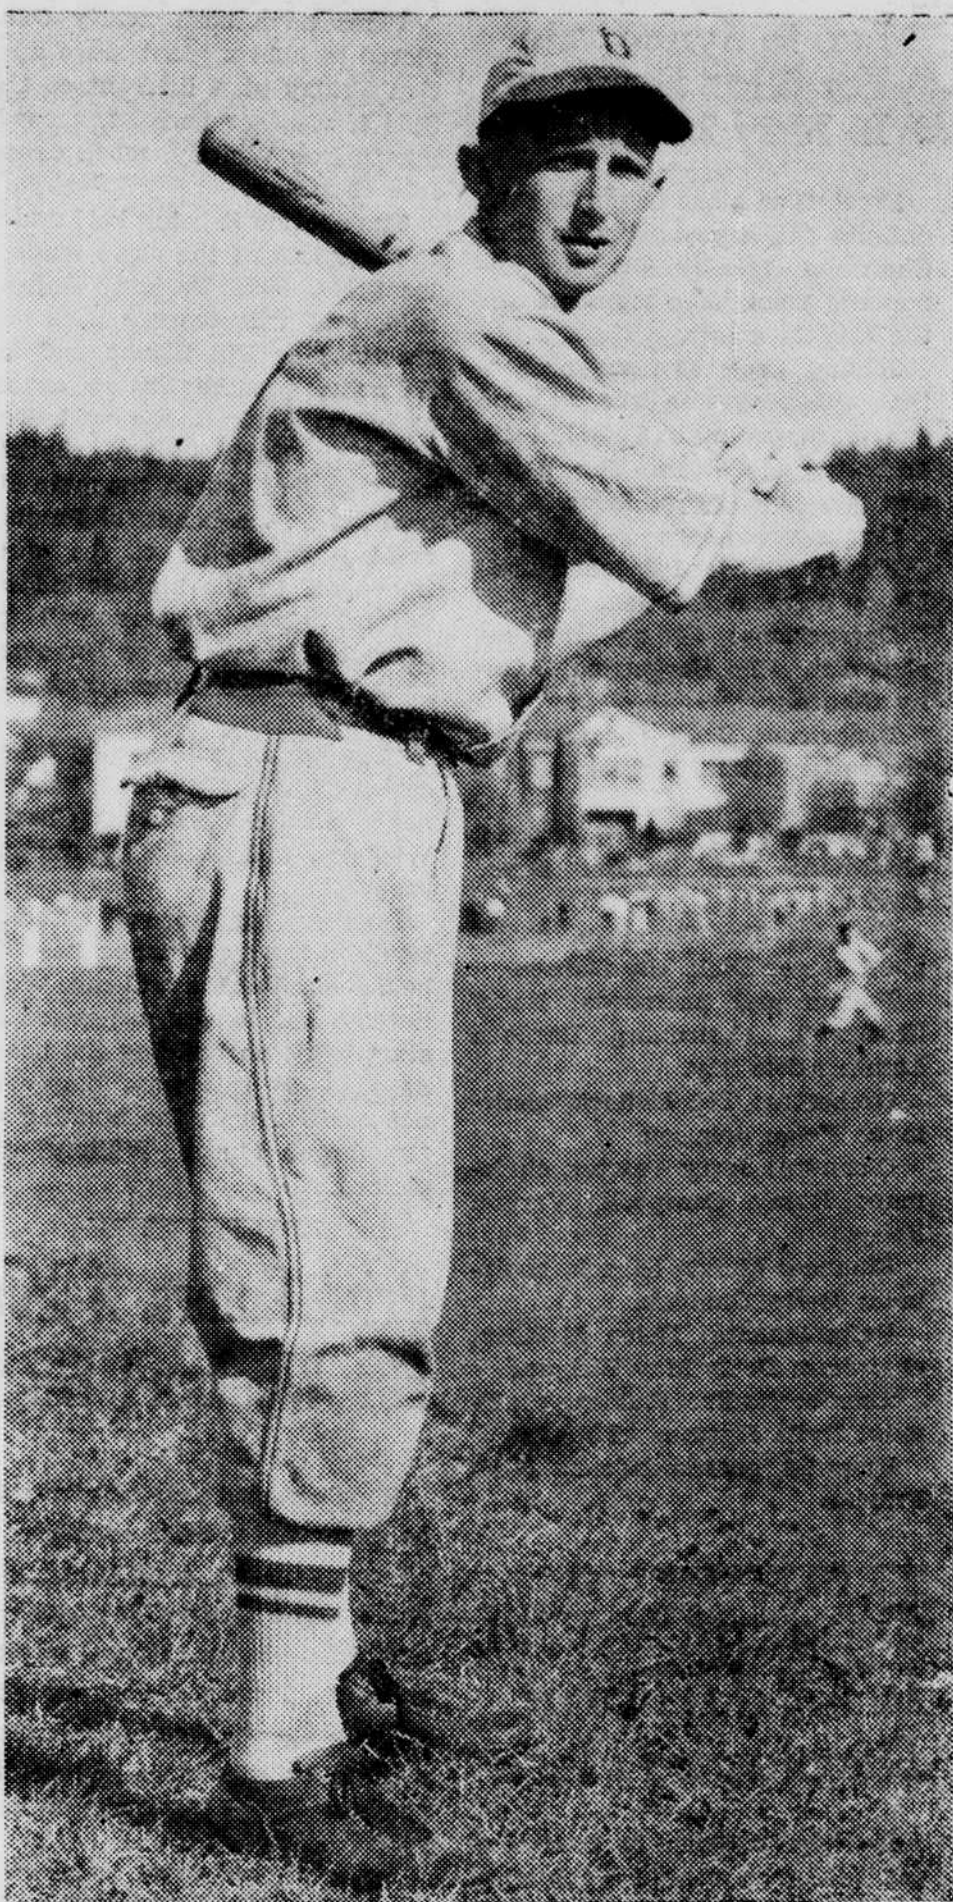

The two teams meet again tomorrow, with the game being called for 1:30, to allow the traveling Cougars time to catch the train.

WSC, UW Grab Tilts

Oregon State's title drive for the northern division baseball crown was slowed to a walk yesterday when the big bats of the Washington State Cougars slammed four Orange Pitchers, for a 9 to 2 victory. Shaw, Olmstead, Farthing and Rankin all suffered under the Cougars' hitting onslaught. Van Slyke was the winning pitcher.

Idaho's luckless Vandals were eased into the loser's column, 4 to 3, by Washington's Huskies. Bushman, Husky twirler, bested Bectol of Idaho in a pitchers' duel.

TAKES A HEALTHY CUT

Dick Whitman, Oregon baseball captain, will lead his "heaviest slugging" mates today against Washington State's highly regarded nine. Whitman is batting .381 at present. Washington State took two blows on the chin from Washington last week.

Silverton Dings Frosh; UO Nine Faces Eugene

The Oregon freshman baseball team booted one away at Silverton Tuesday as the infield turned butter-fingers on seven tries to give the Silverton nine a score of unearned runs and a 7 to 4 victory.

The Oregon freshman baseball team meets the Eugene Athletic ball club at civic stadium tonight at 8 o'clock.

The yearling pitchers had little trouble muffling the bats of the home town boys as Aaron Jones set the batters down with three hits in his three innings and Bill Gissberg kept the Silverton batters swinging wildly as he limited them to two hits in the last six innings.

Infield Collapses

It was the sudden cave-in of the infield in the early innings that carved out the defeat for the yearlings. After Gissberg took over the fourth, the infield stopped making their errors in crucial places and the gangling first baseman set the opposing batters down with but two runs for the rest of the game.

The Ducklings threatened in the eighth on a double by Dick Burns followed by a single by Bob Ballard, and then another double by Gissburg but the threat died out with but one run. They added their final two in the ninth on two walks, an error and a single.

Gissberg Gets Dougle

Bob Ballard and Gissberg paced the frosh hitters with two hits each in four tries. Gissberg collected a double for one of his two hits.

Summary:

Frosh	010	000	012-4 8 8
Silverton	420	100	00*-7 5 2

Jones, Gissberg and Oswald; Hildagedor and Burr.

Churchman to Talk On Science May 1

University students and townspeople are invited to hear Dr. Hendrik J. de Lange, member of the Christian Science board of lecturership of Boston, Mass., speak Thursday, May 1, in Roosevelt junior high school at 8 p.m.

Dr. de Lange will speak on "Christian Science: The Science of Existence." He is sponsored by the University group of the Christian Science organization, which meets every Tuesday evening in Gerlinger hall.

Sig Ep Hurler Flings One-Hitter in IM Ball

By ART LITCHMAN

Porky Andrews tossed a one-hitter yesterday to contribute another pitching gem to the intramural softball records. Andrews led the Sig Eps to an easy, 4 to 0, victory over Omega hall.

The Sig Eps scored one run in the third and two in the fourth on a combination of hits, walks, and a pair of errors in the outfield. Two hits in the fifth brought home the last tally for the winners.

Late inning rallies by the Canard club failed to overcome an early Delt lead and the Delt won their second straight ball game of the season, 7 to 5. One run in the first gave the Delt an early lead that was increased by a three-run outburst in the fourth. Canard broke into the scoring column in the fifth with two runs.

Sherry Ross banged out a 7 to 4 victory over the Phi Psis in an abbreviated contest. The hallmen roared into an early lead with four runs in the first frame. Don Richardson and Barney Franks led the attack.

Phi Delt staged a comeback in the last three innings to overtake the Alder club and then went on to win, 5 to 3. The clubmen ran up a three-run lead by banging the offerings of Paul Jackson hard and often. One run in each of the last two frames cinched the game for the Phi Delt.

The hapless Sammies took another drubbing, this time from the Sigma Chis, 12 to 2. Sigma Chi sluggers kept the Sammie outfielders chasing the ball in every inning.

DUs Slug

DU batters outlasted the Phi Sigs in a slugfest, 9 to 7. Five runs in the first gave the DUs a lead that was never seriously threatened.

16 Thinclads Off to Salem

Ned Johns and his frosh cinder shock troops leave for the front lines for a skirmish with Vern Gilmore's Salem Vikings on the Salem battle field at 1:30.

The frosh will be gunning for their second win of the current season, and from information gleaned from dispatches from the Salem sector, the frosh will have a busy time. The Vikings' latest achievement is the defense of their No-Nam track title. Strongest events of the preppers are the hurdles, broad jump, and sprints.

"We expect to do pretty good—in fact we're going up there to win," were Frosh Coach Johns' last words—before the battle.

Men who are to make the trip

With four days of practice left in the spring session, Coach Tex Oliver yesterday divided his men into two strongly balanced squads to do battle in the big annual scrimmage marking the end of spring training next Saturday afternoon.

The first team in green jerseys form the nucleus of one squad with Hymie Harris as their captain, and big Elliot Wilson leads the opposing faction of blue shirts. The two captains chose men from the third team to serve as reserves.

A serious blow to the green strength occurred in yesterday's scrimmage when Tommy Eoblin came out with an injured shoulder.

Track and baseball together with injuries have reduced the squad to a little over 40 men.

The latter part of the practice session has been devoted to the perfection of a quick-striking "T" formation assault similar to the Stanford offense, which will receive its test under fire in the Saturday battle.

With a lay-off this afternoon, one practice day will be carried over into next week when a news-reel photographer will arrive to take some shots of the Oregon team in spring training.

Illustrator Coming

Miss Clarice Ashworth, state system illustrator, will be on the University campus Wednesday, afternoon. Faculty members who wish to consult her may make appointments by calling the University editor's office (campus 319).
