

Ducks Clip Cougars Again, 5 to 4

Crish's Hit Breaks 10th Inning Deadlock, Buck Bailey's Heart

By TOMMY WRIGHT

Buck Bailey headed back for the Palouse country Thursday, a sad and hoarse old man, after watching his Washington State Cougar diamonders drop their second heart-breaking baseball game to the hard-hitting Webfoots, 5 to 4.

It was Tony Crish's long single to left, scoring Don Kirsch, in the tenth inning that broke a 4 to 4 tie, to give the Ducks their fourth straight, and fifth win of the season.

Little Nick Begleries, who started on the mound for Oregon, held the Cougars to two runs in the first eight frames while his teammates were sending in four tallies, but he couldn't stop them in the ninth and they pushed in two more scores to tie the count.

Oregon scored its first run on a walk and a single in the first. It was Kirsch scoring the first of his four runs for the game. He scored again in the third on Whitman's triple to left. Carney picked up the second of the Webfoots' five runs on Hamel's single through second.

Bushman replaced Washington State starting hurler Max Strait and retired the next 14 men in order. He struck out eight, while allowing only four hits in the eight innings he worked.

Butts Hits Homer

Vern Butts slammed a home run against the bank in center field for the Cougars only other run.

Bill Sewell, Washington State first baseman, led all hitters with 3 hits in four official trips to the plate. Kirsch and Crish each got two for three to lead the Oregon batters.

Frosh Nine Meets Prep Team Today

Continuing a busy weekend of baseball, the yearling nine will play hosts to the Eugene high club on Howe field this afternoon at 3:30.

The frosh club lost a close six-inning affair to the "leftovers" from the varsity after the WSC-Varsity game Thursday, 6 to 5.

The slants of Pete Igoe, that proved mystifying to the WSC boys for one inning, were not so confusing to the yearlings as they grabbed two runs off the varsity pitcher in the first inning. Bud Walker took over mound duties for the rest of the game and gave up six hits and five runs for the rest of the contest.

Wimer in Trouble

Al Wimer handled pitching duties for the frosh and limited the varsity to five hits. Wimer ran into trouble in the first inning when the varsity turned three singles, an error and a walk into five runs.

The deciding run for the "big boys" came in the third on a double by Karterman that ended up in a circuit blow when the frosh handled the ball badly.

Jack Shimshak got two hits in three trips and Dick Burns hit safely twice in four tries.

Aaron Jones or Bill Gissberg will probably get the starting role on the mound for the frosh tomorrow. In the infield it will be Gissberg, Bill Bishop, Bob Farrow, and Ed Crane. In the outfield, Bob Ballard, Dick Burns, and Jimmie Vittti will take over.

Sport Activity Heads 'Weekend' Program

Oregon fans will grope through that Arabian haze for a time Saturday afternoon, May 10, and goad Duck athletes on during the flareup of one of the "most concentrated" sports programs the campus has ever seen. It'll be a virtual four-ring athletic carnival—track, golf, tennis, and baseball—announced Bill Carney, head man of junior weekend sporting events.

Coach Bill Hayward and Captain Ehle Reber will harness the Duck track team up for a gallop with Oregon State's Beavers over the Hayward cinders. World - high - jump - record - holder Les Steers will be herding together his quota of points for the Webfoots in the 120-yard high hurdles, the javelin, shot put, and his favorite event.

Frosh Track

Sandwiched in between running of the varsity events will be duals pitting Coach Ned Johns' frosh cindermen against a horde of Baby Beavers from Corvallis.

Up at the Eugene Country club Duck golfers trudge over the greens with Oregon State swingers, while frosh divot diggers tee off and match strokes with a bunch of rooks and Salem high lads over the Laurelwood course.

All the way from Seattle will trek Washington netsters to exchange drives, smashes, and lobs over the University nets with Coach Paul Washke, Len Clark, and company of Oregon. Over on Howe field John Warren will direct his freshman baseballers in a skirmish with the Oregon State rooks.
