The Passing Parade

By CORINE LAMON

Surveying the number of fraternity pins in each women's living organization we have attempted to roughly outline the date-rating of the various houses. Here are the results: Theta and Alpha Phi top the list with 23 pins apiece-four Phis have given pins apiece-four Phis have given ... next comes Delta Gamma with 19 pins and three returns . . . Susie girls can cha'k up 18 . . . Kappaz have 14 pins and have given three back . . . ADPis tie with 14 pins, but none have gone back . . . Gamma Phis and Pi Phis each have 12 pins, with Gammafis returning 2 and Pifi 3 . . . Alpha Chis have ten pieces of hardware, and have given five others back . . . AOPi and Alpha Gam are neck - and - neck with eight pins and one return apiece . . . Hendricks girls have seven, gave one back . . . Chi Omega takes the prize when it comes to returns - they've taken five and given four others back . . . Alpha Xi Delta has five pins . . . Tri Delt has three ... and ZTA has one . . . and that takes care of a lot of the kind of jewelry that doesn't turn green in the spring hereabouts . . this survey doesn't include steadies.

And now for miscel'aneous: Olivia Dysinger and Porter Jennings are being married in the Phi Sig house today . . . Margaret Childs, ADPi, received an ATO pin from California in the morning mail . . . and Alphi Chi Billie Christenson took Larry Quille, ex-Delt president, to her house dance-he's stopping off here on his way to Wake Island . . .

Amusing but confusing: Joan Planteen and Chuck Mallory alternately staging a battle of wits and billing and cooing. . . . Why do they call Nancy Ames "Champ"? . . . Stew Randall, Fiji, coming up from San Francisco for Junior Weekend - does Leone LaDuke have anything to do with it?? . . . Wini Green is still getting letters from Boston and Dave Silver. . . .

We predict: Willow Coffin, Hendricks, will be wearing one Chi Psi sweetheart pin come tomorrow . . . Chi O Lee English has Bob Wook's U. of Washington Pi Kap pin. . . Rokie Rodman dating Dolores Davidson A LOT . . . likewise Pete Sales and Roberta Lemon . . .

First of Oreganas Arrive on Campus

The first shipment of the new 1941 Oreganas was delivered to the activities office Thursday, it was announced by George Root, educational activities manager. Three hundred fifty copies of the yearbook were included in the shipment.

Oreganas will continue to arrive during the rest of the week, according to Mr. Root, and they expect to have 2,000 on hand next Thursday when distribution begins.

Librarians Meet

Members of the University library staff traveled to Corvallis Wednesday to attend a district meeting of Oregon librarians. Those making the trip include Willis Warren, periodicals librarian and executive assistant, Miss Ella Carrick, and Miss Miriam Yoder, senior cataloging assistants.

Nice Spice Promised For Big Slave Sale

"Because the Will Hayes office refused to okay our plans at the last moment, the giant slave auction scheduled for today will be postponed until Wednesday afternoon at 4," stated Bob Whitely, mock canoe fete chairman.

"We will work the costumes over so that there won't be a riot," Whitely added, "and we will proceed with the slave auction Wednesday afternoon in front of the Side.

"Jack Boone has been practicing a new composition 'Slumming With Sinbad,' and Ted Hallock is coming out with a new drumboogie solo. Bill Bishop and Ed Zelinsky are preparing an exhibition of sleight of hand tricks that will put the 'Great Virgil' to shame."

Drama Class Plans New Broadway Hit

For the first time in recent years University and Eugene audiences will have the opportunity of seeing a brand-new Broadway comedy hit when "George Washington Slept Here," latest Kaufman-Hart play is presented in Guild hall May 16, 17, and 20.

The wires were kept hot for several days with messages from the University drama division to the New York publishers of the play when Drama Instructor Horace W. Robinson's junior acting class decided to give that as its spring show.

A first-rate hit like "George Washington Slept Here," which has just completed a long run on Broadway, is not usually released for non-professional production.

After the show has closed, its presentation is permitted in certain parts of the country, but sometimes as much as a year passes before general production

Dr. Smith Speaks At Fortnightly Club

Dr. Warren D. Smith, head of the geology and geography departments, was guest speaker at a meeting of the Eugene Fortnightly club Thursday afternoon.

Shown in connection with his talk on South America were Kodachrome pictures loaned by Bert Roberts, president of the Portland Rotary club. Several advanced Spanish students from the University also attended the meeting.

Coming Films Finish Series

Show Will Feature World War Show: Jolson; Cartoon

The last program in the curent series of the film revivals will be shown students in the Chapman hall theater room next Wednesday afternoon and evening. Composed of three famous movies of a past decade, the movies will be free to all students upon presentation of their educational activities cards.

"All Quiet on the Western Front," immortal among war pictures, will be featured along with "The Jazz Singer," starring Al Jolson, and "Steamboat Willie," a Mickey Mouse cartoon.

"The Jazz Singer" is described as being remarkable, not because it was well done, but because it was done at all. It represents one of the first attempts to include a singing voice as part of a film. In the picture Al Jolson makes his first rendition of the song always associated with him, "Mam-

A beautiful, sensitively directed portrayal of the horrors of the last World war, "All Quiet on the Western Front," is still a great film. Harrowing as the subject matter seemed in 1930, it has not become less poignant in later years and at present it creates as much emotional strain as most audiences care to undergo.

Alumni Consolidate Plans for Reunion

University alumni classes have recently formulated plans in connection with their reunion, stated Old Oregon Editor Roy Vern-

Visiting during Junior Weekend, commencement celebration June 7 and 8, and other class activities has been put in consolidated form, and alumni have been informed so they may work together.

'Big Name' Rumor Spiked; Oh, Shaw!

The Junior Prom was sabotaged!

Art Holman will play for the annual big dance-not, as rumored, Artie Shaw.

A story spread across the campus last night that the "big name" orchestra would appear.

Investigation revealed that the false story started from a handbill printed as a class assignment by some imaginative publishing student. The bill read: "EXTRA-Artie Shaw will play for the JUNIOR PROM."

Jack Saltzman, Prom chairman, promptly issued a denial: "Holman will play for the dance, not Shaw. Only correct part of the rumor is in the orchestra leader's first name. The maestro will be 'Artie'."
