

Duck Hitters Slate Pilot Nine Today

Johnny Bubalo Gets Pitching Assignment For Howe Field Tilt

It will be a sunny day today, or so says the weather man, so the 'all clear signal' was called on the scheduled Oregon-University of Portland baseball game.

Game time is 3 o'clock and the place is Howe field.

Coach Howard "Hobby" Hobson found enough clear sky yesterday to give his Webfoot proteges a light workout. Hobson spent much of the practice session coaching the infielders, speeding up their throws to first, and playing positions correctly.

Batting Eyes Still Good

After the warmup the "regulars" tangled with the "Yannigans" in a practice tilt, with the first team walloping hit after hit off the reserve pitching staff.

It will be the first encounter with the Portland Pilots for the hard-hitting Webfoots. Two pre-season games were rained out.

Johnny Bubalo, strong armed right fielder, who has already played every position on the baseball nine, was named by Hobson to start the game on the mound against the Pilots. Bubalo set the Eugene Athletics down in 1-2-3 fashion in the rain-halted game last Saturday night.

Tony Crish, power hitting utility man on the Webfoot squad, will start the game at first base in place of Chuck Clifford who is still nursing a spike wound received in the Washington-State series.

Burns in Outfield

The rest of Oregon's "murderer's row" will probably line up in the following fashion. Billy Calvert behind the plate. Speedy Don Kirsch will start at second base. Buck Berry gets the nod for the starting position at third, with Bill Hamel opening at shortstop. In the outfield Bill Carney, Dick Whitman and Hank Burns will line up in that order.

Frosh Grid For Rook Tracksters

By Wally Hunter

While the Oregon State baby Beaver has been glutting itself with pride and satisfaction over its relay victory over the frosh of Oregon, the Ducklings have been busy salving their wounds with victories over prominent prep track teams. The frosh are once more ready to sally forth in quest of a pelt from Beaverland in their dual meet with the Orangemen Saturday, May 10.

State publicity heads yesterday sent a squad list of 26 men to Frosh Coach Ned Johns. The Rook list contains such ex-prep track stars as Marvin Wilt, dash man; Bill Shinn, half-miler; Bob Fischer, miler, and Sherwood Frakes, pole vaulter. Wilt, Shinn, and Frakes all starred in the state prep meet last year. Fischer was runner-up last year in the Portland all-city, a step behind the winner. He reputedly has times close to 4.27 in the grind.

Boe's Turnout Helps

An off the record statement of Coach Ned Johns while scanning the rook entries was, "We'll have to be lucky to wax those guys."

With the weather losing its disgruntled attitude, conditions for the meet should be ideal for the first year men to turn in some sparkling times.

A very welcome addition to the dash department came to the frosh in the form of Inky Boe, who has been working out since the completion of football. This gives the Ducklings a double-barreled charge in the hundred.

same score before the latter turned back to Eugene. Last Saturday Oregon smeared Oregon State after about a week's layoff.

Higher Education Board Schedules Tuesday Meeting

A special meeting of the Oregon state board of higher education will be held in Portland Tuesday, May 13, Chancellor Frederick M. Hunter announced Wednesday. The April meeting was postponed in order to give the six institutional units time to prepare their annual budgets.

The finance committee, made up of Chairman E. C. Sammons of Portland, Mac Hoke of Pendleton, and Edgar Smith of Portland, will meet Monday to give considerations to budgets submitted. The insurance and curriculum committees will also hold brief meetings on Monday.

The buildings committee, including Beatrice Walton Sackett of Marshfield, acting chairman, and Robert Ruhl, Medford, will meet Sunday afternoon at Corvallis to inspect the newly-completed wing of the Oregon State college library. The new unit, which cost approximately $130,000, was financed entirely from resources of the student building fee.

Museum Schedule

To accommodate Junior Weekend visitors, the museum of natural history in Condon hall will be open Saturday afternoon from 2 to 4 p.m., and Sunday from 2 to 5 p.m.

Ben Carpenter of the American Red Cross, will instruct the water safety instructor course at 7 p.m. Monday in the women's pool, Gerlinger.

Jackson Tosses Perfect Game in I-M Softball Tilt; Kappa Sigs Swamp Alpha

By ART LITCHMAN

P. J. Jackson pitched the third no-hit, no-run game of the season yesterday as the Phi Delt dumped Sherry Ross, 3 to 0. The Sherry Ross batters couldn't hit Jackson's "nothing" ball solidly and he coasted in behind the perfect support of his teammates.

All of the Phi Delt runs were unearned. The Sherry Ross infield fell apart in the clinches and let two runs score after two were out by erratic fielding and throwing. Dud Church, Sherry Ross hurler, pitched good ball in the pinches but his mate's miscues and the inability to hit Jackson cost him the game.

Kappa Sigs Slaughter Alpha

The "beeftrust's" booming bats banged out a barrage of hits as the Kappa Sigs swamped Alpha hall, 16 to 3, in a runaway tilt. The entire Kappa Sig squad played yesterday including "Granny" Autzen, stellar infielder. Bob Engelke, Kappa Sig pitcher, retired after the game was on ice and the hallmen rallied to push across their three runs.

A home run over the center-fielder's head with one man aboard in the fifth inning enabled Canard club to nose out Chi Psi, 4 to 2. Canard forged ahead in the first when poor fielding allowed two runs to tally. Chi Psi tied the score in the fourth but they couldn't match the final rally.

Phi Psi won their first ball game of the season yesterday when they dumped the Sammies, 11 to 2, in a loosely played game.

Omega Trims Sigma

Omega hall overcame an early Sigma lead and went on to win, 5 to 1. Three runs in the third cinched the game for Omega.

Two wild scoring innings gave the Sigma Chis enough runs to win from the Alder club, 7 to 4. The clubmen scored three runs in the first, but a five-run blast by the Sigma Chis in the same inning put the game on ice.
