

Phi Beta Kappa Awards Keys To 12 'Brains'

Delzell, Treadgold Make Top Honors In GPA Selections

Spring elections to Phi Beta Kappa, national scholastic honorary society, were held Monday, May 12. Twelve students were deemed outstanding enough in scholarship and activities to wear the Phi Beta "key."

Those who will be initiated into the society are: Charles Delzell, history; Wallace White, business administration; Orva Aebi, education; Edith Oglesby, journalism; Marion Narvis, journalism; Lucy Edwards, English; Eunice Edwards, psychology; Genevieve Treadgold, business administration; Laretta Crocker, English; Janet Goresky, German; Norma Johnson, business administration; Mary Godfrey, German.

Delzell Tops

Top honors for GPA cumulative go to Charles Delzell, who has averaged 3.96 for the last five terms, and 3.76 during the entire time he has been in school.

To Donald Treadgold, top sophomore student on the cumulative GPA list to date, was awarded Phi Beta Kappa's prize of $25 in books. Treadgold is a social science major.

Banquet Set

Initiation and banquet have been set for Saturday, May 24. Professor George E. Taylor, head of the department of oriental studies at the University of Washington, will be the speaker. His topic is "The Crisis in American Policy in the Orient." The remainder of the program will be announced later.

The Senior Six, elected fall term to Phi Beta Kappa include Benson Mates, Jack Powers, Aida Brun, Ray Hewitt, Nanette Schmuki, and Florence Kinney.

Jim Frost Outlines Platform Over Radio

Jim Frost, candidate for ASUO president, outlined briefly the main planks in his platform last night in a five-minute radio speech over station KORE.

Frost went on record favoring a merit system for campus appointments and advocating an amendment to the constitution stipulating it.

Student union plans and selection of the site should be hurried to completion, Frost said, with students given a deciding vote in its location.

Len Clark introduced the "dark horse" of today's election.

PiKAs Receive Jilt From Gods Of Float Power

No shivering freshmen slithered into the water Saturday to guide canoe fete floats past the grandstands, but behind the scenes swimmers still were needed. Behind the water screen were 10 Pi Kappa Alpha frosh having a wet time of it bringing floats down to the end of the greased rope to be hooked on.

Float after float the boys brought down the millrace and float after float glided past the audience in Arabian beauty. Then came the moment when their own float, the Pi Kaps' pride, would begin its voyage.

The float was a huge giant 15 feet high leaning on a castle 10 feet high. The giant would just go under the top of the water screen.

It went under—and so did the rest of the float as the whole structure toppled over and fell into the mill-race.

Sophomores

Candidates for sophomore positions are: Roger Dick, Chuck Woodruff, and Oglesby Young.

The name of Janet Farnham, candidate for junior position, will appear on the ballot, although she declared last night she had withdrawn.

Illinois to Fete President Erb

Oregon Chieftain Will Receive Title 'Honored Alumnus'

Dr. Erb will be named "honored alumnus of the University of Illinois college of commerce and business administration, at a ceremony to be held in Urbana May 15, it was announced here today, on receipt of a letter from Charles M. Thompson, dean of the college.

Last year the custom of honoring distinguished alumni was begun, when three names, Lawrence F. Larson, '03, Carl R. Gray, Jr., '11, and Harold Boeschstein, '20, were put on a plaque. The college now has more than 17,000 alumni.

The persons so honored are given testimonials signed by students and faculty. Dean Thompson has invited President Erb to be present in person to receive the honor, but it is doubtful if he will be able to attend.

Dr. Erb graduated from the University of Illinois in 1922.

To Vote

Mark your choices with numbers only. (Do not use X marks). Put the figure (1) in the square opposite the name of your first candidate.

Put the figure (2) opposite the name of your second choice, the figure (3) opposite the name of your third choice, the figure (4) opposite the name of your fourth choice, and so on until the whole number of names have been marked in the order of your preference. You may express as many choices as you please.

Do not put the same number opposite more than one name.

If you tear or deface or wrongly mark the ballot, return it and obtain another one.

You cannot injure the chances of those you prefer by marking lower choices for others. The more choices you express, the surer you are to make your ballot count for one of them, but do not feel obliged to express more choices than you really have.

Gallery to Present Exhibit Thursday

Divided into three main groups—still life, portraits, and landscapes, and exhibition entitled Twenty Twentieth Century Paintings, brought to the University through the educational activities board, will be put on display in the little gallery of the Art building, Thursday.

Most of the important movements in Twentieth Century painting are illustrated—impressionism, various forms of expressionism, cubism, and abstract art as well as surrealism and some examples of work of the untaught artist.

Among the American and European artists included in the exhibition are: Bonnard, Braque, Brook, Derain, Dickinson, Dix, Ernst, Gris, Kantor, Kopman, Modigliani, Roy, Soutine, Spencer, Tanguy, Utrillo, Vivin, Vlaminck, and Weber.

KKG, Phi Delts Win

Kappa Kappa Gamma and Phi Delta Theta won the silver trophy for the best float in the mock canoe fete Friday afternoon with their interpretation of Desert Oasis.
