Igoe Limits WSC To Four Bingles

Clifford Leads Webfoot Batting Attack With Triple and Two Singles; Oregon's Defensive Play Sparkles

By DON KIRSCH

WASHINGTON STATE COLLEGE, Pullman, May 14—(Special to Emerald)—Oregon's ball-smashing nine moved one game nearer the Northern division pennant here today as Pete Igoe, veteran Webfoot righthander, pitched 4-hit shutout ball to win 9 to 0 from the hapless Washington State Cougars.

Combining an 11-hit attack with eight Cougar misplays, the Ducks scored first in the second inning, while Igoe held the Baileyites in close check.

Chuck Clifford and Johnny Bubalo led the Webfoot bombardment on starting Cougar hurler Hank Bushman, and Lefty Chambers. Clifford slammed out three hits in four trips to the plate, one of them a long triple to right-centerfield. Bubalo hit a triple far over the leftfielder's head for Oregon's only other extra-base blow.

Heavy Hitters

Oregon's heavy scoring came in the second, third, and the ninth innings on the heavy hitting of Carney, Bubalo, Clifford, and Berry.

The win put the "Oregon's Murderer's" row a game and a half ahead of the second place Oregon State Beavers, who were idle today.

Igoe, pitching near-perfect ball, allowed no free passes to first, and with the fleet footed Webfoot outfield coming up with great defensive play, he was never in serious trouble.

The two teams meet again tomorrow in the second game of the series, with Nick Begleries handling the hurling duties for the Webfoots and Bill Sewell pitching for the Cougars.

It was the seventh straight win for the ball hawking Ducks and the eighth in nine starts.

Netsters Hit Montana 6-1

Oregon's varsity netsters recovered sufficiently from their drubbing by Washington here Saturday to thump Montana 6 to 1, as the Grizzlies trundled into Eugene unexpectedly yesterday.

Coach Paul Washke's netmen swept through all duals except the No. 2 doubles event, which saw W. Lewis and W. Howerton of Montana take Duck players Frank Baker and Norm Wiener down, 8-6, 6-4.

Clark Wins

Len Clark, Webfoot No. 1 man and Northern division singles titlist, smashed P. Budewitz of the invading Grizzlies, 6-0, 6-0. This convincing victory of Clark's may be a prelude to a more successful campaign when the Ducks drift into Seattle a week from this coming Friday for the Northern division playoffs.

Saturday at 2 p.m. they clash with Oregon State here on the

Trackmen Eye ND Carnival

Pullman Scene of Conference Meet; Dickson Ready

Pullman fans will be treated to a choice morsel of track perfection Saturday when the annual northern division meet convenes, bringing together stars from the Washington, Washington State, Idaho, Oregon State, and Oregon campuses.

A glance over the entrants' names reveals a bevy of crack thindlad performers due for exhibition on the Cougar oval.

The assault on the 9.5 record jointly held by Carson Shoemaker, Oregon, and Lee Orr, Washington State, in the 100-yard dash is expected to be seriously threatened. Some four speed demons, all of whom have turned in good times, will be anxiously poised in an effort to lower the old mark.

Haley Tops 100

Best century time is boasted by Washington State's Pat Haley, who clipped off a smooth 9.6 just one-tenth second above the record. Kjell Qvale, speedy Washington Norwegian, has a 9.7 to his credit, while Oregon's own Jake (Flash) Leicht was clocked at 9.8 in the Oregon State dual meet. Bob Smith, Husky sophomore flash, also is included in the sprint elite by virtue of exceptionally low times.

Les Steers, of course, will be the "big" name of the conclave and will have his sights on the existing 6 foot 6 inch meet high jump mark.

Idaho lays claim to a high class performer in Phil Liebowitz, veteran miler with a 4:12.2 time marked after his name.

Further medical examination of Ray Dickson, injured sprinter and broad jumper, revealed only a slight bone chip and he will be able to compete in the meet Saturday.

Colonel Bill Hayward will pack his outfit of 14 athletes off to Pullman Friday noon on the train. Those making the trip include: Captain Ehle Reber, Bob McKinney, Francis Tuckwiler, Boyd Lee, Bill Beifuss, Zenos Butler, Bob Hendershott, Homer Thomas, Dickson, Les Steers, Ed Palm-Bill Regner, Jake Leicht, Ray rose, and Ed Reiner.

Williams, O, beat Shallenberger, M, 6-2, 6-3.

Doubles—Clark and Smith, O, beat Budewitz and Bottomly, M, 6-2, 6-3; Lewis and Howerton, M, beat Baker and Wiener, O, 8-6, 6-4.

This varsity tussle follows up the frosh-rook battle here, during which the Duckling netmen will be striving for at least a 4 to 3 repeat win during their last encounter with the baby Beavers, that one in Corvallis.

Tuesday the varsity squad hikes over to Linfield for a tourney, and at 7 a.m. Thursday, May 22, they wheel toward Seattle for the Northern division roundup.

Warren Hammered By Frosh Yannigans

The Duckling ball club finally solved the mystery behind the "pat ball" offerings of "Honest John" Warren, and Wednesday afternoon the Yannigans proceeded to club out eight hits and as many runs to beat Warren's number one bunch 8 to 5 in a five-inning game.

While the subs were making merry on the slants of Warren, "Don-traband" Bill Gissberg was holding the main squad to a mere three hits which turned into the five runs on a few costly misplays.

Backing up Gissberg in the Yannigan infield was a "duke's mixture." Warren Taylor, better known for his actions on a basketball court was on first. Perched at the keystone combination were Bob "Moe" Sheridan and Dick Rathbun who are usually taking their turns on the mound. The one legitimate infielder was Hoover on third.

Six Run Rally

Warren's lads were in front 2 to 1 going into the third but things then exploded. Two hits and a walk filled the bases. Hoover's single shoved two runs across and an error and a hit filled them again. John walked one in, and then Aaron Jones cleared them with a booming triple. When the smoke had cleared away six counters had been rung up.

Another new addition was made to the squad in the practice when Bob Newland, who has been giving his time to track, turned out.

The next game on the docket for the frosh will be with the rooks on Howe field, Friday afternoon.
