

Seniors Give To Union Fund

Permanent Group Will Select Room For Furnishing

Donating the balance in their treasury at the close of term, the senior class has swelled the student union fund by $468.10. This amount, given as the senior gift, will be used in furnishing one room of the building, the room to be decided by the permanent class committee just prior to the completion of the Student Union.

Until the time when this money will be spent for actual room furnishings, it shall be placed in the student loan fund.

Another addition to the student union fund is the contribution of $799.29 made by Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalistic society, from the proceeds of the Kay Kyser dance of March 26. Sigma Delta Chi received $131.22 from the proceeds of the dance and, by agreement with the educational activities board, the net proceeds were to be placed in the student union fund. The figure of $799.29 is computed on the basis of expenses paid to date and the $131.22 going to Sigma Delta Chi.

Senior Loans Due

All graduating students who have drawn loans from the student loan office must pay the loans on or before graduation day, June 8. Unless loans are paid students cannot be cleared for graduation.

Loans should be paid at Windows 1 and 2 on the upper floor of Johnson.

'Trout-Taker' Teter Triumphs In Fish Contest

Winner of the Emerald-Hendershott trout fishing contest is J. W. Teter, manager of the photo bureau. His entry was a 4 1/4-pound rainbow trout caught on a dry fly in the McKenzie river. To Mr. Teter for catching the biggest trout entered in the contest goes the prize of a $5 fly rod.

Mr. Teter caught his fish the weekend the contest was opened. When told of the contest he smiled as he said he would enter his catch. "I can use a new fly rod," he said. Having competed with other campus piscators and emerged as the top "compleat angler," Mr. Teter is now entitled to tell his fish stories with no one contradicting.

the submitting of his picture, and passing an examination given by the examining board of the department.

The examination required four extra hours of drill. The men were graded on ability to explain military movements to a squad, alertness, voice, military courtesy, and general leadership ability.

At a personal interview with the board following the practical drill candidates were questioned in regard to their previous University military education.

"The board wishes to announce that it was thoroughly impressed by the caliber of candidates competing for the vacancies," declared Colonel Lyon. "We cannot too highly praise the leadership, ability, and sportsmanship as shown by the class of 1943."

Annual Interviews Set for Thursday

Interviews for the 1942 Oregon business staff are scheduled for Thursday afternoon, according to Emerson Page, business manager. Positions open include sales, organizations, advertising, and circulation managers, as well as department heads for layout, promotion, and national advertising.

General staff workers are also needed, including students to work during registration next fall term. Lack of experience will not prevent a student from being appointed to the staff, but only those who show a definite interest in this type of work will be chosen, Page said.

To save time in interviewing Thursday, Page requests that each applicant bring a sheet listing his name, university and summer address, phone number, class, and experience. Interviews will be from 3 to 5 p.m. Thursday, in the Oregon business office.

McGiffert Favors Deeper Cultivation Of Religious Life

President Arthur Cushman McGiffert Jr., Pacific School of Religion, suggested study and application of resources and cultivation of a deeper inner life as the basis of a well-rounded religious program on the campus before a campus religious leaders' meeting at the YWCA Monday night.

"Retailing our religion" through small services was one of his suggestions. He mentioned that college students are in an excellent position to find means of showing different denominations how to cooperate in methods of prayer, worship, and liturgy.

President McGiffert, on the campus for talks and interviews both Sunday and Monday, spoke at Westminster house Monday afternoon. In this talk he said that Christians must get off the defensive, must get over their "apologetic attitude."

GLO-RNZ HEADS THE GRADUATING CLASS

Deans of Fashion Makeup from coast to coast award GLO-RNZ the highest degree for hair beauty. GLO-RNZ, the professional hair tint rinse, has been commended for its excellent work in restoring dull, faded, and streaked hair that has been hard to manage to a lovely, natural looking color. Fashion-wise coeds use GLO-RNZ. They know it frees hair from harmful alkali and soap scums, making it easier to wave. Add to your loveliness. Next time, ask your hairdresser for a GLO-RNZ.
