

Huskies Down Webfoot Nine, 6 to 3

Les Steers steps into fast company—plenty fast—next Saturday, May 24 in the Los Angeles Coliseum. No longer will he be matching his jumping form against lesser competition which strives—and usually fails to clear 6 feet 3 inches. In the first annual Los Angeles relays, Steers will find his old jumping foe, Johnny Wilson, with whom he cleared 6 feet 9 3/8 last year.

In addition there are Gil LaCava who cleared 6 feet 6 in high school, H. J. Boydston who soared over 6 feet 9 this spring for Oklahoma A. and M., and Bill Stewart who wiggled over 6 feet 10 3/8 inches this spring for the Southern California Athletic association.

Each of these four will be out there to give Steers a rough time in clearing the high jump bar. The fact that Steers holds the world record at 6 feet 10 25-32 inches is enough to make anyone of these envious. With all the competition—its the best in the nation—Steers should have the incentive to get up around seven feet.

Butler Surprised

Zenos Butler, colored transfer hurdler from Long Beach jaysee, did well Monday in gathering points for Oregon. As Butler put it, "I had the old zing in my legs. I really felt like runnin' for the first time this year." Butler was leading Pat Haley at the eighth hurdle in the lows, then when Steers shouted, "Loosen up, Butler," Haley moved on past Butler.

"Those boys are really goin' to have to run those hurdles down in Berkeley to beat me," emphasized Butler after reading the results of the meets Saturday down south. Butler has gone over the highs in less than 15 seconds when he was capering down in jaysee circles.

Leicht Pulls Muscle

Jake Leicht ran into a mite of tough luck in the northern division meet. In the 100-yard sprint, Leicht got off to a slow start, then just as he was pulling up with Messrs. Pat Haley, Kjell Qvale, and Bob Smith at the 70-yard mark, things began to happen. The cold weather was too much. Leicht pulled up with either a torn or pulled muscle. Naturally, this threw him out of the 220 also.

With Leicht out of the springs, Oregon saw some five or six sure points slip by the boards—enough to nose out Idaho for third place. Still and all the surprise of the meet was Butler.

Boyd and Olsen Punt

Frank Boyd and Larry Olsen are the top punters on Oregon's grid squad this spring from practices last night. Boyd and Olsen (Olsen's ineligible unfortunately) sent out high, towering punts time and again which went out of bounds along the five and ten-yard line.

Each time from the time the ball left the center's hands until it left the punter's foot the time elapsing in Boyd's and Olsen's case was from 2 seconds to 2.2. Once in a while one of the duo would get off a thumping boot in less than 2 seconds.

Gissberg Given Award

Bill Gissberg, Inky Boe, Bob Sheridan, Larry Casper, Olsen, and Bert Gianelli got their official form letters Monday which informed them that Edwin N. Atherton would recommend that they be given an extra year of eligibility in case of transfer.

Gissberg also received another little deal Monday—this time though it's the Goodman trophy. It's the honor given to the outstanding freshman in his fraternity. Gissberg received it for his basketball and baseball and also for his grades—a 2.9 cumulative.

Sigma Delta Psi Rules for Today

Oregon State	8	6	.576
Idaho	2	7	.222
Washington State ..	2	8	.200

University of Washington's comeback Husky baseball team remained undefeated on their home field, as they hijacked the Oregon slugging Webfoots 6 to 3 for the second straight time in Seattle yesterday.

Oregon lost Monday, 5 to 4. The win placed the upswinging Huskies within half a game of the league leading Webfoots, and sent the Hobson proteges homeward with two wins and three losses on a disastrous invasion of Washington and Idaho.

The Ducks scored first in the third inning, scooting a pair of runs across, but the Huskies came back in their half of the third to tie the score. The Seattleites picked up three more in the fourth and one in the sixth, while Oregon could account for only one more run, which came in the eighth.

Jorgenson, pitching for Washington, allowed nine hits, but three errors by the Webfoot defensive did no help to Oregon's championship hopes.

Nick Begleries started on the mound for the Ducks but was relieved by Rieder too late to save the ball game. Husky hitters collected 12 hits off Oregon's pitching duo to keep their home record clear for the season.

The loss threw a crimp into Oregon's hopes for the Northern division pennant, and brought the Washington nine within easy reach of at least a first place tie for the top honors.

Anet Wins Babb Cup As Top Senior Player

By KEN CHRISTIANSON
Co-Sports Editor, Oregon Emerald

Bob Anet, Oregon 1939 all-American basketball guard, yesterday was officially voted the Babb trophy given this year for the first time to the outstanding graduating senior athlete at Oregon. The plaque, costing some $90, is donated by R. A. and Beldon Babb and will be retained in the trophy case in McArthur court to be awarded annually.

Rook Nine Beats Frosh In Final Go

The Oregon State yearling baseball team made it four straight when they took the frosh 3 to 2 on Coleman field Monday, but it took the rooks ten innings to accomplish the deed.

Things were even up at the end of the ninth and the frosh failed to ring up any counters in their half of the tenth. Then with one away in the last half Brown walked, stole second, went to third on a passed ball and scored on an error.

The game turned out to be a pitchers' duel as Al Wimer and Bob Newland held the rooks to three hits while Kay Kiyokawa and Dick Johnson were setting the frosh down with four hits.

The frosh got their first run in the first inning when Bob Farrow reached first on an error, went to third on Martini's single and scooted home on an error by McClusky. The rooks evened it up in the fifth when they shoved one over on a walk, a passed ball, and two errors.

The frosh countered with a tally in the first of the eighth on doubles by Martini and Pete Peterson but the rooks evened it up in their part of the eighth, again without getting a hit, on a walk, and two errors.

Summary:

Frosh	100	000	010	0—2	4	2
Rooks	000	010	010	0—3	3	3

Wimer, Newland and Peterson. Kiyokawa, Johnson, Yada.
