State Awards Scholarships For Next Year

High Scholarship Rewards Students Entering College

College recipients of state scholarships for next year have been released by the registrar's office. These scholarships are awarded by the state committee on high school relations, a committee created by the state board of higher education and composed of representatives of the various state colleges. They are given to students who rank high in scholarship, and who need financial assistance.

These scholarships cover tuition and laboratory and course fees. Those with previous college training who received scholarships are:

Arthur W. Berg, Maryjane Bovingdon, Billie Jean Dexter, Charles Robert Everett, Wyman J. French, Phyllis Gray, Roy James Hensley, Clarence Horton, Drusilla Johnson, Helen Muriel Johnson, Avis Klemme, Walter Krause, Leona LaDuke, Ida Judith Lesser.

BA School to Hold Recognition Feast

Tickets to the annual business administration school's recognition banquet are on sale at the BA school office in commerce building. The affair starts at 6 p.m. Monday at the Anchorage.

W. C. Schuppel, of the Oregon Mutual Life Insurance company of Portland, will be the speaker. Other Oregon businessmen will be present. Dean Victor P. Morris will be presiding. Musical entertainment is scheduled.

Pledges Initiated Into Mortar Board

Mortar Board members initiated seven pledges and one honorary member at the home of Mrs. Frederick M. Hunter Wednesday afternoon.

Following the ceremony, the group ate dinner together at the Anchorage.

Those initiated into the senior women's honorary were Helen Angell, Billie Christensen, Hope Hughes, Bette Morfitt, Lois Nordling, Pauline Pengra, Elizabeth Steed, and Assistant German Professor Astrid Williams, honorary member.

Scribes' Group Plans Initiation

Two Professionals Will Join; Plaque Awards Planned

Jack McDowell, managing editor of the Eugene Morning News, and Steven David, graduate student at the University, will be initiated to Sigma Delta Chi, national professional journalistic fraternity, at an initiation-banquet Wednesday, May 28, it was announced Wednesday at the regular SDX meeting.

Floyd W. Lansdon, northwest manager of the Associated Press, was also to be initiated, but is unable to attend.

Plans were made at the meeting for the presentation of the SDX Community Service plaques, awarded each year to the weekly and daily Oregon newspapers most outstanding in service to their community.

Officers installed at the meeting for next year are: Buck Buchwach, president; Ken Christianson, vice-president; Ray Schrick, secretary; Don Butzin, treasurer; and John Kahanani, public relations chairman.

SDX scholarship certificates were awarded to Edith Oglesby, Marion Narvis, Betty Keller, and Lyle Nelson. Students, in order to obtain these certificates, must be in the upper ten per cent of the journalism graduating class.
