Air Hostess Jobs Open to Women

Upper-class women who speak fluent Spanish are eligible for positions in the air hostess department of the Braniff Airways, Love Field, Texas. Applicants must be single women having acceptable grades.

Other requirements are: height of 5 feet 2 inches to 5 feet 4 inches, weight of 100 to 118 pounds, perfect physical condition, unquestionable family background, irreproachable character, pleasant personality, poise, self-confidence, tact, diplomacy, and ability to deal with people.

Prospective hostesses must take a two-weeks' training course, during which they are given an expense allowance of $2.50 a day. Hostesses receiving appointment are on a six-months probationary basis and must agree to remain with the company at least one year if services are satisfactory.

Further information may be obtained at the office of the dean of women.

DSR Initiates Two At Tuesday Meeting

Lois Nordling and Rendel Alldredge were initiated into Delta Sigma Rho, speech honorary, Tuesday evening.

Qualifications for the honorary call for upper division standing and outstanding work on the symposium or debating team.

Election of officers took place with the initiates voted in as leaders of the organization. Alldredge was named president and Miss Nordling will be secretary.

Following the ceremony, W. A. Dahlberg, assistant professor of speech, invited members to his home for a steak dinner.
