All-Campus Athletic Card Canvass Starts

Registrar Sees 5 Percent Drop In Enrollment

According to estimates and figures available before registration begins Friday morning approximately 3500 students may be expected to enroll in the University. This is a decrease of five per cent from registration figures of last year.

Supporting this estimate made by the registrar's office is the ten per cent decrease of old students applying for registration material given out Wednesday. There were 805 old students who applied for material at 5 p. m. Wednesday compared to 893 for the same day last year.

A strong turnout for rush week, however, gives indication that no serious decrease will be made. Authorities believe that increased opportunities for jobs account for the expected decrease. For the past few years the University has been gaining in enrollment.

Registration will begin at 8 a. m. Friday in McArthur court and continue through 5 p. m. The same hours will prevail Saturday. Freshmen should register at the hours which have been assigned to them.

Authorities for registration urge that old students consult their advisers before registering. This will save much delay. New students are advised to follow the signs carefully and not to appear at registration before their assigned times.

Emerald Staff to Meet

First Emerald staff meeting of the '41 school year will be Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in room 105, Journalism.

Hello Dancers Will Meet In McArthur Court Saturday

Get acquainted. That's the idea behind the annual Hello dance to be held at McArthur court Saturday evening.

The initial event on the all-campus social calendar will give new students as well as old, the opportunity to meet University officials and classmates, at the traditional informal no-date affair.

President Donald M. Erb will head the receiving line of faculty members and student officers. Kwama and Skull and Dagger, sophomore service honoraries, will introduce the new students.

A new feature of this year's dance will be the tags that dancers will wear. Tags will bear the names of the wearer, and on them will be printed a large "Hello. My name is Who are you?" These tags were made to make it easier for the new students to know each other, according to Don Swink, dance chairman.

Art Holman's orchestra will play for the annual dance, which Swink emphasized is especially

Webfoots Get Set to Gnaw T-Bone; Rally Tonight Will Kindle Flames

A "Mighty Oregon" rally will parade the campus tonight as the Webfoots look forward to their first game of the season Saturday on Stanford's home field.

Sweater honoraries will start the "snowball" line of march from the ATO and Chi Psi houses at 6:10 p.m. winding around the campus until both groups meet at the law school. From there the fans will snake-dance to the canoe fete grand stand for the program part of the rally.

Highlight of the performances will be Tex Oliver introducing his men from the Anchorage porch and a brief summary of what he expects of the team in the Saturday match.

President Lou Torgeson will wish the team bon voyage on behalf of the student body and Mannie Vezie, new end coach, will give an inside view of preparations for the Indians.

For the comedy end of the entertainment Bob Whitely has taken charge of a special stunt with the ASUO rally squad keeping a surprise "package" to spring on the audience.

Yell King Earle Russell and Dukes Max Miller and Bud Steele in their new uniforms will be on hand to lead the rooters in homage to Oregon and the Olivermen.

Seven Steps in Registration

Following is the procedure which should be followed in registering Friday and Saturday:

1. Freshmen report at McArthur court at the time assigned to them on their individual schedule slip. Others report Friday or Saturday.
2. An adviser will be assigned to you. He will assist you in making out your registration material.
3. Have your study program signed by your adviser.
4. Register in the courses you have selected with the section clerk in charge of each one. Follow the signs.
5. Check your residence with the housing secretary.
6. Submit your registration material for a final check.
7. Pay your fees and turn in your completed registration material.

Frosh, Exec-Comm to Meet

ASUO Heads To Fill Jobs

Selection of substitute ASUO officers to fill executive committee vacancies will be decided Friday afternoon by the committee, unless the group should elect to call a special election for this purpose, Lou Torgeson, ASUO president, revealed Tuesday.

The existing vacancies were left open when Bob Calkins, ASUO first vice-president, and Chuck Woodruff, sophomore representative, did not return to school.

According to the ASUO constitution, Torgeson said, the committee is authorized to appoint members to fill vacancies, or they may choose to call a special election. Possibility that the committee would decide upon another election was described as slight.

Class of '45 To Assemble

After ASUO activities have been explained to freshmen at tonight's assembly, the frosh may vote on one of several proposed class constitutions, according to Lou Torgeson, ASUO president, who will preside at tonight's assembly.

Torgeson made clear, however, that no matter what constitution the 1945 class adopts, the class-card question will not affect their decision, because the touchy class-card issue is considered under "by-laws," which will not be voted upon at tonight's assembly.

Class cards for the class of '45 will not be sold at registration tables Friday and Saturday, Torgeson said, explaining that the frosh would not be "bound before

Prongas Plans Intensive Sale; Price Set at $9

Plans for the athletic card sales campaign have been completed with an intensive door-to-door campaign under way, according to Harry Prongas, drive chairman, who declares he is going to see that every student on the campus is reached during the campaign.

Athletic tickets will admit the holders to the Stanford game in Palo Alto Saturday, Prongas announced yesterday. Persons wishing to go to the game may purchase their tickets Friday at the ticket office in the Igloo, he said.

Campus living organizations will be divided into four "districts" each headed by a chairman. Gerald Heustis will be in charge of selling the cards to students outside of living organizations. Chairmen for the four living organization districts are: Eleanor Sederstrom, Al Hunt, Bruce Taylor, and Bud Vandeneende.

No Misses

In previous years, Prongas said, there has been no concentrated effort to reach students out of living groups. This year, however, he hopes to reach all students outside of houses by telephone, mail and personal contacts, he explained.

Actual sales of cards will be made at registration time in McArthur court Friday and Saturday, with awards going to the first houses gaining 100 per cent athletic membership. The first house going 100 per cent Friday will be awarded a trophy cup. The next five houses going 100 per cent Friday will be awarded
