The First National Bank of Eugene has not only extended its services to students, but also has been very active in supporting the University and its activities in a material manner.

The University of Oregon alumni and former students of our staff invite you to visit the bank and get acquainted. A home-owned and home-managed institution, the bank has been giving University students friendly, efficient banking service for over 57 years. As in the past we are anxious to do our part toward making your school year a real success. We hope to be able to count you among our student friends.
