

SPEAKER CORRALLED

A new method is used by Harry Frongas, athletic card drive chairman (right), and Lou Torgeson, ASUO president, for selecting gridiron star to speak at the 11 o'clock assembly today. This will be the first ASUO rally assembly for all students this term.

Frosh Committee Recommends No Voting Fees for Class of '45

UO Gets New Pennell Fund

An $11,568.20 donation has been left to the University by Miss Ellen M. Pennell, President Donald M. Erb announced yesterday. Miss Pennell was associated with the University for 23 years.

With $11,068.20 of the gift a fund, to be known as the Ellen M. Pennell scholarship fund, will be established. Net income from the fund will be use for scholarships in the school of architecture and allied arts. The library will receive $500 for the purchase of inspirational books, preferably biographies.

The funds are to be used, according to the terms of the will, for regular tuition fees of students enrolled in the school of architecture. A majority vote of the faculty will select the students.

Miss Pennell, who came to Oregon from Monmouth in 1908, served as instructor in English till 1911, when she was made dean of women. She acted as dean of women until she went to the library in 1918, and worked in the library from then till her retirement in 1931. Miss Pennell lived in Eugene until her death February 15, 1941.

Voters to Hold Meet Tonight In Music Hall

By FRITZ GIESECKE

After a revolutionary decision to recommend no fee for membership or voting privileges in the Class of 1945, a freshman by-law committee, presided over by ASUO President Lou Torgeson, Wednesday approved by-laws of the class constitution. They will be considered at the organization meeting of the class at 7 tonight in the music auditorium.

Officers will also be nominated at this meeting.

Decision to recommend no membership fee was made after the committee decided to avoid split factions such as occurred in last year's freshman class. These factions formed a bottleneck in class plans for the entire year.

Torgeson warned that all persons intending to run for freshman class offices tonight must notify him of their intention to run before they can be nominated. They must also clear with the dean of women or the dean of men, to ascertain their scholastic and ASUO eligibility to hold office.

Freshmen might be presumed to be scholastically eligible, since there have been no grades given yet, Torgeson said, but explained that the class constitution, adopted by the class last Thursday night, provides for this eligibility certification. He said he would rather see the candidates go to this seemingly unnecessary trouble than to have any organization activities be declared invalid because of a "technicality."

Recommend Plan

The by-law committee also recommended organization of freshman class activities for the entire year, and the raising of class finances by an "activity card" which will not carry the voting privilege.

A card system of this sort would correspond to the ASUO athletic card set-up.

Committee members pledged themselves to do all in their power to avoid a split in Greek and independent ranks.

Members of the committee were Hal Locke, June Hitchcock, Ted Yaw, and Fritz Giesecke.

Card Winners To Get Awards At Meet Today

Presentation of awards to houses which went 100 per cent in the athletic card drive will be made by ASUO President Lou Torgeson at an assembly this morning at 11 in Gerlinger hall.

University President Donald M. Erb will deliver an address, designed principally for freshmen, on pointers to be observed in pursuing a successful academic career.

Pi Kappa Alpha will receive the 14-inch trophy for being the first house to report all members possessing cards. The next ten houses to go all-out for the drive will be presented with $8.50 requisitions for phonograph records.

Houses which will receive the records are: Delta Gamma, Peggy McGill; Sammies, Al Cohen; Delts, Jerry Battles; Sig Eps, Maury Solomon; Phi Psi, Bill Beifus; Phi Gamma Delta, Jim Burness; Phi Delta Theta, Tom Boyden; AOPi, Barbara Lamb; Alpha Chis, Ann Votenberg; Alpha Xi Delta, Florence Cooley. Other houses which have reported as 100 per cent are Zeta Tau Alpha, Lois Hosford and ATO, Bob Whitely.

Homecoming Petitions Due Friday at 5 p.m.

Homecoming is coming! Petitions for chairmanships should be handed in to Lou Torgeson, ASUO president, or Bette Morfitt, ASUO secretary, before 5 p.m. Friday.

Early next week, after being chosen by the executive committee, the chairman will begin to make plans and choose his assistants for the big show November 28, 29, and 30. The Oregon-Oregon State football game is scheduled for Saturday, November 29.

Rally Squad Will Show Pictures Of Oregon-Stanford Game Tonight

Technicolor motion pictures of the recent Oregon-Stanford game will be shown under the sponsorship of the rally squad tonight at 8 o'clock in Room 207 Chapman.

The pictures will show the entire play-by-play game and were taken by J. Warren Teter, University photographer.

Tex Oliver, football coach, will be present to explain the pictures, according to Les Anderson, managing the show.

If there is a reasonable turnout to the movies, the rally squad will continue the program of photographing all games played away from Eugene. Tentatively, the squad plans to take pictures of the Oregon-California game in Portland October 16.

Yo' Can Still Buy 'Em

Our Oregon wins again. The business staff begins to wail, "Why didn't they announce the score before the Oregon sale."

T-CONTENDER

Motion pictures showing tonight in Chapman hall will give the highlights of the closely-fought Oregon-Stanford football game, in which the Webfoot players, coached by Tex Oliver (above) almost took the victory from the vaunted Trojans.

Twirlers Will Give Half Time Exhibition At Friday's Game

All applications for the drum major and majorette contest, sponsored by the ASUO executive committee, must be handed in to Les Anderson, head of the rally committee, by 4 p.m. today in order to be eligible for the half time exhibition at the Oregon-Idaho game at Hayward field tomorrow.

Balloting will take place next week to select winners in the contest, which was originated by John Stehn, director of the UO band. According to Mr. Stehn, it is possible that the twirlers may accompany the team to games played away from home.

Skull and Dagger will meet at the Phi Delt house tonight.

Derby Demands Flat Feet, Smooth Line

In Wednesday's Emerald, there appeared a story on the granddaddy of campus dances, the "bunion derby." Since then many freshmen and new students have phoned into the Emerald asking for more details on the Saturday night swing session.

As far as the gals are concerned, it's the age old answer of the survival of the fittest, with a girl having flat feet usually winding up far more chipper than her sisters, at the end of 45 rounds. In most cases, underclassmen are required to attend the derby, but the spirit of the affair usually envelopes even the most reserved juniors and seniors, and they go along to see that the underclassmen don't wander off to the Side in between stops.

Open House

The dance is an open house affair with every men's living organization making the trek to all of the girls' living organizations for a short ten minutes of dancing, and then taking five to get to the next house on time. Here are just a few tips that will help things along on this night of all nights as far as getting along are concerned. For the men:

1. Hmmm . . . I don't believe that I've ever whiffed such different perfume. What is it . . . etc.
2. What part of California did you say you came from?

3. Was your high school tune "On Wisconsin"?
4. How many strawberry, rose festival, salmon derby, roundup, or cherry blossom queens have you in your house?
5. What are you going to do for stockings this winter?

Remarks

Here are just a few gems that the gals can rely on when the going gets tough.

1. When will the draft catch YOU . . . when she knows darned well that he isn't a day over 18.
2. Did you say that you came from the "high country"?
3. You're certainly a smooth dancer . . . (ouch).
4. Who plays football in YOUR house?

5. Have you ever taken Shakespeare from Dr. Lesch? I want to tell you that in class this morning he . . .

By this time you have budgeted your time into the required ten minutes and can take five minutes rest before the next batch comes in. According to the more experienced men on the campus the best way to get set at the bunion derby is to pick out some queen, ask her to dance, and then say . . . "let's skip out and get a coke." Statistics show that 9 out of 10 who did this last year wound up at Mortar Board.

It isn't as bad as it sounds, really. It's not just another campus jig. It's really an event that shouldn't be missed. . . .
