

First ROTC Uniform Drill of Year Will Begin Today at 1; 950 Men To Form Into Three Battalions

The first uniform drill of the University ROTC regiment will begin at 1 p.m. today when about 950 first and second year basic course men will be organized into a regiment of three battalions of three companies each, according to a statement by Colonel Robert M. Lyon, head of the military science department.

Each battalion will be advised by two staff members appointed as follows: First battalion, Captain Harvey Blythe assisted by Captain B. F. Davis. Second battalion, Captain F. I. Agule assisted by Sergeant T. H. Kangas. Third battalion, Major H. W. Hall assisted by Sergeant M. D. Mudd.

Tentative assignments of second year advanced course students to command duties are: Cadet Colonel Torgeson, regimental executive officer, Regner, and Adjutants Phillips, Carney, and Cherney.

Battalion Heads

Battalion officers: First battalion commander, Blickenstaff, executive officer, Currin, and adjutant, Page. Second battalion commander, Albrecht, executive officer Frost, and adjutant McKinney. Third battalion commander Christianson, executive officer, Treece, and adjutant, Wheeler.

Company commanders: Company A, Captain Lindley and platoon leaders Fugit, Creighton Bush and Kirkpatrick. Company B, Captain McCarty and platoon leaders, Bocol, Bowers, and Boyle. Company C, Captain Adams and platoon leaders Brown, Browne, and Rowe.

Company E, Captain Gray and platoon leaders Warren, Curry, and Didak. Company F, Captain Currin and platoon leaders Drexler, Durkheimer, and Swink. Company G, Captain Murphy and platoon leaders Carlson, Hardy, and Hovee.

Company I, Captain Bowes and platoon leaders Leonard, Little, and Knight. Company K, Captain Long and platoon leaders Gleeson, Raffeto, and Shank. Company L, Captain Scoggin and platoon leaders Russell, Smith, Stein, and Williams.

Change Due

Hand instructors will be Tyler, Stickles, and Conroy. Knox will instruct the convalescent group. The above assignments will be changed from week to week to enable seniors to exercise command of various elements.

The first year advanced students (juniors) will be acting as sergeants during the Thursday drills. Sophomores will act as

OREGON DAILY EMERALD

Thursday Advertising Staff:

Lieth Brown, co-day manager
Marilyn Marshall, co-day mgr.
Maxine Cuning
Margaret Deane
Dorothy Manley
Stephanie Peterson
Marilyn Wiley

Copy Desk Staff:

Herb Penny, city editor
Lee Samuelson, assistant
Ruth Foreman
Audrey Holliday
Don McIntosh
Bob Pope
Bill Belt
John Mathews
Ruth Kay Collins
Connie Fullmer

Night Staff:

Ruth Jordan, night editor
Don Jones
Anita Banford
Laura Jane Rhoads
Ruth Foreman
Maxine Mann
Esther Bruce

Opportunity Offered Oregon Art Students

The opportunity to see over 150 of the world's greatest paintings is now being offered to university art students.

These masterpieces are on exhibit in the Portland art museum. A chartered bus will leave Eugene on Friday at 7:30 a.m. and will return in time for the football game that night.

Already over 20 students are planning to attend this exhibition.

squad and assistant squad leaders, Colonel Lyon said.

YWCA Secretary To Address Girls

Mrs. E. E. DeCou, executive secretary of the YWCA, will speak on the "Relations of the YWCA to Campus Life" at the first YW assembly this year of all the women students on the campus this afternoon at 4 in the YW bungalow.

Musical numbers have been planned and the year's cabinet members will be introduced to the group. Pauline Pengra, assembly chairman, is in charge of the program.

Cabinet members which will be introduced are: Lois Nordling, president; Bobsie Roehm, vice-president; Betty Pratt, treasurer; Janet Farnham, membership committee; Anita Simmons, community service; Pauline Pengra, assembly chairman; Jean Doris Griffith, music; Hildur Hegstrom, foreign foods; Marge Dibble, conference and Seaback; Michi Yasui, religious thinking; Betty Plankington, student-faculty relations; Frances Oram, Dill Pickle club; Cis Steel, peace; Elaine McFarlane, national association; and Elizabeth Edmunds, freshman commission counselor.

Three newly appointed cabinet

Guide Material Due In Office October 11

Campus organizations wishing to be represented in the Piggers' Guide should send the list of members with their officers and advisers to Betty Jane Biggs at the educational activities office by 5 p.m. October 11. All information after that date will be omitted from the guide.

The data may be sent on a penny postcard. Included must be the name of the organization, a description of the group and the name of the organization, a description of the group, and the names, addresses, phone numbers and office addresses of the president, the adviser, the secretary and the treasurer.

Check Room Opens

The check room at the University library will open today. Students wishing to check articles while in the library may take advantage of the check room.

members are Patty Pearson, tea chairman; Elsie Brownell, publicity; and Barbara Hampson, national representative. Barbara Hampson helps plan the cabinet meetings and provides the link between the national and local units of the YWCA.

Shopping the Town

By LEITH BROWN

You'll Be Off to the Races...

Off at least racing off to class in this two-piece campus dress. It's made in Congo Cloth and comes in the new stone colors. The blouse, with shiny gold buttons can be worn either in or out. A leather belt on the six-gore skirt adds an extra feature. See LaVene Konschot in Hadley's College Corner. Price 6.50.

Let It Rain

Let it pour, nothing will bother you in the beige corduroy reversible being shown at the Broadway. They can be worn either fitted in with the smart wide belt.

Treated with Airdex they are water repellent. Notice the brown leather buttons and extra-large pockets, also a little breast pocket for cigarettes or change. You can own it for $12.50.

Elegant, Strictly Elegant...

Are the Lisner Powner Blend Pearls at Beards. Unusual pearl earrings and clips to go with the necklaces, which come in one to four strands, also in the new long single strands. Extra special are the sterling silver and solid gold clasps which come even on the $1 strands. Prices range from $1 to $5.

A Rare Specimen

For sweater collectors are Gordon's new Hand-Fashioned sweaters. Made from imported Shetland yarn with specially fitted shoulders and underarms. Colors are orange sherbet, white, baby blue, and rose pink. Long and extra heavy, they are a bargain at $5.95.

Something New...

Is the Jane Engel dress department at Millers where we found a green wool and velveteen two-piece date dress. The velveteen is arranged across the shoulders and down the lapels making tucked pockets at the waist. The dragon head buttons on the jacket are different! It also has the dressy elbow-length sleeves. Ninety-one per cent wool and nine per cent rabbit's hair for $22.95.

V for Victory...

Or V neck sweaters. An all-wool jersey made just like a boy's with two pockets can be found at Russells. The extra tight cuffs can "take" the punishment of pushed-up sleeves. In Sierra Blue (not Sue), Red, and Navy for $4.95.

You'll Agree

That our good neighbors to the South have given us more than Latin rhythms and coffee when you see this new dinner dress at Kaufmans. The blouse is red and long, made out of the new suede cloth. The skirt is eggshell, made of silk jersey. A kelly green belt with gold circlets adds a decorative touch. Price $22.75.

Definitely Doggy...

Is the Volupte Aristocrater. An all-in-one arrangement that has all the necessities. A long style compact having a loose-powder compartment, lip paste, dry rouge, also a tiny comb and coin purse. Separated by a metal plate is the cigarette case. It comes in black enamel with embossed floral pattern. Who could ask for more. See it at Tiffany-Davis for $6.95.

For Your Wishing Hours

JET-Black Magic

By Corday

The sparkle of a Jet jewel... the glow of a firefly... the mysterious depths of a mountain pool... all captured by Corday and brought to you in this bewitching brew. You may have this enchanting scent in Parfum, Cologne, Toilet Water, Dusting Powder, Talc.

Jet Perfume	$3.00 to $10.50
Jet Eau de Toilette	$2.75 to $ 4.75
Eau de Jet	$1.50 to $ 2.75
Jet Bath Powder	$ 2.00
Jet Talc	$ 1.10

TIFFANY-DAVIS