

CPT Fall Class Gets Into Air

Full fledged trainees in the fall civilian pilot training class of 30 students are "up in the air," according to James C. Stovall, CPT coordinator. Dual instruction is well under way, Stovall said, with solo work expected to begin some time during the next two weeks.

Coordinator Stovall also requested that all boys planning to take the courses next spring or summer, apply at the CPT office immediately. Early applications are necessary so the office will have time to formulate next term's enrollment before winter registration.

Flying in this term's primary class are: Vern Adams, Darrel Adkinson, Frank Boyd, Edward Boydell, Belden Braaten, James Burness, Henry Cram, Donald Daniels, Emmett Evans, Jack Gertson, William Hamel, Lloyd Hecathorn, Parker McNeil, Herschel Patton, John Pilip, Lawrence Reid, Robert Robertson.

Collegiate Writers May Win $50 Prizes

Competition in the Atlantic Monthly's writing contest for college students got under way Friday with the announcement that any student who subscribes regularly may enter.

The contest is divided into three classes with a $50 prize in each division. Writers of the winning essay, poem, and story will be selected after April 8, 1942, the closing date of the contest.

The Bread Loaf School of English will give free tuition to the 1942 session to one of the three winners of the Atlantic contest, and also a free scholarship to the instructor of that student.

Individual advanced research work in psychology is being conducted by 12 undergraduate honors students at City college, New York.

First Baptist

Sunday school for University students will begin at 9:45 at the First Baptist church this Sunday. The morning worship service which is to begin at 11 o'clock will feature talks from several members, and the sermon will be on "Why People Do and Do Not Go to Church." At 5:45 the young people will hold their prayer in the men's classroom. The University group of BYPU meets at 6:15 in the C.O.S. room. Several young people will speak on "A Christian's Responsibilities," and Frances and Doris Benton will play an accordion duet. Dr. Vance H. Webster, pastor, will give the sermon, "Is the Bible the Word of God?" at the 7:30 evangelistic meeting.

Christian Science

The First Church of Christ, Scientist, announces the following hours for their Sunday program: 9:30 a.m., Sunday school; 11 a.m., worship hour; and 8 o'clock, evening service. The reading room is situated at 86 West Broadway and is open at 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. except on Wednesdays when it closes at 5. On Sundays and holidays it is open from 2 to 5. The University young people's group meets every Tuesday evening at 7:30 on the third floor of Gerlinger.

Catholic

Masses at the St. Mary's Catholic church will be held at 6:30, 8, 9:30, and 10:30 in the morning. The Knights of Columbus and the Catholic daughters plan to attend the 8 o'clock holy communion in a body. The organization will hold initiation ceremonies in the afternoon.

Episcopal

A question, "Is God of Any Importance," will be the topic of Father Ernest Bartlam's sermon at the St. Mary's Episcopal 11 o'clock morning prayer hour. The student vesper service will be held in the evening from 6 to 6:30 in the chapel and will be followed by an informal supper and recreation at 6:30.

Presbyterian

The Presbyterian church has on its Sunday 11 o'clock worship program, a sermon, "On Believing in God," to be given by Dr. Norman K. Tully and an anthem by the senior choir. The young people are to meet at 6 in the chapel and will have the youth choir who will sing "Call to Service" by Ackley. Joanna Roorak will sing a solo and the gospel will be on "When Life Begins."

Westminster

Westminster group will meet for breakfast at 8:45 at the local house. Afterwards they will have a discussion of aims and purposes. In the evening Paul B. Means, new professor of religion, is to

Mrs. J. Riddell To Assist Tyler

New graduate assistants in the psychology department this year include Mrs. Jean Merrill Riddell, who will assist Dr. Leona Tyler in the personnel research bureau. Mrs. Riddell was formerly a student here, and has been employed as a secretary in Washington, D. C.

Williams West, graduate of the University of California, will also be an assistant in the personnel work. Peter Matulaitis and Monroe Shelley, 1941 graduates, have returned to the department as assistants this year. Mr. Shelley will work with Dr. A. R. Moore as research assistant. John Leiman is the only one of last year's graduate assistants who returned.

Ben Weiner, graduate assistant in the psychology department last year, has resigned an appointment at Stanford university as graduate assistant this year, expecting to be called into military service. He was planning to work toward a doctor's degree there.

Abraham Carp, who was also an assistant last year, was appointed to take Weiner's place at Stanford. Bill Cass, another assistant, was married during the summer, and is now an instructor in psychology at Pomona college. Barney Bybee is now working in a defense industry in Portland, and Gordon Link is employed by the farm security administration in Portland.

...speak on "Living Most Effectively in These Times." This Sunday program takes the place of the retreat which was scheduled for Kitson springs.

Christian

It's to be rally day at the First Christian church Sunday school tomorrow. The University class is conducted by Dr. V. P. Morris, dean of the business administration school. Church service begins at 11 and has as its topic "Give Ye Them to Eat." The Christian Endeavor group will meet at 6:15 and the evening service will start at 7:30 and be on "Iron Beds and Spring Mattresses."

Methodist and Wesley

Worship service begins at 11 o'clock at the Methodist church and will be preceded by their regular 9:45 Sunday school. In the evening the student group plans to meet at Wesley house on the University campus for a social tea which will be followed by a short program centering around "Youth Caravans," under the supervision of Genevieve Working.

Business Book To Be Edited

Publication of a monthly review of business conditions throughout the state will soon be begun, according to Assistant Professor Lloyd M. Faust of the school of business administration, who, with Professor Edward Daniel and other members of the business administration faculty, is preparing material for the bulletin.

Faust states that the data for the review is collected from 12 reporting regions, into which the state has been divided, these statistics to be tabulated into indices of general business activity for each region as well as for the state as a whole. Each issue will include an article on some topic of current business interest.

Rats, mice, rabbits, guinea pigs, monkeys and chickens, totalling 2,000, are housed in air-conditioned laboratories in the Notre Dame biology building.
