

Military Class Schedule Set

The schedule of military organization and national defense lectures has been released by the University extension division. The courses, which have no prerequisites, are offered to acquaint citizens with the organization and functions of the branches of the American military system. No quizzes or examinations are entailed.

Headed by Captain Benjamin F. Davis, assistant professor of military science and tactics, the courses will begin October 16 at 7:15 p.m. in room 101 of the physical education building. Admission price for the full course will be $3 and 75 cents will be charged for a single lecture.

The schedule follows:

October 16 — Military Education, Colonel R. M. Lyon, infantry.

October 23—Military Organization and Operations. Captain Benjamin F. Davis, infantry.

Organization and Operation of Eugene Filter Center. Lieutenant Ray F. Siegenthaler, air corps.

October 30—Aviation: Then and Now. Colonel J. L. Stromme, air corps.

Nov. 6—Field Artillery. Lieutenant Colonel A. M. Sheets, field artillery.

The Engineer Corps. Major H. J. Hoeffler, corps of Engineers.

November 13—Cavalry and the Armored Forces. Major Merle Hitchkiss, cavalry.

November 20—Characteristics of Infantry Weapons and Fundamentals of Rifle Marksmanship. Captain Harvey Blythe, infantry.

Date is to be arranged for additional laboratory meeting, which deals with rifle marksmanship, including practice firing under Captains Blythe and Davis.

Physical Ed Majors Offered New Courses

A new course in physical science survey, including primarily the study of chemistry and physics, has been organized for physical education majors under the science department this year, according to Professor A. E. Caswell, head of the department.

Barbara Hampson and Frances McCarty reviewed two YW magazines, "Inter-Collegian" and "Women's Press." Michi Yasui led the devotional program and Lois Nordling gave a short summary of the aims and purposes of a campus "YW."

Special Train Leaves Friday

Oregon's special train will leave Eugene at 12:15 p.m. Friday, October 17, to carry the vanguard of Ducks to Portland for the Oregon-California game.

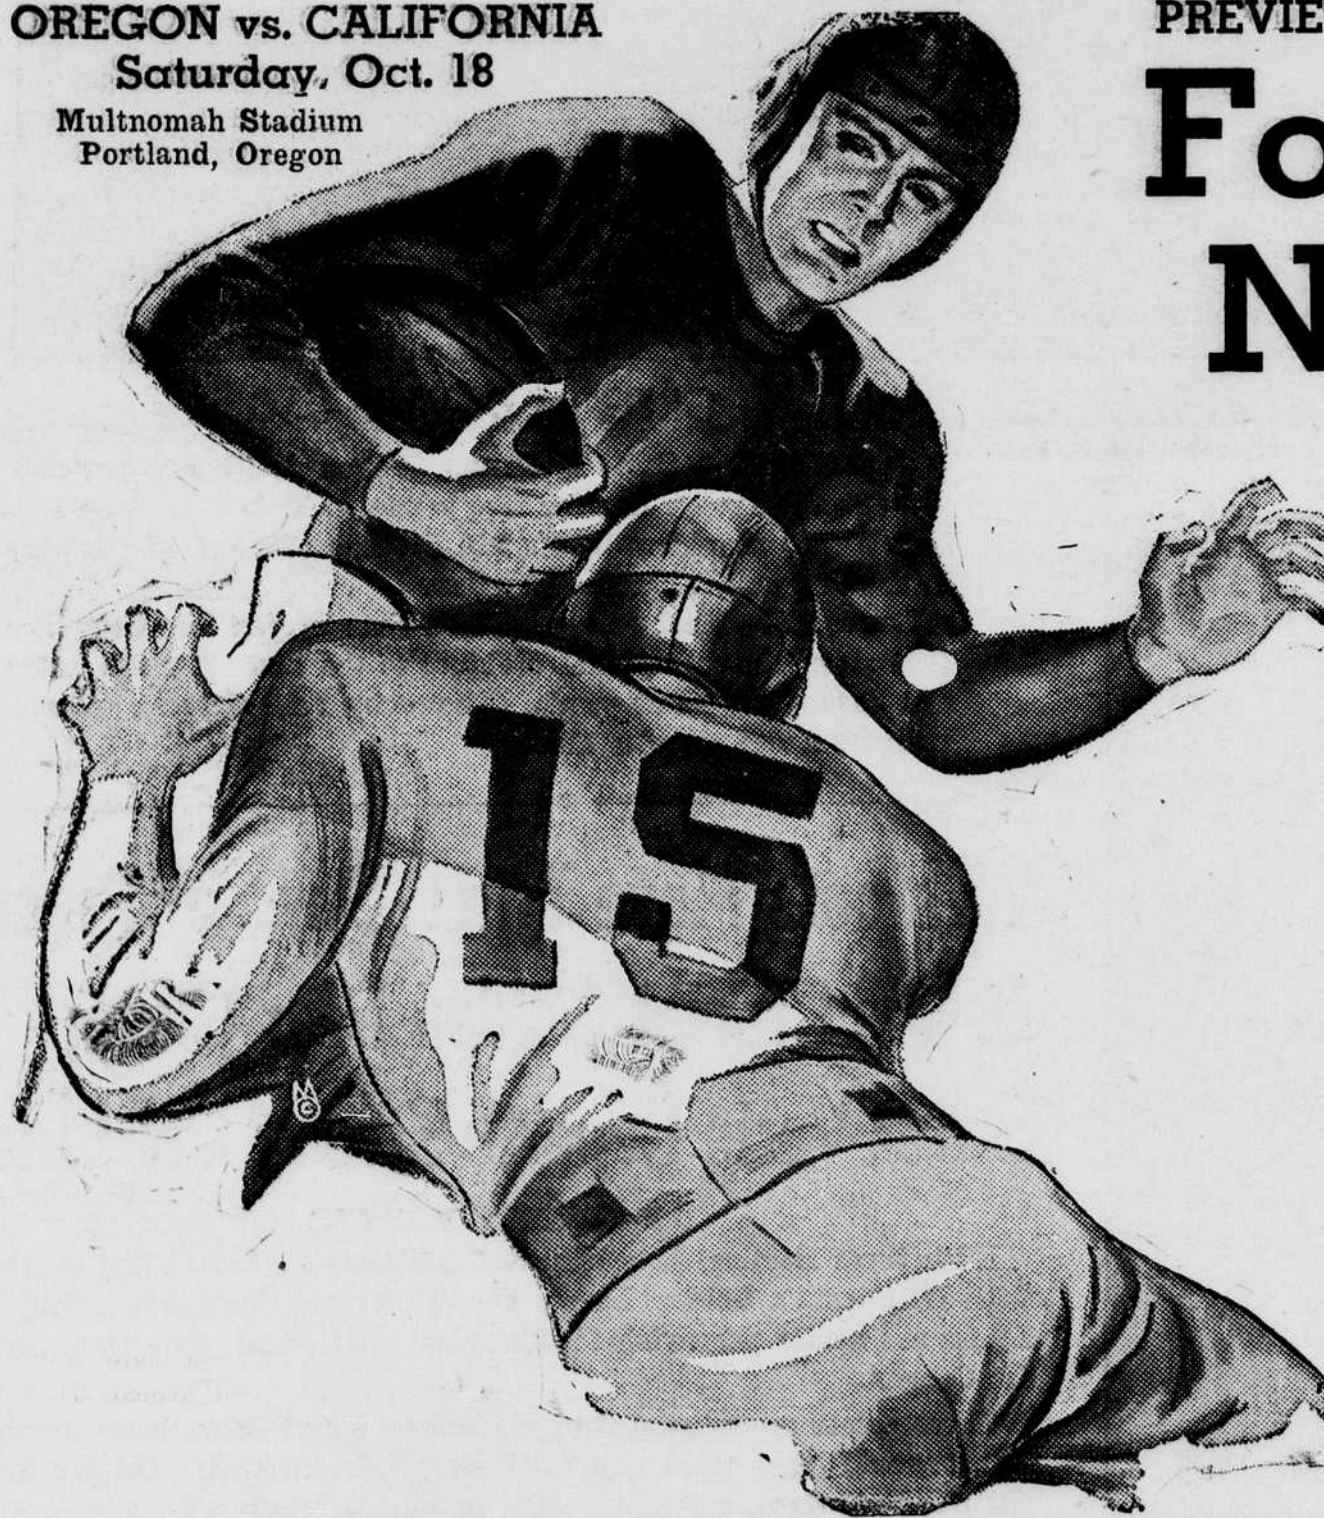

Early birds will be trailed by rooters leaving on the other Friday train at 5:10 p.m. A Saturday train will pull out at 8:20 a.m. bearing the rest of the rooting section to the big town in time for the opening whistle.

Special fares are offered, according to announcement made by the rally committee, rates being $2.89 round trip.

The returning rally train will leave the Portland union station Sunday, October 19, at 6:30 p.m. Tickets and information may be obtained at the booth stationed on Thirteenth street between Oregon and Commerce buildings.

Two home economics freshmen at Syracuse university have "commuted" from Puerto Rico to schools in the United States for four years.
