

Defense Council Posts Blackout Control Rules

Regulations covering the proposed blackout during air raid maneuvers here on the night of October 31 were issued by the Lane county defense council in the following bulletin to the public.

This blackout will be made as complete as possible. Sincere cooperation on the part of the public is most desirable. All signs, window lights, outside lights of all kinds, skylights should be completely blacked out. All window shades should be completely drawn. Where shades are not available, blankets should be hung over the opening.

Public to Stay Home

The public is urged to remain off the streets, children should be kept at home. Remember that any accidents to pedestrians will be their sole responsibility. The same conduct should be observed as if actual bombs were being dropped.

Cars Must Stop

All cars must either be pulled to the curb or left at home during this test. Police will be stationed at practically every intersection to enforce this, however this should not be a matter of enforcement but cooperation on the part of the public. Only emergency vehicles will be permitted to operate to minimize dangers to pedestrians and avoid collisions. If complete cooperation of the public is had there will be no accidents. Police will carry flashlights covered with blue cellophane. Pedestrians finding it necessary to be out should provide themselves with the same.

Pranksters Will Be Prosecuted

Any persons or groups of pranksters found taking advantage of the blackout to commit nuisances will be apprehended and taken to the police station.

Distinguishing arm bands will be worn by all reserves and members of veteran organizations will wear their overseas veteran caps.

Police, air raid wardens, and fire reserves will inform any violators of the blackout regulations of their negligence. Persistent violators will be listed and reported.

Signal Between 9 and 10

The signal for blackout will be given between the hours of 9 and 10. A warning blast of whistles will be given 12 minutes before the blackout signal which is a series of five second blasts for the period of one minute. Long blasts will be given for the "all clear."

In the interest of public safety the public is urged to remain off the streets during this test.

Judiciary Committee

Consternation Caused

In asking the judiciary committee's advice on the question, the petitioning executive committee members kept in mind the consternation that was caused when ASUO elections were called off. A restraining order of the judiciary committee on the grounds that elections were not legal because of the means of identification required of persons casting ballots halted election proceedings.

Class Officers

Class officers ruled legally in office by the committee's decision are:

Seniors: Bob Cherney, president; Pat Lawson, vice-president; Dorothy Jean Johnson, secretary, and Mack Hand, treasurer.

Sophomores: Barry Campbell, president; Marge Curtis, vice-president; Pat Sutton, secretary, and Len Barde, treasurer.

The judiciary committee in rendering this decision was not concerned with officers of the Majority Class of 1944.

Committee Dates Mortar Board Jig

Date of the Mortar Board ball was set for Saturday, May 23, 1942, at a meeting of the student affairs committee Tuesday in the personnel office.

Another meeting of the committee will be held today at 1:30 p.m. to decide, among other things, points on the rally Saturday in Portland.

Guild Players Open Season

As its first offering in the season of Guild products, the University theater will present a hare-brained comedy, "Three Cornered Moon," by Gertrude Tonkonogy.

Opening night will come immediately following Armistice day. The play originally scheduled, James Thursber's "The Male Animal," was canceled because of its withdrawal from amateur releases, according to Mrs. Ottilie Seybolt, director of drama.

"Three Cornered Moon" was greeted with lavish applause from the critics. Its first night showing prompted the New York Herald-Tribune to comment that it was "a frisky hop-skip and jump affair" leaping blithely from farce to comedy, from satire to sentiment.

The play strikes a bright, giddy note in the drab mood of today, just as it did on its opening night several years ago.

Special privilege season seats are still available at the office of the drama division—106 Johnson hall.

A bust of Stephen Collins Foster, composer of American folk songs, will be unveiled May 27 at the University Heights campus of New York university.

More than 10,000 University of Texas men take part each year in the school's program of intramural sports for "average athletes."

Radio Program Tells of Clinic

Tonight at 8:30 over KOAC, the department of higher education will sponsor a program on the DeBusk Memorial clinic. Participating in the program will be Dr. H. W. Bernard, assistant professor of education, and Mrs. Nancy Lomax.

Designed to help children with reading difficulties, the clinic was started about 15 years ago on the University campus by Dr. DeBusk and is being carried on by Dr. Elizabeth Montgomery and Dr. Bernard. At present there is only one other clinic of its kind in the West, situated at UCLA.

In the summer teachers come from many points in the East to do work in the DeBusk clinic in order to give better aid to children who have reading deficiencies.

The radio program will present the inside story of this work.
