

No Campus Armistice Celebrations

"There will be no campus celebration of the Armistice holiday since so few students will be here," stated Karl W. Onthank, dean of personnel administration, yesterday in regard to student activities for tomorrow.

"However," he went on to say, "the senior ROTC students are participating in the city celebration and University students are welcome to attend the services."

Featured Speaker

Rev. Edward J. Jones, a veteran of World War I, will be the featured speaker at the special Armistice day services to be held at 10:50 tomorrow morning in the First Christian church at Eleventh and Oak streets. Rev. Jones will take the place of Rev. S. Childers, pastor of the church, who is ill.

Other featured item on the day's program will be a parade starting from the armory at 10 a.m. The Eugene municipal band will lead the parade and Major M. B. Huntley, United States army, retired, will act as grand marshal. Major Huntley will be assisted by disabled war veterans and reserve officers.

Singing on Program

Myrl Garnett, general chairman of the day's activities, has announced that Hal Young, choir director of the First Christian church, will conduct the singing and S. S. George, past department commander of the American Legion, will have charge of the church program.

The program for the entire day is in charge of the Commander's

Hoover Signs Nash Volume

"To John Henry Nash, a great printer, from Herbert Henry Hoover; Lou Henry Hoover" is the inscription on the newest addition to the John Henry Nash collection of the University library.

Mr. Nash makes a practice of having all of his famous books signed either by the author, illustrator, or printer. This book, "Agricola's Dere Metalhea," is one of the first books on metallurgy. The book is by Herbert Hoover and Mrs. Hoover, 1912, and is from the translation of the Isxlaten Eddition of 1556.

According to Mr. Nash, his attempts to have this book signed have been the most difficult he has ever made. Although Mr. Hoover signed readily, Mrs. Hoover was ill and unable to sign for several weeks. It was only after making several trips especially for the purpose of her signature that he found her well enough to sign.

The book is a large folio copy and is bound in vellum.

council, composed of commanders of all Eugene's veteran groups. Assisting Garnett will be Clarence Simon, also a representative of the Commanders' council.

The parade will form at the army and start at 10 a.m. It will proceed down Fifth avenue to Willamette street, up Willamette to Eleventh avenue, and out Eleventh to the church on the corner of Oak street.

Taps will be sounded at the church at 10:55 in tribute to those who were killed in the the first World war 23 years ago.

The marriage of Miss Edyth Jayne Morley to George R. Blodgett, '33, was solemnized in Hubbard June 14.

YW to Handle Campus Drive

As in past years, the community service department of the YWCA will be in charge of the Red Cross drive for funds on the Oregon campus, announced Chairman Anita Simons Sunday.

Definite plans will be drawn up at a meeting within the next few days, Miss Simons said.

Mrs. Genevieve Turnipseed, director of dormitories, is in charge of the general all-campus drive. She announced that faculty solicitations were being made through letters, and not through personal contacts this year.

It is probable that one member of each living organization will be in charge of donations, which will be turned over to the Red Cross by the community service group.

Further plans for carrying out the drive will be announced soon, Miss Simons declared.

Bill Regner Lands In Capsule Camp

"What's loss for one is gain for another."—Anonymous.

Up to date example: Student Health Service took in Bill Regner, loss goes to Oregon's pig-skin packers.

Sunday the infirmary also listed Doris McLain, Milodene Goss, Lorraine Lewis, Maurice O'Connell, Lester Thompson, Stan Boyd, Stewart Smith, Thomas Hardy, and Dr. Lisle Wyatt. Alice Maude Bloodworth, Eathel Sutton, Dan Plaza, and Robert Irvin were dismissed over the weekend.

Reporters Gather

Emerald reporters will meet the end of this week to discuss Emerald business and campus coverage, Bob Frazier, news editor, announced yesterday.

Time and place of the meeting will be revealed later, Frazier said.

Clemes Edits Article

William Clemes, graduate assistant in the college of social science last year, is the author of "Grey Home in the West," which appeared in the magazine section of the Sunday Oregonian.

Gym, Pool to Close

The men's gym and the men's pool will be closed Tuesday, in observance of Armistice day, the PE department announced. Both will be open regular hours today and Wednesday.

Coeds Collect Old Sweaters

Bundles for Britain will become sweaters for Britain on Wednesday, November 26, when an all-campus drive for sweaters, headed by Mary Farr and Mary Huser of the campus home economics departments, will get underway.

Wool sweaters for both men and women and scraps of yarn are especially needed according to Mrs. Farr, who urged that students who go home for Armistice day and Thanksgiving vacation ransack their closets for old sweaters they do not need.

lecting the sweaters from the lives. Orides members will aid in collecting organizations on the 26th. Members of women's houses have already expressed their willingness to cooperate in a Heads of Houses meeting.

Miss Catherine Coleman, '35, and Donald M. Fields, '35, were married September 13.

Rally Squad Needs Two

Persons desiring positions on the rally committee must submit petitions to ASUO President Lou Torgeson or to Secretary Bette Morfitt at the ASUO office in McArthur court before 5 p.m. Thursday.

The executive committee will appoint two new members on the basis of petitions submitted.

One vacancy, for a senior woman, was created when Pat Howard was declared ineligible last week. Charles Mallory will not be in school next term, so a vacancy will be open to a sophomore man.

Clifton Steele, yell duke, has also been declared ineligible. Earle Russell, yell king, will appoint a successor to Steele.

A similar situation existed early this term when Ray Dickson did not return to school. The executive committee appointed George Arbuckle to fill his position.

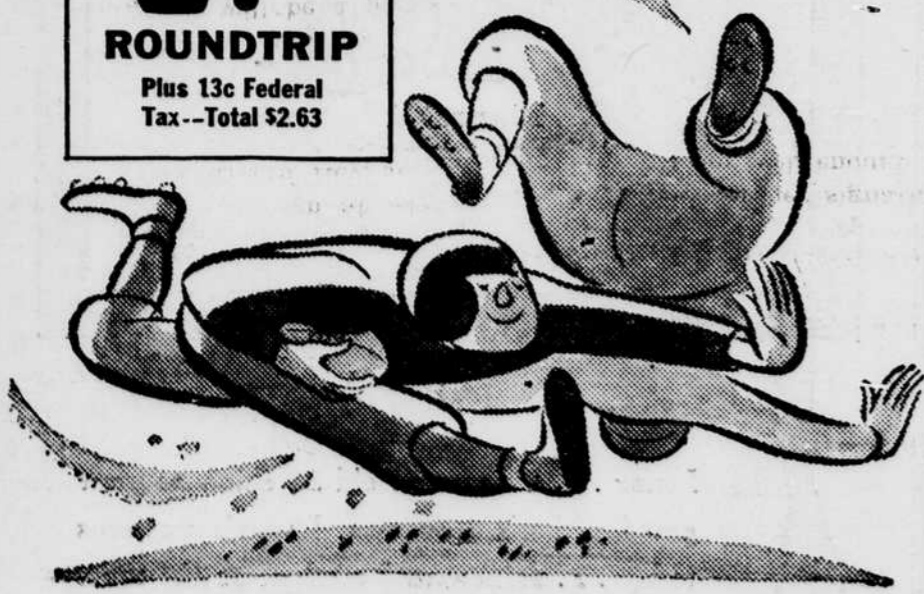

Desk Staff Meeting

Emerald copy desk workers will meet at 7:15 Thursday evening in the Emerald news room, according to Ray Schrick, managing editor.

A complete list of desk editors and copy readers appeared in Saturday's Emerald.

SPECIAL TRAIN TO PORTLAND, NOV. 11 OREGON vs. SANTA CLARA

$2.50
ROUNDTRIP
Plus 13c Federal Tax--Total $2.63

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 11
(Armistice Day Holiday)

LV. EUGENE, S. P. Station 8:30 a. m.

Returning

LV. PORTLAND, Union Station . . 7:45 p. m.

'2.75 ROUNDTRIP (Plus 14c Federal Tax Total $2.89)
Leave Eugene MONDAY, Nov. 10, at 12:15 p. m. or 5:10 p. m.
Return Tuesday Evening 7:45 p. m.

BUY TICKETS NOW

at booth on 13th St., between Oregon and Commerce Buildings. Phone 2200 for information.

Sponsored by

ASSOCIATED STUDENTS, UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

College Play Brings Clothes to Grief We make them Shine Again

A smart coed knows she can enjoy college fun without washday worries! New Service Laundry does your work quickly and efficiently. Call now and have us pick up your laundry so it will be ready for the big weekend.

Phone 825

New Service Laundry
839 High St.

Light Weight, Water Repellent

Zipper Jackets

$4.98

- Fabric treated with duPont ZELAN to repel water
- Three colors: Navy, Tan, Green
- Sizes 36 to 46

Pennney's