Tight Tilt Highlights IM Play

Sigma Nus Beat Fijis in Close Three Games

A close thriller between the Sigma Nus and Fijis in intramural volleyball yesterday featured the third week of donut play.

Sigma Nus Nip Fijis

The Sigma Nus hung on desperately through three tough games to down the Fijis in a close tussle, 16 to 14, 10 to 15, 15 to 10.

With the quartet of Bill Carney, John Bubalo, Ted Sarpola, and Wiercer Brown proving the stalwarts in their offense, the Sigma Nus team outlasted the Alder street boys to take the first game in a well-played overtime.

The Fijis roared back in the second game to down the Sigma Nus, but the first game winners had too much left and outlasted the Fijis in the last game to take the match.

Phi Delts Wax Zeta Hall

Though not playing up to their full strength, the Phi Delts, defending champs, downed Zeta hall, 15 to 7, 15 to 8.

The Phi Delts' play all through the two contests was ragged and far below the last year par. The brunt of the defending champ's offense were Tom Morgan and Pat Cloud.

Theta Chis Whip Canard Club

The Theta Chi volleyball machine drove to a one-sided 15 to 1, 15 to 7 win over Canard club. The lineup of the winner was bare of so-called shining lights, as the well geared machine rolled smoothly over the hapless Canard boys.

DUs Whip Kirkwood

The DUs drove to a 15 to 3, 15

to 3 win over the Kirkwood co-op. The DU boys were playing far below last season's par but were good enough to down the co-op boys.

Wallace White and Nick Hargess led the offense for the winners.

Sig Eps Trounce Sherry Ross

The Sig Eps thundered over Sherry Ross by an overwhelming 15 to 1, 15 to 0 count. Led by the sparkling play of Herb Williamson and Morrie Sullivan.

The Sig Eps were in a far different class from the helpless Sherry Ross boys and scored at will.

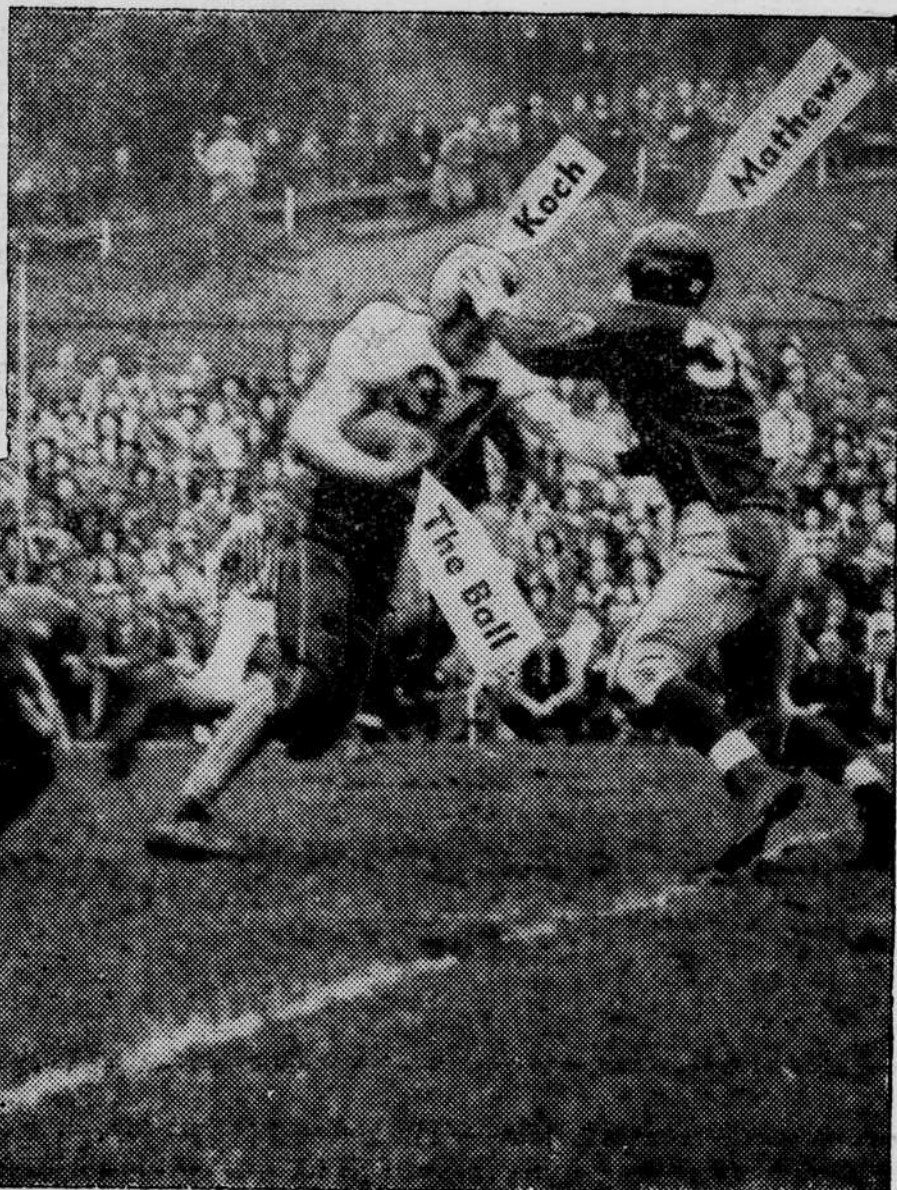

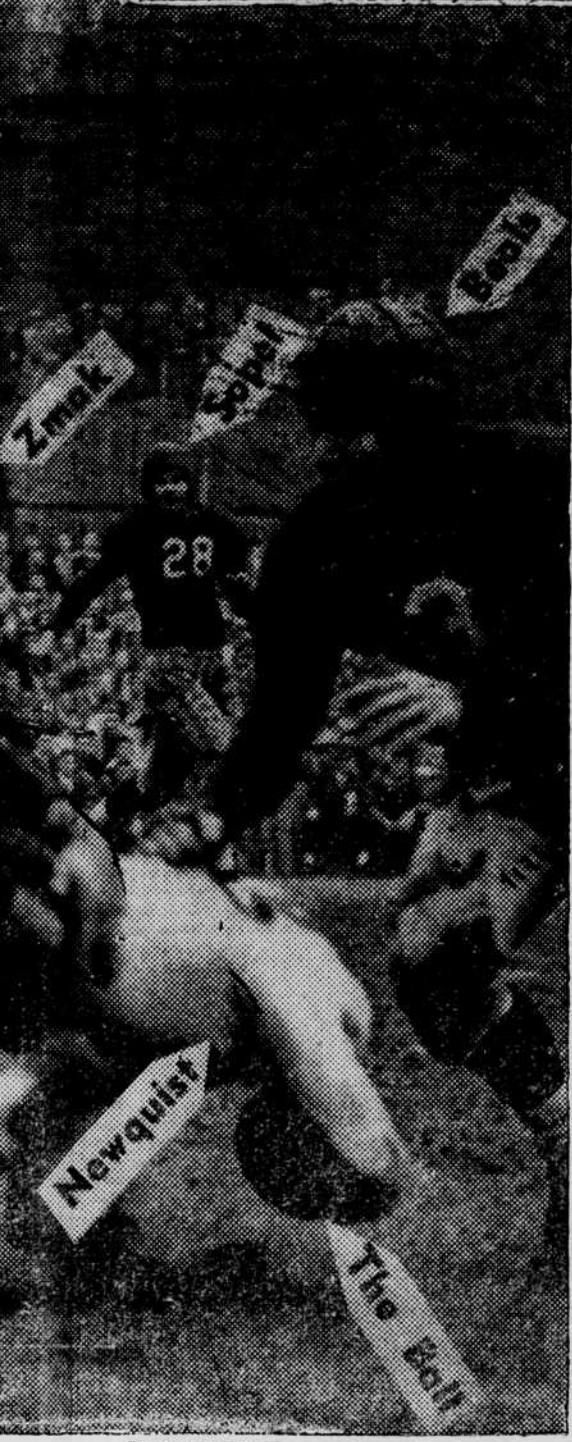

Omega hall won from the Sammies by default.

A FEW LINE PLAYS

Pictures to the left and below are a few line plays in the Santa Clara-Oregon game which turned into an air battle par excellence before the timekeeper's guns wrote finis to the battle.

To the left is shown sophomore Jimmy Newquist being hit by three Bronc tacklers after reeling off enough yardage for a first down.

Hobson Runs 'Tall Firs'; Opener Eight Days Off

Just eight shopping days left! —No, not the number of days before the Christmas rush, but merely the number of days Hoop Coach Hobby Hobson has left in which to shop around in his squad of 14 ball players to select a starting five for the opening game.

November 21 has been named as the initial "wearing of the green" when the Ducks lock horns with the always-tough Signal Oil crew of Portland. Last year the Oilers, paced by rubber-legged Chuck Patterson, took the full measure of the Webfoots.

Oregon Kept Running

Meanwhile, the Igloo floor has resounded to the constant trample of many feet as Hobson has been driving his charges through the rigid preparatory workouts. Fast breaking exercises from rebounds has been instigated as daily routine for the Driving Ducks.

Wednesday, Hobby devoted considerable time to plays which featured breaking, screening, and cross-court blocking. Timing of plays and ball handling was also stressed.

Showing the way in this high-speed offense was a pair of quick-moving guards—Captain Porky Andrews and Paul Jackson. The latter was all over the floor, breaking-in, screening, and keep-

What Coed Grid Fans Shouldn't Do

Why do women go to the football games and what do they do when they do go? This is the problem that is puzzling Cliff Giffin, Oregon's sophomore tackle, today.

Last night Margaret Brown, president of AOPI was keeping the conversation alive at the exchange dessert with the Pi Kaps when she came up with this little gem. Talking to Giffin she innocently asked,

"Cliff, did you go to the game in Portland yesterday?"

Miss Brown couldn't understand the reason for Mr. Giffin's cool answer.

Note to Miss Brown: Mr. Giffin was one of the 22 boys in the funny looking outfits that were running around on the field Tuesday.

ing the tempo of the regulars' attack up to a high pitch.

Don Kirsch looked very good for the reserves and boomed in constantly for lay-in shots.
