

Ray Segale, one of Vaughn Corley's huge linesmen, was driven indoors yesterday because of a continuous Oregon mist.

Stanford-WSC Grid Tilt Question Mark on Coast

By HARRY GLICKMAN

Question: "Will Washington State—who shattered the Rose Bowl dreams of Oregon State by upsetting the Beavers 7 to 0, and knocked Oregon's championship possibilities for a complete loop by defeating the Webfoots 13 to 0, and bounced the preseason favorites, California, out of the race with a 13 to 0 upset—will the Cougars tie the Coast conference race into a knot by polishing off Stanford?"

Answer: "The answer will be known today when Washington State and Stanford collide at Palo Alto in the feature attraction on the coast's bill."

The Indians and the T-formation are rated a favorite over the boys from the Palouse hills. However, when Babe Hollingbery's stalwarts unravel their bag of tricks, and when Bill Sewell starts heaving passes to Nick Suseoff and Dale Gentry, Stanford may find more trouble than anticipated.

WSC is the final stepping stone before Stanford faces its traditional rival, California, in its season's finale. Should they be able to hurdle the Cougars, then nothing short of another of the coast conference's famous football earthquakes can keep the Indians from bellowing their war whoops in Pasadena on New Year's day.

Both WSC and Stanford have been pronounced mentally and physically fit by their respective mentors, Hollingbery and Shaughnessy. An interesting passing duel is expected between Billy Sewell and Frankie Albert. It will probably be a wide-open, spectacular affair, and the outcome is a toss-up.

Berkeley Way

Over at Berkeley, Oregon State, just one rung behind Stanford on the ladder, faces California's hot and cold Bears in a game which the Beavers must win to stay in the running. California, an improved outfit of late, is expected to give OSC plenty of trouble, although the Beavers are favored to win.

UCLA steps outside the conference to tangle with Camp Haan, an army eleven, at Los Angeles. As in the case with most of the army teams, Camp Haan boasts many ex-college stars on its roster, and the game should be an interesting affair. The two king's-x members of the conference, Idaho and Montana, go into their annual shindig at Moscow, and the game is expected to produce its usual display of fireworks. These two schools, who become bona fide members next year, are rated on a par, although Montana has fared better in games with mutual round-robin opponents.

USC, Oregon, and Washington take the day off. The Trojans rest for their annual inter-sectional game with Notre Dame, to be played next Saturday at North Bend. Oregon and Washington draw a week of rest prior to settling their interstate feud next Saturday at Seattle.

*the Dope
Bucket*

I've been hiding in a waste paper basket here in the sports room for some five weeks now—why should I pick games? There are enough dopes on this paper now trying to pick scores. But after seeing what some of them guys are putting out with I think I'll crawl out from all these cigarette butts, debris and what have you in a sports room and second guess a few myself.

The papers say WSC is playing Stanford this afternoon. My condolences to the Cougars. You had a lot of fun beating Oregon State and Oregon, but brother, you're in for a beating—shall we say about 19 to nothing.

In another football fracas in the southlands where all adverse weather blows in from the neighboring states, OSC is the guest of the Cal Bear. The Beavers aren't going to be beat for a couple of weeks—Oregon gets the privilege—so, as to be on record as saying something, the dope'll say OSC to win this one, 13 to naught.

The air-crazy Santa Clara crew is slated for a get-togeth-

Sigma Nus, DUs, Delts Win 'B' Volleyball Tilts

Campbell Club, Phi Kaps Victors By Defaults

By AL GOULD

Volleyball teams in the "A" league took a back seat Friday afternoon as the outfits participating in the "B" league again took the spotlight with four closely contested clashes, and two defaults.

Chi Psis Top Gamma Hall

The Chi Psis topped the Gamma hall aggregation in two torrid contests, the first game ending 15-12, and the second 15-13. The Gamma hall outfit found the deadly spike shots of the Chi Phis too much to handle, although the two teams were on even terms outside of that one department of play, and in the final accounting, it was the efficient net work of the fraternity boys that proved the difference.

Sigma Nus Edge Kirkwood Co-op

In the second game of the day, the Sigma Nu B outfit had things their own way in the first clash winning 15-5, but a rejuvenated Kirkwood co-op team made them hustle for the clinching game, losing 15-13 in a thrilling finish. Dick Whitman and Bud Cote sparked the Sigma Nus in their win, rolling up a large lead in the first game. In the second game the Kirkwood players showed a little more fire, and lost out in the game's closing stages.

DUs Topple Phi Psis

Delta Upsilon, and two boys named Johnny Williams and Gordon Jones proved too much for Phi Kappa Psi to handle, and they dropped two games by wide margins. The first ended 15-7 and the second 15-9. Hank Camp provided most of the competition furnished by Phi Kappa Psi.

Delts Nip Canard Club

Delta Tau Delta, led by Jerry Battles and Bruce Giesy had but little trouble with the Canard club team, winning both sets, 15-6, and 15-12. After taking the first game with ease, the Delts coasted through the second game, content to win. Battles and Giesy were just too much for the Canard outfit. Through both games, Giesy would set up the ball for er with St. Mary's. The dope's other clean shirt says that the Broncs will bounce back to take the SM boys about 7 to 0.

In the way of filling in a few more lines, we'll say Portland to beat Gonzaga, 13 to 7.

Any resemblance between tripe in this bucket and the true scores is merely accidental so don't quote it.

Constance Vacations

Clifford L. Constance, assistant registrar, who attended the conference of the Pacific Coast association of Collegiate Registrars in Santa Barbara with Registrar Earl M. Pallett, will return to Eugene on Tuesday, November 18.

He went from the conference, of which he was treasurer, to Los Angeles for a short vacation. Dr. Pallett returned Wednesday, November 12.

Football via Radio

Northwestern-Notre Dame	11:15	KOIN, KEX
Oregon State-California	1:45	KALE
Stanford-WSC	1:45	KEX
Texas-Texas Christian	12:15	KGW
Sunday
Portland University-Gonzaga	2:00	KALE

Battles, and he would blast the oval across the net for an unreturnable ace.

Campbell, Pi Kaps Win on Default

Campbell club picked up a game by default from Sherry Ross when their opponents failed to appear at the scheduled time. By previous arrangement, a team is given ten minutes to be ready to play after the scheduled time is past. If the team does not put in an appearance the opposing team is credited with a win. This is to aid in keeping all the games played on schedule.

Pi Kappa Alpha also picked up a victory via the forfeit route when their opponents, Zeta hall, failed to show.

RAIN!!!

REPELLERS AND ACCESSORIES

Close-Out Sale on RAINCOATS

Reversibles	$3.98
Corduroy and Plaid
Other Styles	$1.98 and $0.98
Oregon Slickers	$2.95
Waterproof Gabardine Jackets	$7.50

RAIN HATS in All Colors
Women's "Shower Toes" $.50

The 'CO-OP'

Refreshments?

This weekend and during the Thanksgiving holiday students will head for our specials. Join the crowd and refresh yourself. Quick service and high quality food.

Our banquet room is just the thing for your student parties and dinners. Accommodates 15 to 100.

McCrary's Cafe

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wills, Owners
878 Willamette Eugene