

Alumni Awards Ready For Leading Houses

Men's and women's living organizations will again vie for the honor of registering the most alumni at Homecoming this year as the alumni office sponsors the annual contest which determines which house has listed the highest number of alumni in proportion to the number of members in the house.

One cup will be awarded to the highest men's house and one will go to the highest women's house, according to Elmer Fansett, alumni secretary.

Kappa Sigma and Chi Omega have retained the high spots for the last two years.

Gamma Phi Honors Alumnae at Banquet

Members of Gamma Phi Beta sorority entertained alumnae Sunday at a founders' day banquet at the chapter house. Guests included Mrs. Donald M. Erb, and Mrs. Orin F. Stafford. Elizabeth Steed was in charge of the banquet.

Frank G. Bennett, '38, graduated this summer from the graduate school of library science at the University of Southern California.

OWNERS MR. & MRS. NEWT SIDE PATER Pat Taylor

Things this week have been more or less of a washout... what with the flood et al... Howsomever, things are looking up with Homecoming in the offing... The game should be a slickeroo—we always enjoy beating OSC... Then, too, the jig should be a fine type dance... darn it. The boy we asked just called and said he'd broke both his legs and fractured his skull, which sounds a bit thick (and we do mean the skull)... Oh well, we know of a very fancy bear trap we can borrow...

Last weekend, with its 17,000 house dances was fun... in a word, whee-ee-ee!... Shirley Gravely had the most original idea of the bunch at the Theta dance... Ask her about it... Don't know whether we'd be allowed to say in the noospeppa that she went as a red light to their slum dance... She's very red headed, you know... and H. J. Kerr, who is a lady no end, as a dead end kid...

As this goes to press, is coming up T. Giving... So everybody's is wending homeward... Lots and lots will California here they come where they will thrash about and play at the top, bottom and middle of the mark... Hark! Hark! The Mark!... Then back for Homecoming... Happy carefree collich days... And of course all the alums must come in and side-sit... Know of nothing more nostalgic... (that means bringing back old times)... nothing's changed but the juke box, and that very leedle... We trust we'll be seeing you come Homecoming...

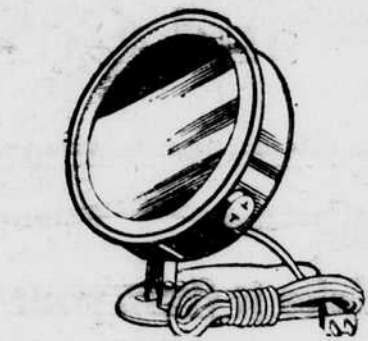

Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Winbush, '38 (Marvel M. Twiss, '36) are the parents of a son, Michael, born the first part of July.

Miss Dorothy Anne Clark, '36, has returned from Honolulu, where she has been making her home for the past few years.

Portland Radio Stations Will Plug Homecoming

A broadcast from KGW or KEX in Portland next week, featuring University of Oregon talent, will remind Portlanders of Oregon's Homecoming, Chuck Boice, radio promotion chairman, announced Monday.

Definite time of the broadcast has not been set, but Arden Pengran of the KGW-KEX staff in a letter to the Homecoming committee said he was anxious to aid the UO Homecoming by presenting a program over one of the Oregonian stations. Final production arrangements will be made by Jerry Lakefish, script writer.

The facilities of KORE and KOAC are also to be used by the committee. At least one 15-minute show will come from KORE, while the directors of the KOAC University hour program are co-operating in publicizing the occasion.
