UP AN' AT IT

Warren Taylor, one of Oregon's few "Tall Firs" dropping a setup through. Taylor, a junior, has been showing well in his second year of varsity play. At the present he is on the sidelines with a cold but is due back to the fold soon.

Hoopmen Nip Oilers; Set Sights for Rubes

Number one hoop hurdle surmounted with success, Hobby Hobson's Green and Yellow charges are now turning their attention to plenty of work in preparation for their second obstacle of the young basketball season. Wednesday, December 3, the Ducks face the highly-touted Rubenstein's Oregonians in their second game.

While the Oregon student population in Eugene was almost nil over the holidays due to Thanksgiving, the Webfoot quintet procededly held their ground and succeeded to open the hoop season against Signal Oil Friday at the Igloo. In retaliation for a lacing administered last year by the Portlanders, Oregon turned on the heat to coast in by a 48 to 31 score to even up matters.

Wren Shines

Coach Hobson passed around the plaudits with "everybody played fairly well," but gave particular mention to Sophomore Bob Wren. This husky forward was the thorn in the Oilers' side as he flipped in 11 points and made things miserable, in general, for the visitors.

The entire 11-man squad saw action for the Ducks with no one man in for over 30 minutes. Ten of the Oregon players found the basket for at least one point.

Don Stitt, ex-Oregon State Beaver, gave the Webfoots their most trouble, tying Wren for high point honors for the contest. Chuck Patterson, last year's game wrecker with 21 points, was quelled by the Duck defense and came up with just one field goal.

Offense Stressed

Workouts Tuesday were aimed mainly at smoothing up the offense and getting the players into condition so they can last a full game.

Colds have caused no end of trouble in the varsity ranks, but only one, Warren Taylor, was serious enough to be held out of practice yesterday. His return is expected within the next few days.

Sigma Chis, Phi Psis Win Top 'A' IM Games

SAEs, Phi Kaps Kappa Sigs Post Victories

By TOM HUEBNER

The broad beam of the intramural "spotlight" swung over, faltered slightly, and finally came to rest yesterday on the three top teams vying for first place in the 1941 edition of the volleyball tourney.

This situation was brought about when the Sigma Chi outfit squeezed out a 15 to 7 and 15 to 8 victory over a powerful Beta team to tie Sigma Chi, Beta Theta Pi, and SAE for first place in the "A" league.

Phi Psis Win

A plucky Phi Psi sextet featuring the sterling play of Steve Bush defeated a not-so-lucky Alpha hall bunch, 15 to 7 and 15 to 5. Despite the backing of "Hoot" Bailey, powerful "spiker," the Alpha hall outfit was forced to submit the game to their opponents.

Kappa Sigma added another to their list of wins when their volleyball representation trounced that of the Yeomen, 15 to 8 and 15 to 7, to steal win honors. The Kappa Sig team was strengthened to a large degree by Bill Jameson and Jim Higgins to whom much credit can be given for the outcome of the game.

An up-and-coming Pi Kap aggregation took Gamma hall down the line to the tune of 15 to 8 and 15 to 3. By the sparkling manner in which Pi Kaps, Bob Cheney and Dale Stevens conducted the game, the game was rated as a "cinch."

"B" Play

"B" league competition in yesterday's tourney featured the Sigma Chi victory over Alpha hall, 15 to 4 and 15 to 2, and the 15 to 8—15 to 13 victory of SAE over the Betas.

Cutler-Blair Win Handball Doubles Crown

Chuck Cutler and Robert Blair blasted their way to the championship in the all-campus handball tournament yesterday with a one-sided win over Dion Osbourn and Robert Duden.

The duo of Cutler and Blair had moved through the early rounds of play with little trouble, and entered the finals without the loss of a single game. They brushed aside the opposing team with little trouble to take the crown.

Cutler also kept alive his hopes for the singles crown by moving into the finals in the handball singles with a 11 to 0, 21 to 4 de-

'Lugs' Battle 'Slugs' Friday In Intersquad Swim Meet

By DON RICHARDSON

It first started when the varsity swimming team challenged the frosh to meet them in battle to settle, once and for all, which was the best team.

When Coach Mike Hoyman saw that the frosh would be at a disadvantage because of their inferiority of numbers, he did a little switching to even up the sides.

The final result is that, instead of holding a varsity-frosh meet next Friday, there will be a supercolossal intersquad exhibition contest, open to the student body.

On one side will be the "Slugs," captained by Cub Callis and Jerry Huestis; opposing them will be the "Lugs," led by Chuck Nelson and Jack Robinson. The winners get to hack the losers, so, many of the boys will be spurred on by this thought.

The lineup for this extravaganza is as follows:

300-yard medley: Slugs—Callis, J. Huestis, Allen; Lugs—Nelson, R. Huestis, Peterson.

220-yard freestyle: Slugs—Smith, Prowell; Lugs—Robinson, Hanke, Hazard.

60-yard freestyle: Slugs—Weitzel, Hally; Lugs—Mead, Davis.

Diving: Basmajian.

100-yard freestyle: Slugs—Weitzel, Allen, Smith; Lugs—Robinson, Mead.

150-yard backstroke: Slugs—Callis, Prowell, Ashrow; Lugs—Nelson, Tugman.

220-yard breast stroke: Slugs—J. Huestis, Belding; Lugs—R. Huestis, Bigelow.

440-yard freestyle: Slugs—

cision over Loyal Lang. He will face Jim Rathbun in the finals.

In the ping pong singles Bob Whitely and Irvin Mann are in the finals. Whitely is after his second crown in the campus sport, having won the ping pong tournament last year.

In the tennis doubles, Peter G'egos and Jim Thoburn, and Russel and Wilson are in the finals.

Cliff Farmer and Robert Duck, and William Jameson and John Latourette are in the finals in the golf doubles.

Smith, Weitzel; Lugs—Robinson, Hanke.

440-yard relay: Slugs—Callis, Huestis, Allen, Ashrow; Lugs—Nelson, Mead, Peterson, Basmajian.

The first race starts at 4 p.m. sharp, and, by the way, it's free.
