Take Your Pick Full Social Calendar Set for Gala Weekend

By LOIS HULSER

Here we are again with the big Homecoming weekend which will feature luncheons, dinners, a rally dance, game, reception in the armory for alums, and the big Homecoming dance with the second one o'clock permission of the term. Everyone's really getting into the spirit of the thing. Proof no Friday aft. classes.

Woody Hite's band is coming down from Portland to play for the dance Saturday evening. Carolyn Holmes, social chairman, says short silks are definitely the thing.

Informal Mix

Friday evening, Oregon alums, students and Oregon State students will climax the rally day with an informal mix in Gerlinger. Campus clothes are vogue for the occasion.

Living organizations are giving luncheons, dinners, firesides, and stag dinners for their guests.

Coed Capers

By BARBARA LAMB

It's a woman's world . . . and they'll all be at the big sale of lost and found articles at the AWS auction today.

Mary Louise Vincent, head of the sale, reveals that a great variety of goods will be put up on the auctioneer's block at that time . . . Rohda Harkson has her eye on some sweaters for the Kwamas to weave into rugs . . . Marge Curtis states that she is going to bid for some eversharp pencils that won't wear out on her reporting beat.

Rumors have come to this column that Nancy Riesch and Marge Dibble are deeply wounded . . . because they weren't asked to be the auctioneers . . . mighty gavel wielders, those two . . .

Oh, yes, a flash from campus social chairman, Carolyn Holmes, gives the info that the correct dress for the auction is a coat with many large pockets . . . to carry home purchases.

AWS president, Elizabeth "Steedie" Steed, invites all to the sale . . . and in the same breath thanks the campus coeds for the coed capers spirit . . . Adele Canada and Babs DuPuy did a swell job.

The sophomore gals under the direction of Kwama Janet Ross have decided they will form a women's ROTC unit after the success they achieved with their prize winning class skit at the Capers . . . The Three C's . . . And Maxine Hansen found a letterman's sweater that fit her perfectly . . . thanks, fellows.

Oh, yes, it's a woman's world.

Date Fetchers For Weekend

Clothes for Homecoming are tops in the college lassies' thoughts with the busy weekend of super dates, the game, Home coming dance, coke dates, and the noisy excitement of the big game rally.

What to wear? For an extra deluxe sweater combination, how about those dreamy Angora slippers in luscious pastel shades? Or if you prefer to dress with heels, try a sporty red number complete with swingaroo skirt and short military sleeves.

Furs for the kickoff? Whether it's coats or suits, a pair of white rabbit mittens with colorful suede palms will add that Betty Coed touch to any costume.

Date fetcher for the Homecoming dance is a suit dress of Kelly green wool-jersey with luggage brown accessories. Right up to the minute in latest fashions will be girls sporting the new ultra smart white wools. Practical, or not, they will ring the bell for style.
