

Homecoming Plans Include Giant Rally, Variety Show

Webfoots will rally to McArthur court for the Homecoming variety show Friday night, George Arbuckle, rally chairman, announced Wednesday.

Andy Landforce, president of the associated students of OSC, will speak to the combined audience of alumni and ralliers, and Bob White, OSC yell leader, will head an Oregon State rally section.

Campus Parade

Oregon ralliers will start at the ATO house and the Chi Psi lodge at 8 Friday evening and snowball through the campus to the Igloo. Each section will be led by half of the University band, rally squad members, Kwama, and Skull and Dagger.

All living organizations are asked to carry rally and house signs, and men's units are asked to carry torches. "Prizes will be awarded for the best rally signs," Arbuckle declared.

Variety Show

Variety showmen will go on the air over a three-station northwest hookup from 9 until 9:30. Music, magic, comedy, yells, tap dancing, and patter by Yell King Earle Russell will highlight the show.

A Duck dance will be held in Gerlinger second floor immediately after the variety show. Dancing will be free and to recorded music, Arbuckle said.

Student ralliers are asked to sit downstairs in the Igloo.

Players Air Skit For Alum Meet

Oregon will go on the air for Homecoming over KGW tonight from 9:30 to 10, Chuck Boice, radio chairman, announced Wednesday.

A complete musical variety written by Jerry Lakefish will be presented.

The program will feature the AOPi trio, Ted Hallock and his Jivin' Five, with Aldeen Gates as singer, and Chuck Boice, Alan Foster, Bob Weston, and Pat Howard in the radio dramatic group.

Announcing will be handled by Dick Turner, Boice said. The radio show is being directed by Dorothy Durkee.

Province Presidents Visit Pi Phi, Alpha Chi

Province presidents of Pi Beta Phi and Alpha Chi Omega came to the campus this week.

Mrs. James Kerns of Klamath Falls arrived Tuesday to visit the Oregon chapter of Alpha Chi Omega until Friday. She is a member of the Oregon State chapter. Pi Phi entertained Mrs. Stewart Tuft, an alumna of the local chapter, now province president, for three days. She left because of the cold weather and the danger of colds.

Gestapo's Purge

(Continued from page one)

Ernest G. Moll, professor of English, and Marvin A. Krenk, instructor in speech, who did not appear yesterday have two hacks coming today.

Violators

Other violators are:

Jack Lansing, Bob Hill, Frank Bosch, Don Myrick, Byron Van Metre, Jack Turpin, Morrie Burgess, Tom Whitmore, Bob Whiteley, Bob Brown, Walker Treece, Carl Little, Roy Kramer, Gale Quinn, Bill Maltman, Chuck Phipps (because of his "law school attitude"), Preston Phipps, Pat Cloud, Howard Jenks, John Cramer, Tom Autzen, Bill Fugit, and Bill O'Malley.

Sign Contest Judges Picked

Judges for the Homecoming sign contest were selected Wednesday, Bob Whitely, sign chairman, has announced. Those selected are Eyley Brown, associate professor of architecture; N. B. Zane, associate professor of space arts; Mrs. Ruth M. Thompson, instructor in business administration; L. Kenneth Shumaker, assistant professor of education; and Marvin Krenk, instructor in speech.

Judging will begin at 6 p.m. Friday evening. Results will be announced at the Homecoming dance.

Cups Offered

The two winners will receive new cups which have been specially made for the occasion by the Homecoming committee. These cups will be engraved and will be the permanent possessions of the winning houses.

Organizations planning to have signs with motors might look for motors and parts in Portland, Whitely suggested, as the supply in Eugene is diminishing.

Periodical Department Adds New Magazines

Recently received by the periodical department of the University library are three new magazines, The Far Eastern Quarterly, which is a review of Eastern Asia and the adjacent Pacific islands. This quarterly is published by the Eastern association. Harold J. Noble, associate professor of history, is a member of the advisory editor's board. Mrs. Gertrude B. Warner, director of the art museum, is a patron of this magazine.

The second new subscription is The Journal of Economic History, published by the University press at New York.

Received on exchange is Finnish, a magazine of press comments on Finland's reply to American memoranda.

Graduate Student Gets Research Fellowship

Trustees of the Lakeview Logging company trust fund have awarded a fellowship of $500 to Robert L. Stephenson, student assistant curator of anthropology, according to the anthropology department. Stephenson is carrying on advanced studies at the University, working toward a master of arts degree.

Stephenson was graduated from the University in 1940, and for the past two years has been in charge of the research laboratory at the University, heading one of the crews which made a statewide archeological survey of Texas.

The Lakeview Logging company, through its trust fund, awards scholarships to University students each year, but this is the first research fellowship to be given.

Bird Bangers Meet

The Badminton club will meet in Gerlinger hall tonight at 7:30. The University "birdbusters" will play the Eugene Recreation club.

ISA Election Voting Time Designated

To speed next Tuesday's ISA elections at the YMCA house, ballots will be handed out to voting independents at the doorway. Tentative plans are also being arranged to have organizations vote at designated times, Steve Worth, independent leader, said yesterday.

The names of independents who vote will be checked against a list to be obtained from the office of the dean of men.

Probable Hours

Election hours, yet to be verified by the independents' election board, will probably begin at 8 a.m. and continue through the day until 5 p.m.

Candidates for ISA cabinet positions are reported to be planning no extensive campaign activities, but are relying almost wholly on their individual merits for election.

Representative List

Following is a list of those nominated at the Monday evening mass meeting:

For freshman representative: Fritz Giesecke, Audrey Holliday, Ralph Johnson, Harold Locke, and Bill Pillsbury.

For sophomore representative: Franky Nelson and Fritz Timmen.

For junior representative: Johnnie Kahananui, Elaine Lee, George Mosher, and Mildred Wilson.

For senior representative: Warren Phillips.

For representatives from the campus at large: Marvin Gorrie, Gerald Huestis, Milton Small, and Erwin Snyder.

Names of other candidates not nominated at the meeting may be written on the ballot at time of election.

Hoyt Talks to SDX's On Wine, Women, Etc.

An hour lecture by Ep Hoyt on "New Orleans—Wine, Women and Song" featured a meeting of Sigma Delta Chi, national professional journalistic fraternity, Wednesday.

Appointed as the "Toughie" committee—traditional disciplinary group—were Hoyt, Lee Flatberg, Bernie Engel, and Dewey Ray.

ADK Meets Thursday

Karl W. Onhank, dean of personnel administration, will conduct a meeting Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the men's lounge of Gerlinger hall to discuss the employment opportunities of sociology graduates.

Oregon's chapter of Alpha Kappa Delta, sociology honorary, is sponsoring the meeting.

WEBFOOTS!
only 20
Shopping Days
Till Vacation!
Do Your Christmas Shopping
Now!

Local Keyboard Artist Undergoes Operation

Jane Thacher, widely known pianist and professor of piano in the school of music, is at Sacred Heart hospital recuperating from an operation.

Her husband, W. F. G. Thacher, professor of English and advertising at the University, says her condition is satisfactory but that doctors advise against visitors except members of the family.

Mrs. Thacher was taken ill in Seattle where she and her family were visiting over the Thanksgiving weekend, but she was able to return to Eugene for attention.

Hopkins to Play

George Hopkins, professor of piano, will play over KOAC Wednesday evening at 8:40. His program will include the G Minor Rhapsody by Brahms, Tango by Albeniz Hopkins, and "La Compara" by Lecuona.

Frosh Males To Scrub Seal

Freshman, under Vic Atiyeh and Order of the "O" men, are to meet at 1 p.m. Friday in front of Villard to wash the Oregon seal according to announcement Wednesday by Jim Rathbun, "O" president.

Immediately after polishing the brasswork the freshmen will go in a body to Skinner's butte to paint the Oregon "O" and post guards who will remain on duty until Sunday morning.

The "O" will be kept inviolate by freshmen working in shifts, according to organizations. Any weapons except firearms are permissible, and plans to mine the surrounding area are entirely false, a source near the riot squad chairman said late yesterday.

Shopping the Town

With LEITH BROWN

Stepping High, Wide and Handsome . . .

If you've danced your poor li'l ol' formal slippers right off your feet, you're going to love the elegant formal footgear at MILLER'S. Slippers striped with gold and silver metal that won't tarnish and alternating white stripes. Open heel and toe, yet firm enough across the toe to make for good dancing. A 2½-inch heel to give you the proper height. A knot of the cloth on top of the toe for splash. Fancy feet for $4.95.

It's Worth Pullin' Strings . . .

And dropping hints to make Santa Claus bring the bright and shining gold Christmas tree at TIFFANY-DAVIS. This tiny 5-inch tree has its surprise inside instead of under. It separates in the middle to show 3 bottles of D'Orsay's lovely perfume. Trophee, Le Dandy, Toujours Fidele. A perfect gift for only $3.75.

Cheerio Ol' Choppy . . .

Pip pip and everything veddy veddy British which all leads up to the "Britisher" slipover sweater at PENNEY'S. An extra long length that makes sloppy joes look like they forgot to grow. A large knit that gives the appearance of being hand-knit. All wool in blue, navy, red, and yellow. A lot of sweater for $2.98.

You'll Want to Go Places . . .

In the ariel blue jersey at BEARD'S. Soft material of wool and rayon that can be beautifully gathered. The skirt is made with a straight piece down the front with pieces gathered at the hipline on both sides. It is gathered at the shoulders to make a soft front. Wing collar and short sleeves. Two large silver flower buttons and a flat belt add the finishing touches. $22.75.

Lush to the Touch . . .

Is the new shipment of cashmere sweaters at RUSSELL'S. A V-neck style in three colors. A shell pink that would go with blues, a deep new red to wear with greens, and a medium blue that goes perfectly with brown. Costs $8.95—remember it's cashmere m'dear.

Nothing Old Fashioned . . .

About Nylons at the BROADWAY. More lovely colors than you've ever found in Nylons before. Zorina, a light tan shade . . . Pavlawa, with a hint of wine . . . Gypsy, your favorite tan . . . Carmencita, a rich brown shade . . . Tanagra, a reddish tan for evening. Snag resistant and clear sheer texture. $1.35 to $1.85.

Member the Three Little Kittens . . .

That lost their mittens, etc. . . Well if you're in the same fix these cold and frosty ayems, you'd better hop down to WARD'S mitten counter. All leather mittens, fleece lined in blue, red, brown, and green with white stitching around the edges. . . Tucked at the wrist for 98c. White, blue, or red bunny fur mittens with poplin cloth water-repellent palms for $1.19. Gay yarn mittens in all colors up to 98c.

A Prize Package . . .

If it contains the white fluffy bunny cloth robe found at HADLEYS! Snowy white with blue satin trim . . . full skirt . . . wide cinch belt that ties in front . . . big patch pockets. Adds up to extra elegant lounging, no less.

ARRID helps those lovely dresses stay lovely. A new cream deodorant that has been awarded the Approval Seal of the American Institute of Laundering for being harmless to fabrics.