

Positions Open In Coast Guard

United States coast guard has announced the 1942 competitive examination for appointment of cadets to the coast guard academy to be held May 13, 1942, according to information received from the dean of men's office.

This examination is open to University men between the ages of 17 and 22 years. The mental requirements are, in general, those necessary for admission to engineering colleges.

Located in East

The Coast Guard academy is located at New London, Connecticut. The course of instruction is basically scientific and engineering in character. Annual cruises are made to foreign ports.

Pay of a cadet while undergoing instruction is $780 per year, plus an allowance for subsistence. After graduation, a cadet is eligible for a commission in the coast guard as ensign.

Details Available

Detailed requirements for entrance and descriptive information may be obtained by addressing the commandant, U. S. Coast Guard, Washington, D. C.

Virgil D. Earl, dean of men, urges men interested in the coast guard to contact him at his office in Johnson hall.

Dean Earl also has received some new information on life in the American field service, volunteer ambulance corps, which he will pass on to those students interested in the work.

Criminology Students Visit State Institutes

Members of Dr. S. H. Jameson's criminology class visited the three state institutions in Salem December 2, on an all-day trip that included several hours of classes and lectures.

The state asylum for the insane, the Fairview home for the feeble minded, and the state penitentiary were visited and studied. Several doctors from the institutions spoke to the students.

Dr. Jameson expressed the opinion that the value of the clinical presentation and case observation far exceeded anything gained by classroom lectures.

This Is One Christmas for Sentiment

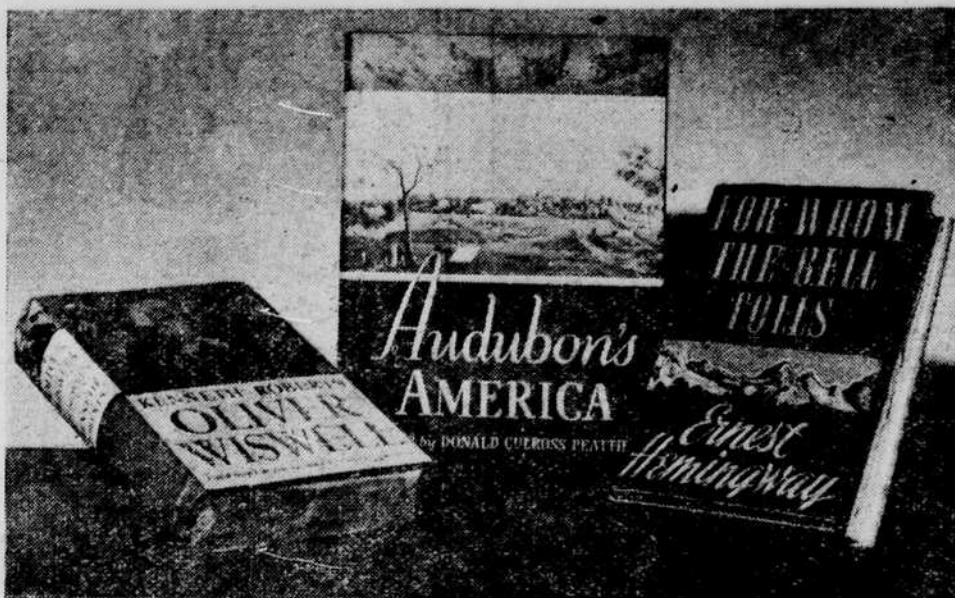

This is the time to be with loved ones — to clasp hands and renew pledges of friendship — to be frankly sentimental. This is Christmas and at no other time in the year do warm feelings and fond words seem more fitting! Merry Christmas, say we, from the bottom of our hearts!

Law Professor Goes To Athletic Conclave

Orlando J. Hollis, professor of law, left for Palm Springs, Calif., last Friday afternoon where he will attend the Pacific Coast athletic conference's regular December meeting. His official capacity is faculty athletic representative for the University of Oregon.

Coach Tex Oliver and Anse Cornell will join him there on their way home from the Texas game. The conference will last until Wednesday.

Artists Solve Gift Troubles; Make Their Own

Christmas shopping will be much simplified for students in the jewelry class of the applied design department if they use the many pieces of jewelry they have made this term for presents.

Some students have made as many as 30 lapel pins and two sterling silver rings according to Lynn Alexander, assistant in the art school.
