

Grad Given Fellowship To Mexico

Stanley L. Robe, Eugene, former University of Oregon student, has recently been appointed a Roosevelt Fellow by the Institute of International Education for study at the National University in Mexico City, it was announced Tuesday by Dr. Leavitt O. Wright, professor of Romance languages at the university.

Robe is one of a small number of advanced students of Spanish chosen by the institute for the development of cultural relations between the Latin American countries and the United States. His fellowship will run from February 15 to December 15 of this year.

Much Travel

A research project on linguistic geography will occupy most of Robe's time while in Mexico and will require a great deal of travel throughout the country. It will serve as background material on Mexican colloquial Spanish for the development of a dictionary of the Spanish of the Americas contemplated by the Committee on Latin American Study of the American Council of Learned Societies.

Robe has just completed a term's work at the University of Chicago where he worked with Professor Amado Alonzo, head of the Institute of Philology at Buenos Aires, Argentina, under a scholarship of the American Council of Learned Societies.

Student Panel

He has also been appointed on a panel of five students by the state department, two of whom will be chosen for study in Latin America under the terms of the Convention of Buenos Aires for the development of cultural relations between the countries.

Employment Office Has Phone Service Again

Telephone service at the employment office has been dead for a week, but one line will be operating tomorrow, Miss Janet Smith secretary, said Monday.

Students who have been waiting for jobs from the office are asked to drop in instead of waiting for a telephone call.

Pickett Joins USN

Jim Pickett, '41, is now in the navy, stationed on the destroyer, U.S.S. Wright, according to word received by the Emerald. Pickett, a law graduate, was junior class president and a member of Skull and Dagger. He was affiliated with Alpha Tau Omega.

OREGON EMERALD

Monday Desk Staff:

Fritz Timmen, city editor
Bette Reames
Marge Robinson
Betsy Wooten

Night Staff:

Ruth Jordan, night editor
Jean Schneider
Marty Kortge
Maureen Conklyn

Press Heads Pick Woman As President

Ninety editors and publishers returned to their homes Saturday afternoon as the twenty-fourth Oregon press conference came to a close.

During the no host luncheon, in John Straub memorial hall, Mrs. Mary E. Brown, editor of the Redmond Spokesman, was elected president and George Turnbull, professor of journalism, secretary.

Oregon Grad

Mrs. Brown was graduated from the University of Oregon in 1926, and was a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown had served as co-editors of the paper until Mr. Brown entered defense work at which time Mrs. Brown took over the editorship. She will be the first woman president of the press conference.

Turnbull Re-elected

George S. Turnbull, professor of journalism, was elected secretary for the twenty-second consecutive time. But two men have served in the capacity of secretary since the conference was first held in 1919.

A unique feature of the luncheon was the presentation of awards to publishers and editors in whose papers the ten outstanding stories of the year appeared. Presentation was made by a broadcasting crew from Dean Allen's senior class in editing, Mary Lois Dana, Mimi O'Donnell, Charles Boice, and Ted Harmon. Prizes were corn cob pipes.

Students to Outline YW Term Activities

Members of the YWCA publicity club and all other University students are invited to attend a meeting for the purpose of outlining winter term activities this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the "YW" bungalow.

The date of an evening program will be arranged and plans will be made for publicizing a Thursday lecture to be sponsored jointly by the YWCA and YMCA.

Seven Pledged

The dean of men's office announced Friday that seven more men students had been pledged by campus fraternities.

They were: James Popp, Sigma Alpha Epsilon; Warren Stone, Delta Upsilon; James Mutz, Sigma Phi Epsilon; Henry Mears Jr., Chi Psi; Ray Blatchley, Sigma Chi; Ray Peterson, Alpha Tau Omega; and Don Bridenstine, Phi Delta Theta.

Club Sponsors Poetry Prize

Sponsored by the American was appointed to fill Frost's organization established in American colleges to encourage literary effort and criticism, the Ted Olsen poetry prize of $25 is to be awarded for the best original poem or group of poems submitted by an undergraduate in any American college or University.

The contest, named to honor Ted Olsen, author of "A Stranger and Afraid," and "Hawk's Way," will be closed by March 13, 1942. The prize-winning poem will be published in the Parchment, the Quill magazine.

Manuscripts will be judged by poets or critics of national repute. If a group of poems is submitted it must possess some organic unity.

Girls Allowed 11 p.m. Leave

Girls will be given 11 o'clock permission to attend a benefit dance for the Red Cross Wednesday, January 14, Mrs. Hazel P. Schwering, dean of women, affirmed Monday.

The dance, one of two to be sponsored by the Eugene and Springfield Youth League, will be in the Wintergarden. Two bands secured are Art Holman's and Vern Winkler's.

All proceeds from the admission price of 40 cents will be given to the Red Cross. For this reason Mrs. Eddie Scroggins, chairman for the affair, asks that all who are able support the effort by attending.

Eagle Scouts Asked To Aid in Defense

All Eagle Scouts on the campus are requested to report to Jim Thayer, phone 318, where they will be registered for active or reserve defense duties in connection with the campus. Thayer emphasized it was particularly important for students living outside organizations to get in touch with him since they were especially hard to contact.

Calendar Closes Wednesday Noon

The deadline for reservations on the winter term social calendar will be Wednesday noon, as announced by Mrs. Alice Macduff, assistant dean of women.

Mrs. Macduff said that all houses and organizations planning social affairs should enter their dates on the social calendar in her office before that time in order to be certain of dates.

Sophomore student union committee meets at 4 p.m. today in the College Side.

Order of the "O" will meet Wednesday noon at the Phi Delta Theta house. Wear sweaters for Oregana pictures. Initiations will also be held.

The Fellowship of Reconciliation will meet at Wesley house tonight at 8 to study the stands which Harry Emerson Fosdick, Oswald Garrison Villard, E. Stanley Jones, Norman Thomas, Albert Edward Day, and the Christian Century have taken with respect to the war.

Colored movies of cargo loading will be shown at 7:30 Wednesday night in 202 Chapman by the Propeller club. Anyone interested in foreign shipping may come.

YWCA cabinet meets this afternoon at 4:30 in the "YW" bungalow.

YWCA publicity club will meet this afternoon in the "YW" bungalow to organize plans for the winter term. All University students are welcome.

An Episcopal communion service will be held in the men's lounge of Gerlinger hall at 7 o'clock Wednesday morning. Breakfast is to follow immediately and will be by 8 o'clock. This is a fellowship to which all Episcopal students are invited.

Twenty-six states are represented in Bennington college's freshman class.

Student Delegate to Report on Trip East

Genevieve Working, UO delegate to the National Student assembly in Ohio, will give a report of her trip and the December convention at the YWCA cabinet meeting in the "YW" bungalow this afternoon at 4:30.

Reports from student committees on the student war fund, the Heart Hop, and regular committee business are also on the calendar, according to the president, Lois Nordling.

Oregana Gets Hand Lettering

Hand lettered heads for the title pages of the 1942 Oregana are being made this week by Whitson Cox, architectural major. The heads are being made on white cardboard and will be photographed to proper size to fit Oregana pages.

Heads being made are the following: administration, architecture and allied arts, business administration, education, journalism, law, medical school, music, physical education, social science, arts and letters, lower division, military science, ASUO, Oregana, Emerald, speech and radio, music, drama, concerts, Dad's day, personalities, candid year, AWES, WAA, living groups, honoraries, intramurals, football, basketball, minor sports, frosh sports, and swimming.

Graduate Honored by Civil Engineers Group

Chester C. Fisher, '03, Salem, received a certificate of life membership in the American Society of Civil Engineers Friday in Portland after 30 years as a corporate member.

An employe of the U. S. bureau of reclamation for 30 of the 38 years since his graduation from Oregon, he has since added to his bachelor's degree in the science of civil engineering the degree of civil engineer from Oregon with the presentation of a professional thesis in 1912.

Mr. Fisher is the father of Edna B. Fisher, freshman in music.

MR. & MRS. NEWT SIDE PATER Pat Taylor

Well, it looks as though there's been considerable damage done to the trees around here . . . especially the trees Fir & Three . . .

There's a rumor that charm-in' Charlie Eaton, Sigma Chi's problem child back in the boom years, is now a prisoner of war at Wake island; even if it isn't true, it's too good not to print. . . We'll bet if it is so, he's giving the Japs no end of trouble. . . Theta's Shirley Gillett is the spittin' image of a Jon Whitcomb illustration. . . With all the red coats the gels is wearin', firemen. . . Jean Frink, Alpha Phi alum, leaves Wednesday for S. F. where she will marry Bill Feasley, Phi Delta, who's in the marines. . . A beootious Buick is Jimmy Driscoll's car. . . Jack (the) Ripper, D.U., is a most licked before he starts with a name like that. . .

Next time you catch a case of chillblains, come Collich Side, catch cup chilibeans, jolly chili, old beans.

See you . . . on the late shift, nacherly.

Send Me A Delivery Man
Smart Coed! She wants her laundry done quickly and efficiently. She wants her clothes to come back fresh and clean. She calls for the NEW SERVICE delivery man.
Phone 825
New Service Laundry
839 High St.

REX
Edward G. Robinson, Marlene Dietrich in 'Manpower'
— also —
THE THRILLER 'Charlie Chan in Rio'

MCDONALD
A BEST SELLER 'How Green Was My Valley' with Walter Pidgeon and Maureen O'Hara
— also —
Zasu Pitts and Slim Summerville in 'Miss Polly'

HEILIG
EDGAR BERGEN and CHARLIE McCARTHY in 'Look Who's Laughing' and FIBBER McGEE and MOLLY

Believe It or Not
DON'T GUESS
CALL JESS
GODLOVE
The Plumber
31 East 7th Ph. 547

MAYFLOWER
DON'T MISS!
'YOU BELONG TO ME'
with BARBARA STANWYCK and HENRY FONDA